

Phil Maffei wrestled his opponent to the mat in an attempt to pin him. "I like wrestling because everyone on the team is a family and always there for each other," senior Phil Maffei said.

ON TOP OF THINGS

Sliding and tossing their way to the mats, the wrestling team kicked off the second season with a bang, in preparation for the playoffs held in February. Quickness, strength, and talent made wrestling different from the other high school sports. To some, the skill and discipline it took to be a wrestler made it different. "I joined the team because I considered myself to be a very active person and I always wanted to play a sport," senior Stephan Lapresta said.
