

Senior JD Robinson throws the ball to home plate. "I like playing baseball it is a very good sport to get into. I have been playing for years," Robinson said. They spend there time after school practicing for better plays.

Sophomore Rebecca Jacobs served the ball to the other team. Her teammates crowd around her to show their support. "I enjoy being on the team and I like my teammates," Rebecca said.

The varsity football team stands together on the field to talk about what plays they will do next. Sertoma is the game that kicked off the season, and prepared them for the games to come.

The junior varsity volleyball team sit together and discuss their game routines. They practiced after school and they did their best during games.

"I tried my best to make this year as easy as it could be, but after all the hard work it pays off. Journalism is something you have to be really dedicated to."
-Sarah Gibbons, 12th

 Sophomore Ramon Taylor runs with the ball to make a touchdown. Being the tailback on the Varsity team, he worked hard at practice. This allowed him to do well on the field on friday night games.

football