

As they expressed their spirit to the crowd and the football team, the varsity squad shouted, "We're number one!"

Sophomore Brittany Boyd along with her fellow varsity cheerleaders, dropped their pom-poms to shake their stuff for the crowd. "We did not do it for ourselves, we did it for our team," Brittany said.

Junior Shannon Keeling along with the varsity cheerleaders prepared to stunt for the crowd. "My favorite part of cheerleading was stunting because I'm a flyer," Shannon said.

Sophomore Rachel Culpepper shined brightly as she cheered for her team to win the game. "I thought that the cheerleading squad's spirit helped the team win," Rachel said.

Nicole Bunton, 12th grade
Bonnie Cole, 12th grade
Rachel Culpepper, 10th grade
Jessica Barr, 10th grade
Diego Marin, 11th grade

