

High flying is Amanda Coulter's specialty. She flew through the air to show her spirit. "Cheerleading is a great sport and stunting is a lot of fun, but being a topper is the best thing about cheerleading to me," junior Amanda Coulter said.

Learning cheers is a very important task for cheerleaders. "There are many cheers to learn before becoming a cheerleader," senior Cindy Cortez said, as she clapped to the beat of one of the cheers at Sertoma.

Amanda Coulter and Amber Cunningham played in the mist from the fan at Sertoma. The cheerleaders cheered louder at Sertoma than any other game this season.

Junior Amanda Auger shows cougar pride by performing in the air. This was her first year cheering and she wants to cheer again next year. "I really like stunting except when I fall. That's really embarrassing," Amanda said.

Cheering the "First and Ten" cheer, the varsity cheerleaders led the football players to victory. "The best thing about cheerleading is making friends that I know will last a life time," senior Jennifer Kinard said.