

Dearest Channing,

We don't know how to begin to tell you how proud we are of you and how blessed we are to be your parents. You have grown into a beautiful, unique, young woman, and very much an individual. We've tried to guide you and prepare you the best that we could for the journey ahead of you. You are a very strong and determined person, and the goals you have set for yourself will no doubt be in your hand. We hope that you will look around every corner with enthusiasm and anticipation. Life is what you make of it; love every moment as if it were your last. Congratulations, Channing! This chapter is finished, pick up your pen and write the rest of your book! We love you with all that we are. You are the sunshine of our lives, and we believe in you.

Love Mom and Dad
