

Quitters never win

Putting her all in to it, former junior, Margaret Smith kicks the ball. "Soccer has been a huge part in my high school career. I just love it," Margaret said.

Diligently guiding the ball, former senior Kinloch Smith plans a pass to her other team mates. "You don't have time to think on the field, so you have to go with your first instinct," Kinloch said.

The girls varsity soccer team in 2003 was an amazing point in the sports past and future. "This was the first time we ever made playoffs," Coach Reid said. A lot of time and dedication was displayed by each individual which led them to their victory.
