

Take a Bow

As the year comes to an end, we are ready to say good-bye, but we will never forget the memories that we made. All of the laughter, the tears, and the hard work will be remembered for the rest of our lives. For some, this is a final chapter and for others it is just the beginning. A special thanks to the entire yearbook staff who worked so hard to make this book possible.

