

Holding her foot on the base, former sophomore Tara Shafer attempts to get the runner out. Tara enjoyed playing and has been playing since she was a little girl. "This will be my third year playing on varsity, and I am still learning the game of softball," Tara said.

BATTER UP

Before the season began, the softball team prepared for victory. Practice lasted two hours a day. "Coach was hard on us about practice," former freshman Brittney Padgett said.

Both teams had players who knew what to expect. Many of the girls have played for years. "I've been playing since I was really young," former senior Kathy Doyle said. Softball provided an opportunity to play a fun sport. The girls had confidence and determination.

"Motivation brought success," former freshman Selita Hills said.
