

While others read aloud, sophomore Kristin Donohoo follows along in the script. She anxiously awaited her part. "Drama is a very exciting thing to me, and I think that's because I love to act," Kristin said.

With a look of determination, junior Dustin Deloach talks about drama. "I enjoy being in drama and being in the different plays, because I get to express myself in many ways," Dustin said.

Seniors from last year performed "All I need to know I learned in Kindergarten." "Last year I chose that play because if done to the student's best ability, I knew it would have been a success," Mrs. Grantt said.

Freshman Ellis Upchurch stands toward an invisible audience as she practices for the fall play. "I like acting because it gives you a chance to express yourself and to be loud," Ellis said.

Senior Josh Bunton sits in the mini-auditorium practicing for the play he had a part in. "I feel that practice makes perfect," Josh said.
