

Did they really like all of the hard work and long hours?

"Being co-captain has been a tremendous reward for the work I have put into colorguard. I loved what I did and I would do it all over again. I am going to miss the memories and my girls."

Amber Clark, 12th

"I love being in colorguard. We came a long way this year. I can't wait until next year, we will be better."

Siedah Garrett, 11th

I really enjoyed colorguard this year. The rookies came a long way. I hope we have more people try out next year."

Siera Robinson, 10th

Colorguard moves easily throughout the band at each performance. They made the show colorful and spectacular to watch.

Standing at attention, senior Ashley Hiott prepares for her next move. "Being co-captain has definitely been an honor. I have worked very hard for the past four years and have enjoyed every minute of it," Ashley said.

Sitting in the stands at the pep rally, the colorguard cheers on the band. "This has been a crazy year, one I will remember. I am glad I decided to try out for colorguard. I will forever love all of my teammates," junior Luvenia Evans said.

Concentrating on holding the flag at the right angle, junior Brittany Stephens works her magic. "Being in band these past two years has been so much fun. I wish I would have started colorguard my freshmen year, but I still have a year left. I know it will be a good one," junior Brittany Stephens said.
