

Do You Like Projects Or Tests?

"I like projects because they take a lot more time and effort than a test does. Projects give people a challenge."

Derrick Fields, 12 grade

"I like doing projects because they are more hands on than tests, you can be more creative with a project."

Brittany Eustace, 9th

"I like doing projects because they are easy and I get good grades on them."

Cody Williams, 12th

Juniors James Waddell and Shontae Young show off their "Fall of the House of Usher" class project. Mrs. Brown has given the assignment for years. "I had fun while I helped create the poster," Shontae said.

Learning to fix an injured ankle, senior Leah Aiken tapes senior Dusty Strickland's ankle. Taking sports medicine meant having many class projects involving taping. "I like taping because hands on activities were the best way to learn," Dusty said.

Sophomore James Edwards has a great time finishing his WWII project for Mrs. Travis. "I like doing projects for Mrs. Travis: she gives really good grades," James said.

Lindsey Hiers, Meagan Donker, Channing Derry, Bonnie Cole, James Waddell, and Benjamin Boyd paint the cougar on the football field. "I had fun helping put the cougar on the field," senior Channing Derry said.
