

Sophomores Carolyn Henderson and Megan Musgrave "chill-out" with some cool statues during their spring break. "We had an awesome times in Myrtle Beach and we can't wait until next year," Carolyn said.

Junior Lamarck Clayton feels at ease after his trip to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. "For spring break I went to Philadelphia to chill with my uncle. We bought some clothes and we played in a basketball tournament," Lamarck said.

Cruising across the water, seniors Jessica Straub and Adrienne Boyce hang on tight. The fear of falling off in deep water always lingered in the back of their minds. "We spent a week at Jacksonville Beach and we had the best time ever," Jessica said.

Freshman Maurice Washington has a spring break full of excitement. "I had fun during spring break because I met a lot of girls and it was crazy. I love it because I didn't have to go to school," Maurice said.

In their spare time juniors Victoria Harrison and Tamara Crosby let their uncle, the photographer, capture a moment in time. "Every spring break my family goes to the beach, and that was where the picture was taken," Victoria said.

