

ARRIVES

BEST LEADERSHIP

Kimberly Hamilton - USC Columbia, Pharmacy

When I found out I won for best leadership, I was so surprised. I feel as if I inspire others by being a good leader.

Demond Elliot - I am at this moment, undecided of what college I plan on attending but I have narrowed my decision to two choices, Withrop University or Charleston Southern University. It took me by surprise that I had won. I am inspired by the will and desire to become successful and to do something meaningful in my life. The inspirations of positive people in my life give me strength to only keep going strong in my life.

BEST SMILE

Aharon Brock - Navy, Aviation

I Love that I won. When I was growing up, I was always teased about my teeth and now I'm winning for Best Smile. That's why I love that I won.

Ashley Williams - USC-Columbia, Child Adolescent Psychiatry

I am very honored that my fellow classmates chose me for best smile.

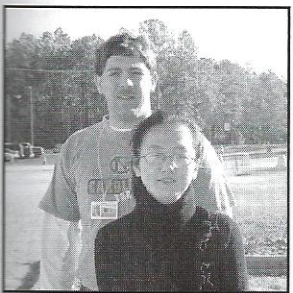

MOST TALENTED

Ashely Rhode - USC Columbia, Computer Programming/System Analysis

It feels good to know that people think that highly of my work. Situations in my life inspire me to do what I do.

Dennis Gantt - North Carolina A&T, Computer Technology

I am glad that I won because I feel I have much talent that my friends weren't aware of. My friends and family inspire me. They are the only way I stay out of trouble.

MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED

Yu Ling Ni - Winthrop, Undecided on Major

I try to do my best to succeed. I was very surprised that I had won. Thank you to all who have voted for me.

Matthew Lucas - God has blessed me with the opportunity to do well in school. I suppose some of my peers thought that I have done well with my academics.

BEST EYES

Mark Roberts - USC, Undecided on Career

I feel great about winning Best Eyes. Being alive and having fun is what inspires me.

Toni Bloodworth - Clemson University, Forensic Science/Interior Decorating

I really appreciated and enjoyed winning. My parents believe in me. They believe that I can be anything I want to be and they inspire me.

Travis Adams - Undecided on College, Accounting

I was surprised that people thought I was the best looking.

Michelle Bullock - Charleston Cosmetology Institute

I was shocked and I couldn't believe that I won. The reason why I think I won Best Looking is because I try to look my best.
