

Senior Keeshan Brown's contagious smile puts people in a good mood. "My personality is very outgoing and sensitive. I love to smile and that is how people know me," Keeshan said.

Looking a little worried, freshman Zachary Singleton bites his fingernails to pass the time of anxiety. "I like to joke around, but when it comes to football I get very serious," Zachary said.

Caught off guard, sophomores Ashley McWilliams and Juashwa Brown like to show everyone their true personalities. "I would say I'm very sensitive, smart, sexy, and cool," Ashley said.

Junior Jessica Willis talks on the pay phone during school. "I am very outgoing and talkative. I take the initiative to talk to people even if I don't know them," Jessica said.

While listening to music, senior Erin-Kayla Bunton shows her carefree personality by moving her head to the beat. "I love everyone and life is just way too precious to waste with a frown," Erin-Kayla said.

