Making it Big

Students Brace Themselves for a Brand New Year.

As the doors burst open, students filled the halls with excitement and laughter. For many, high school proved to be more than just books, tests, and mountains of work. It was about making memories, like scoring the winning touchdown, meeting new friends, and getting closer with old acquaintances. Friends were a big part of the high school life. Who better to share it with than someone that truly matters?

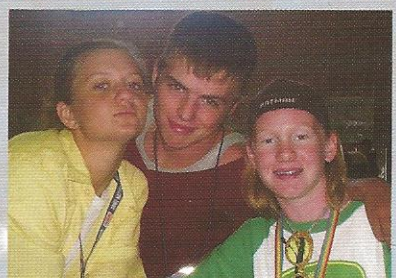

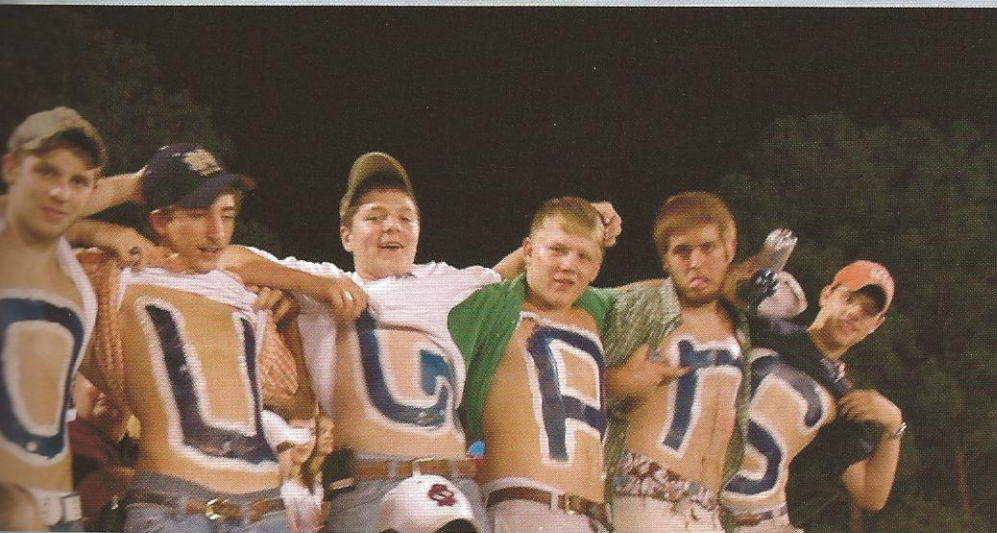

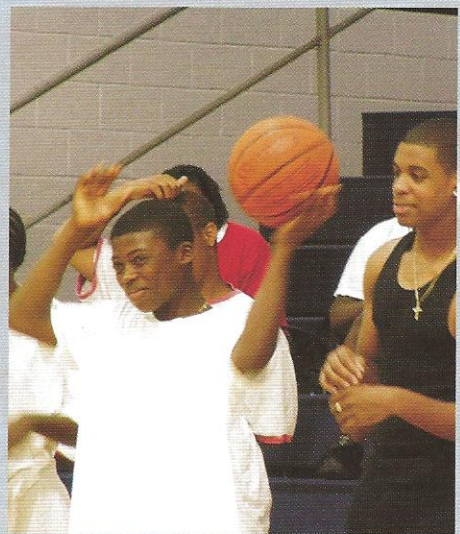

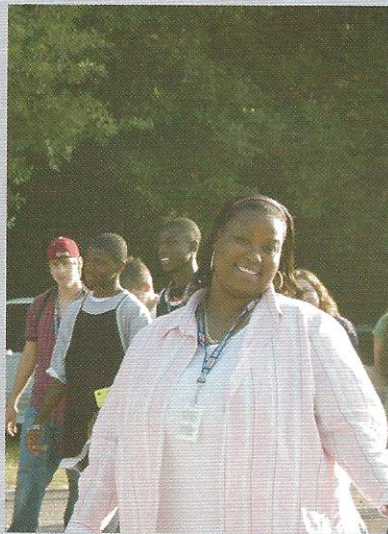

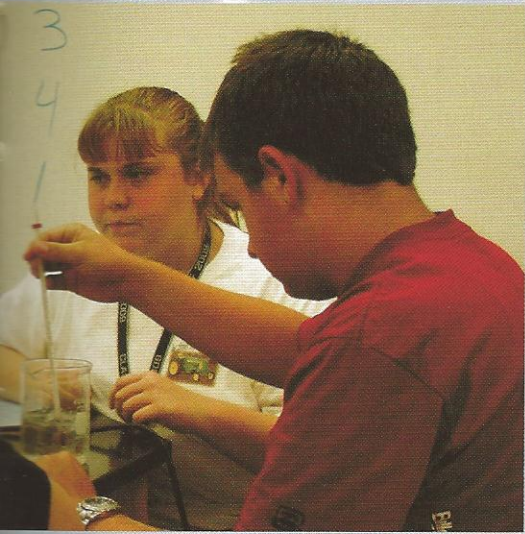

Old students returned and new ones wandered the halls with curiosity; each and every one ready to embark on a new and promising journey. Students prepared themselves to take on their chaotic and hectic schedules. They proved that they were ready to really make it big and make something of themselves. Hope, pride, and the will to succeed burned in each of their hearts as they proved themselves ready to continue their traditions of excellence. The dedicated staff strived to see that the year was the best it could possibly be.

Behind the Scenes

Sorry To Go.. Happy To Leave

All of the graduates' hard work finally paid off! As the former class of 2005 left high school in pursuit of higher education, many emotions flowed from the graduating class. "I was excited, anxious, nervous and sad at the same time," former senior Ashley Strickland said.

Graduating from high school meant the end of an era. That one monumental event changed the lives of over two hundred students in different ways.

"Graduation made me realize that the time had come for me to move on in life," former senior Josh Lyons said. From favorite teachers to best friends, the graduates remembered things that made high school memorable.

During an upbeat song, a group of girlfriends dance their feet off. Dancing was the main event at the prom.

Twin seniors, Patricia and Alicia Reynolds, take a moment to pause for a picture that will last a lifetime.

Mardi Gras

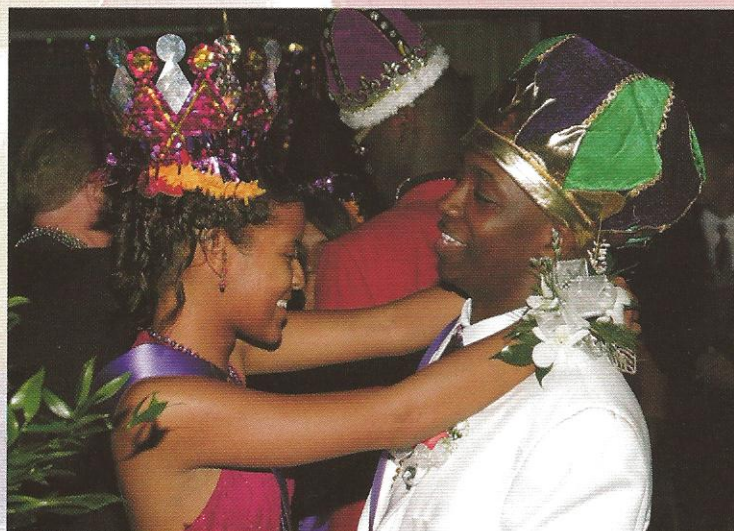

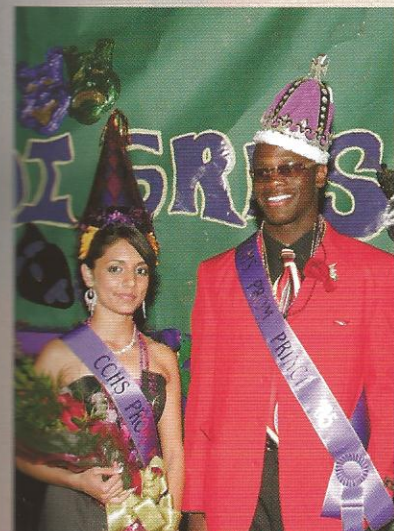

Sweating for excellence, the junior prom committee worked a total of thirty hours for a perfect night. On March 25, 2005 rentals, hot rides, and fine dates crowded the gym with excitement.

Teachers, doing more than chaperoning, also got loose and funky. Doing what they do best, some brought out their "Old School Funk," and the "New School" mess ups. Coming to an end at midnight, they hardly had any complaints and plenty of smiles. Students kept their promises and everyone moved on with another high school memory.

"I danced a little bit, but mostly, I watched everyone else have fun," Junior Willette Gant said.

"The prom was filled with fun and unforgettable memories that will last a lifetime," Asha said.

Prince Donald Robinson and Princess Bhavina Patel took over the dance floor. "I helped to make this prom a success with the committee, so it felt good to see the outcome," Donald said.

Former senior Prom King Jackie Bowman and Queen Nicole Polanco celebrate winning. "I almost didn't run because most of my competition was my friends, but I'm glad I did," Nicole said.

The members of O-Ficial pose for a picture after a busy practice. "I went from just watching them to being in the group and it has all been a great experience," Junior Gregory Grant said.

Corey puts his performance skills to the test at a concert in May. "We started Uncle's Fest to give kids in Walterboro a chance to show off thier talent," Junior Corey Mckemie said.

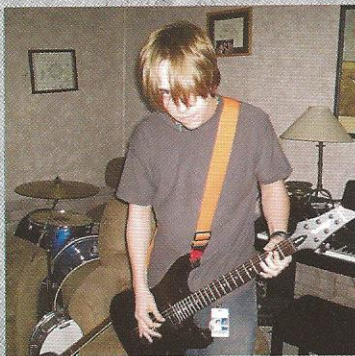

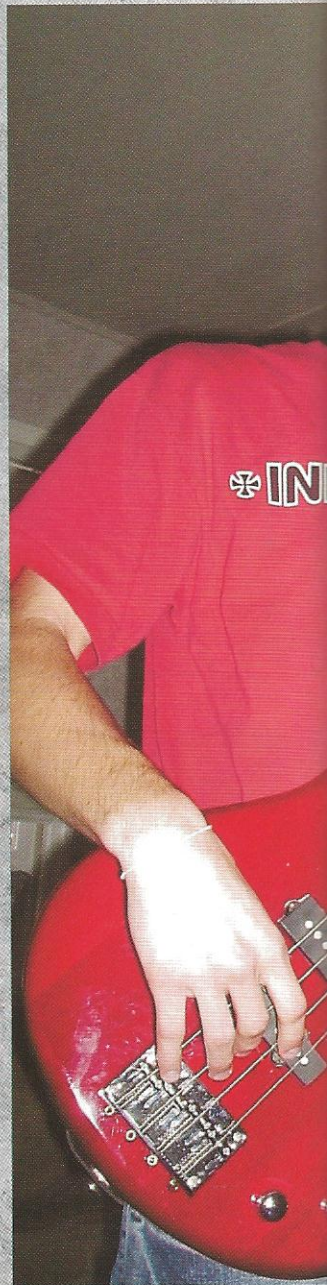

Star Search

This year, our school boomed, well blared, with student musicians. These students expressed themselves through participation in independently started bands. They took chances and showed talent by performing, and putting themselves out there for all to judge. Musicians stuck together, supporting each others bands.

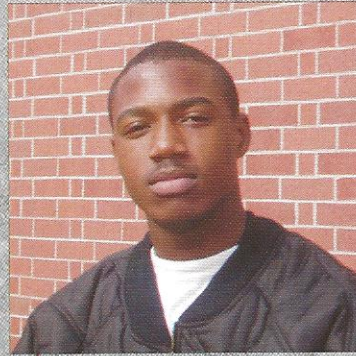

"I am supportive of all musicians and other bands because they all work hard and people don't realized how much work a band really is," Junior Corey McKemie said. So look at these faces, they'll be famous before you know it.

- Lauren McLees

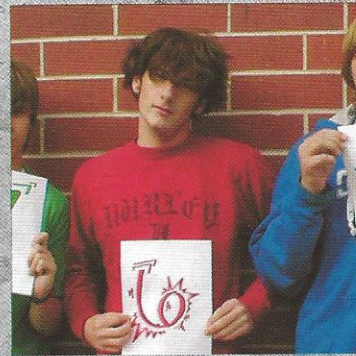

Senior Will Robbins

"I've played guitar since I was 8 and I have been influenced by so many different musicians that the type of music I play varies."

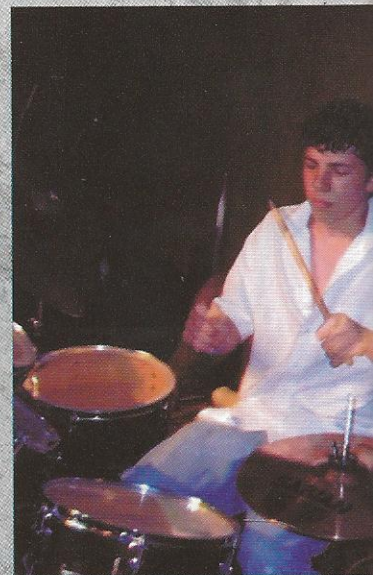

Junior Charles Anderson

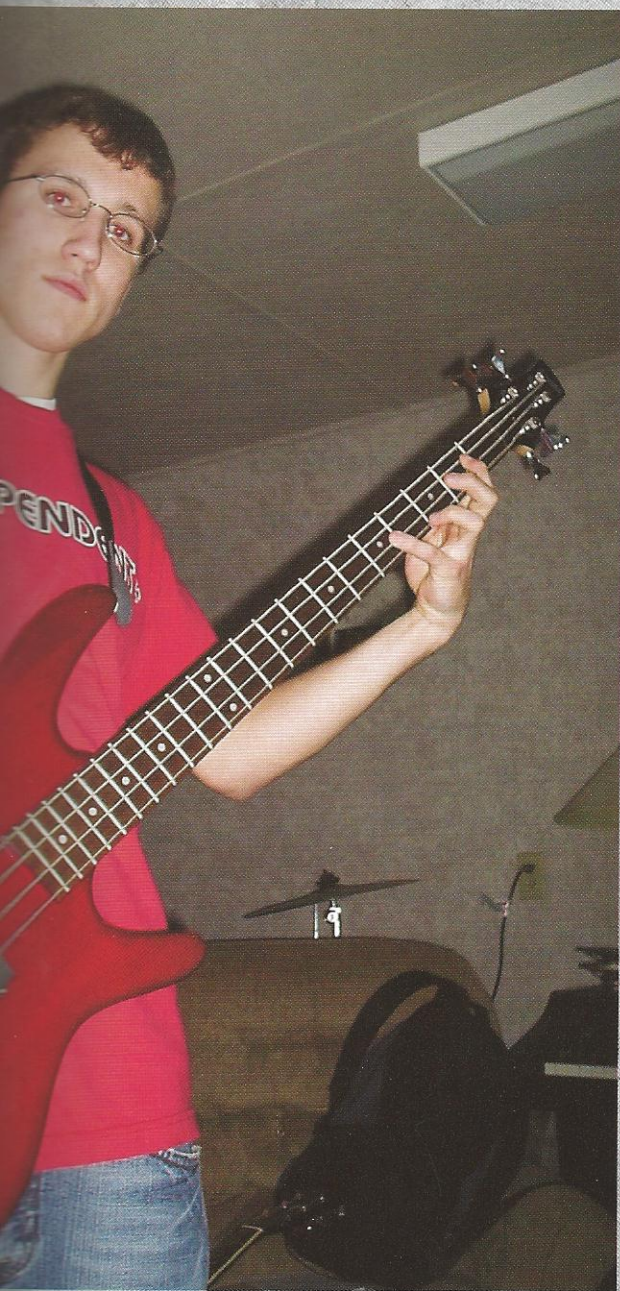

"Being in O-Ficial with Gregg, Gerren, and Malik gave me a really good vibe."

Sophomore Miles Crosby

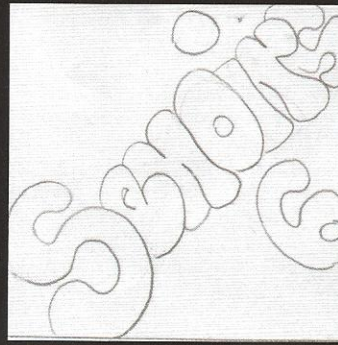

"I pretty much taught myself how to play guitar. I practiced for about 3 hours a day and I guess I got good at it."

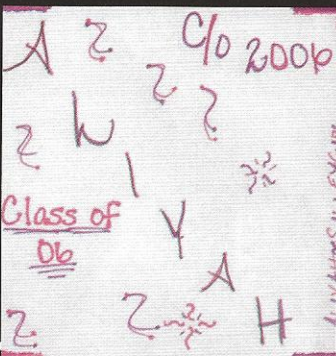

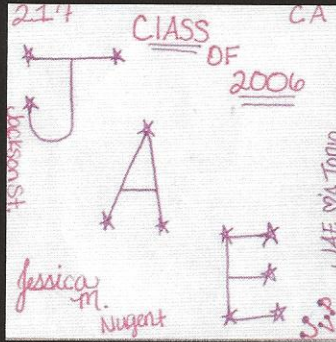

Warming up during practice, Junior Brandon Rivers plays bass. "I play bass, drums, and guitar, but I enjoy bass most because it helps me feel the heart of the music," Brandon said.

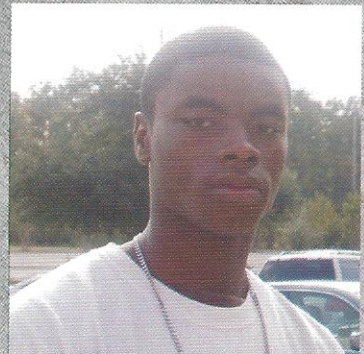

Junior Morgan Houtz plays drums for AKA during Uncle's Fest in May. "I like playing drums because they are loud," Morgan said.

The student store sells many items. Junior Desmond Walden buys candy for the ride home. "I work at ISI Resort Service on the weekend, and I am thrifty with where my money goes, but sometimes you just need sugar," Desmond said.

Trying to decide which kind of ice cream he wants, senior Eric Ford puts his money into the machine. "I usually only get something from the machines when I have money and I am really hungry," Eric said.

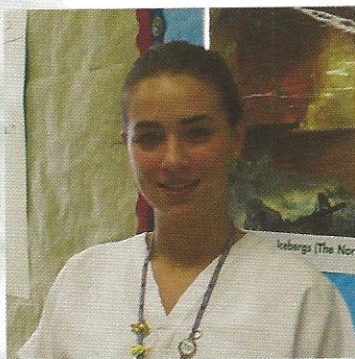

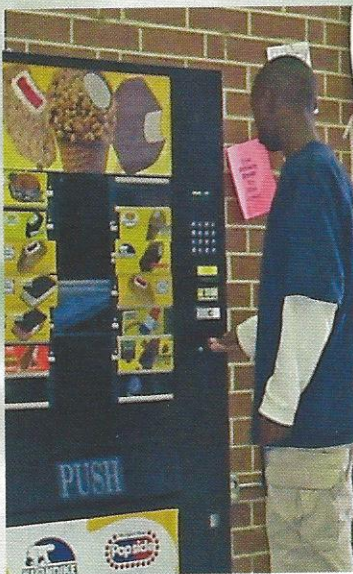

Big Spender

Sodas, snacks, and ID's seemed to be among some of the things that students spent money on during the school day. They bummed money from their parents or had a job to work and pay for the things that they needed. They also put money into their cars and their clothes. In some way or another, everyone found a way to be a big spender.

The cafeteria received a facelift over the summer and students were able to choose and eat at one of the three areas - Cougar Cafe, Cougar Deli or the Sandwich Shop.

Senior Whitney Murdaugh

"I drive a Pontiac Grand Am, and I spend about $25.00 a week on gas since the gas prices have gone up."

Senior Latasha Teasdale

"I go out just about every weekend, and I usually spend about $20.00. My mom gives me the money."

Junior Aubrey Stegall

"My dad bought my car. It was $5,000. I spend about $50.00 on gas a week, because I live in Cottageville."

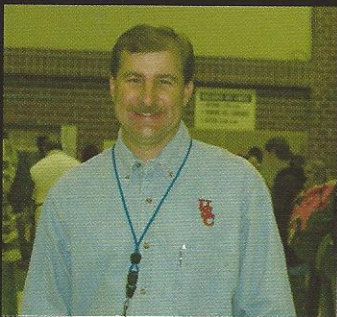

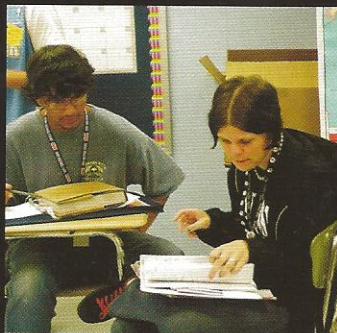

Senior Courtney Morgan

"I spend about $10.00 a week at school. I mostly buy drinks and ice cream, and I go to work so that I will have money to spend."

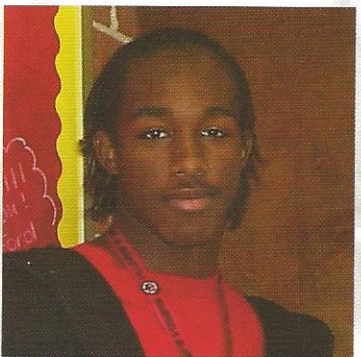

"My brother just went to college so I try not to spend too much money on clothes. I usually buy jeans and shirts. I don't spend as much money on shoes, because I love cheap flip flops!"
 - Senior Rebecca Jacobs.

Senior Tamara Crosby
 "I don't go out to eat everyday, but sometimes I spend $20-$25 a week, because I like McDonalds."

Junior Lauren McClees and friend.
 "I don't really eat lunch at school. I usually spend money on the vending machines after"

Senior Derick Haynes
 "I spend about $30-$40 on jeans and about $10-$20 on my shirts, but I spend more money on shoes than I spend on clothes."

Senior Juan Soto is from Mexico City. "The girls here are pretty," Juan said.

The Melting Pot

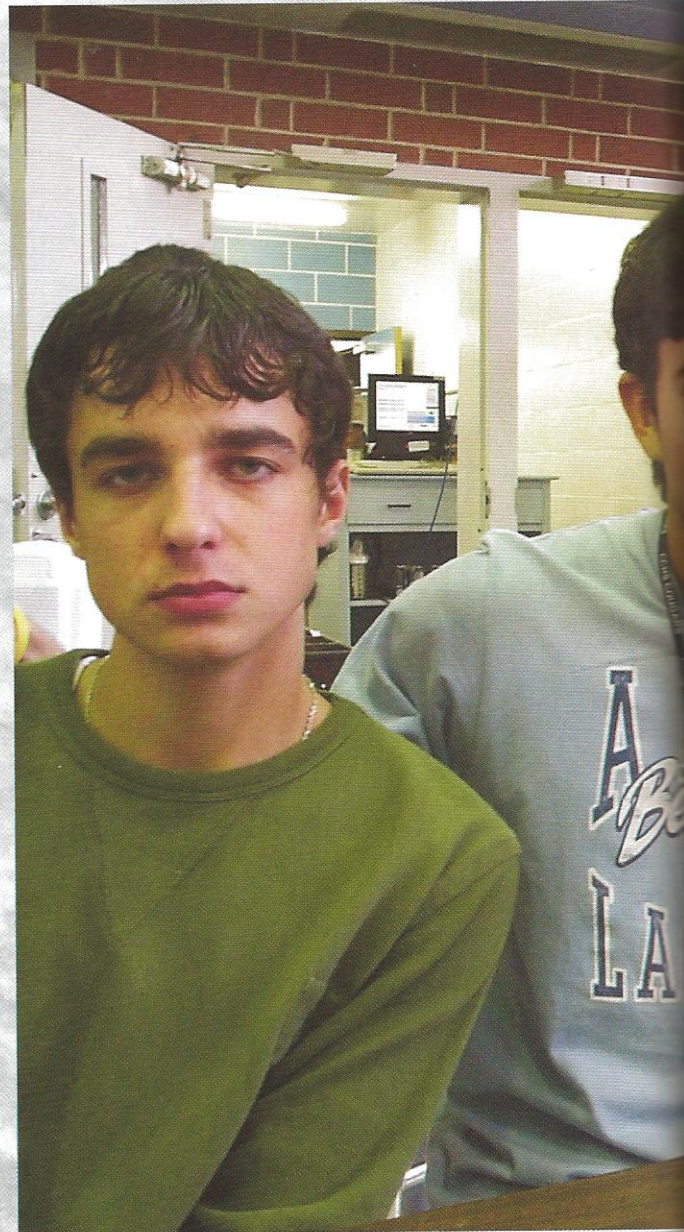

The arrival of students from various countries added to the melting pot known as Colleton County High. This year students arrived from all over the world including Korea, Mexico, and the Ukraine.

One new student, Fernando Gamez, came from Culiacan Sinaloa, Mexico. He arrived in the United States in September of 2005. "I thought this was a wonderful country," Senior Fernando Gamez said.

Kevin Kang arrived in the United States from South Korea, in August 2005. While in Korea he played basketball and soccer. "I liked America because people were kind and talked to me a lot," Junior Kevin Kang said.

-Sherelle Memminger

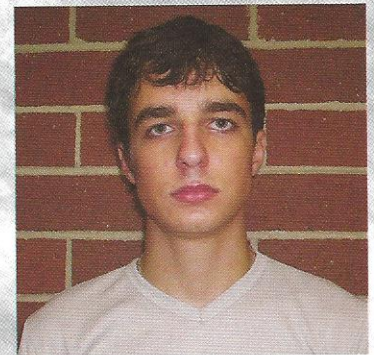

Junior Kevin Kang

"I like America. The people here are very friendly," Kevin said.

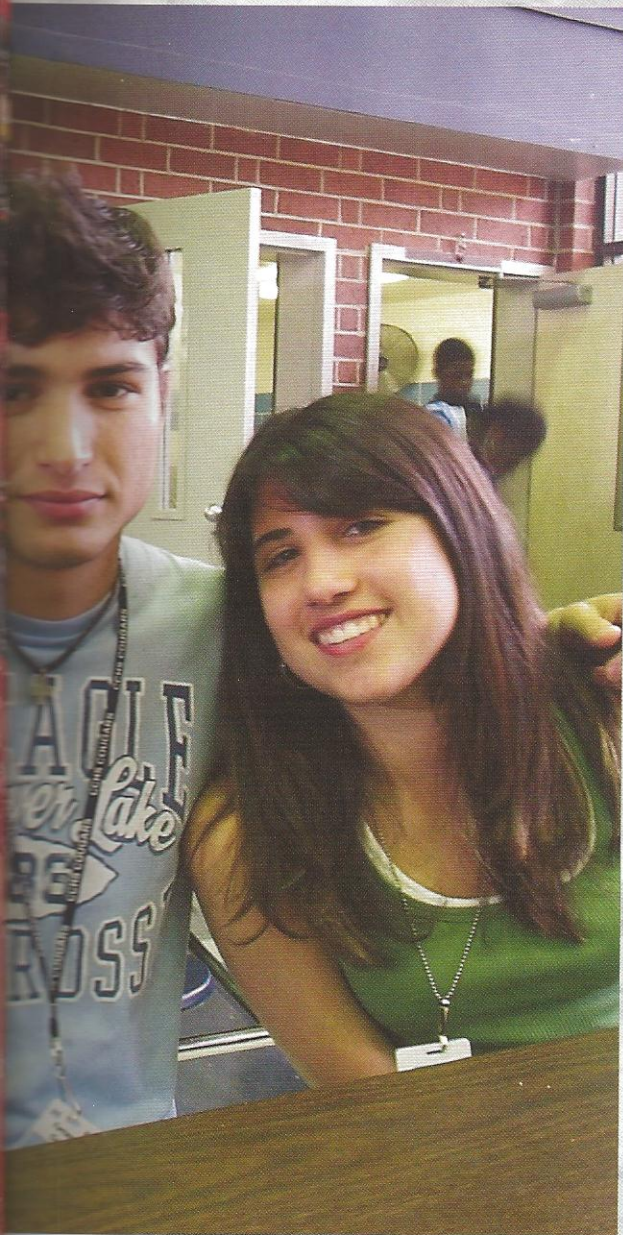

Senior Fernando Gamez

"This is a wonderful country," Fernando said.

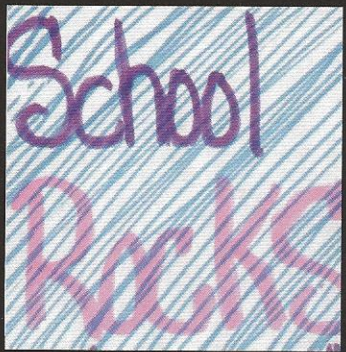

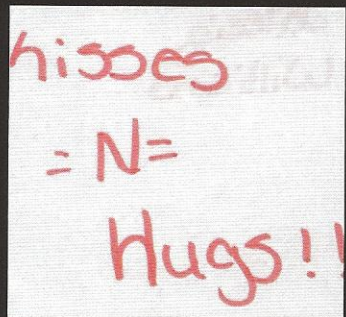

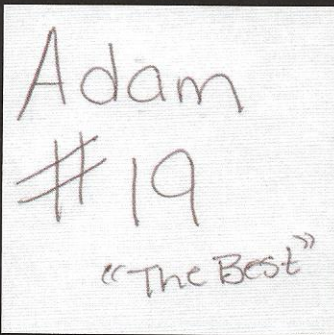

Junior Ivan Nasikovskyy

"America is very different but I like it," Ivan said.

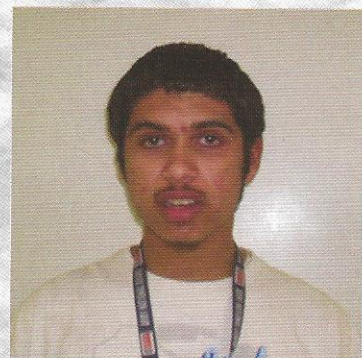

Fernando, Rakell and Ivan graciously introduce themselves to our school. "We feel welcomed at this school," Fernando, Rakell, and Ivan said.

Teacher Mrs. Srivivasan

"America is nice, the people here are very friendly and helpful."

Senior Wilfred Camacho

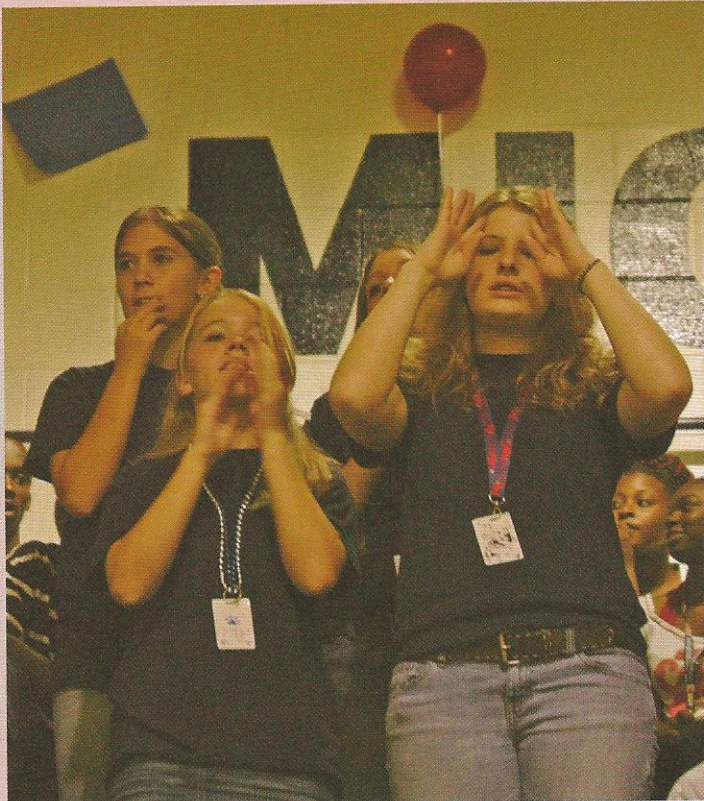

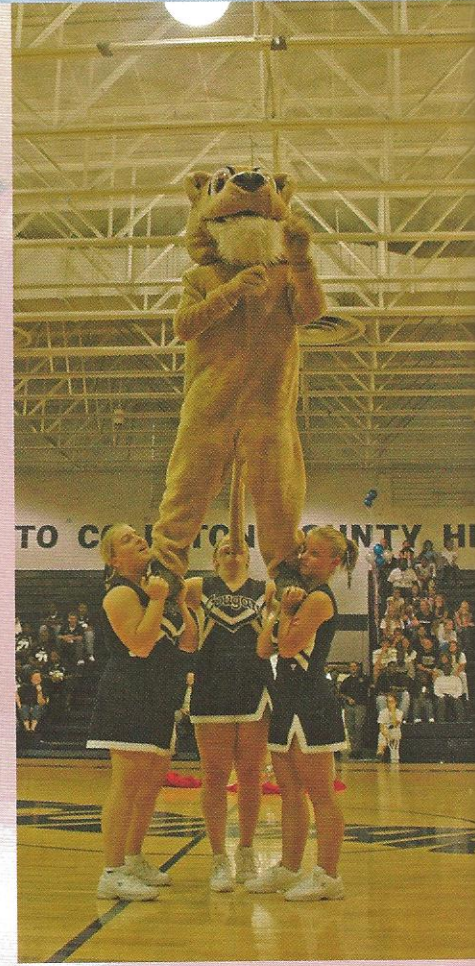

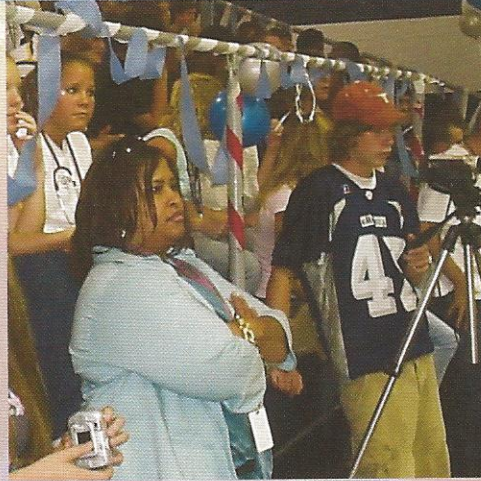

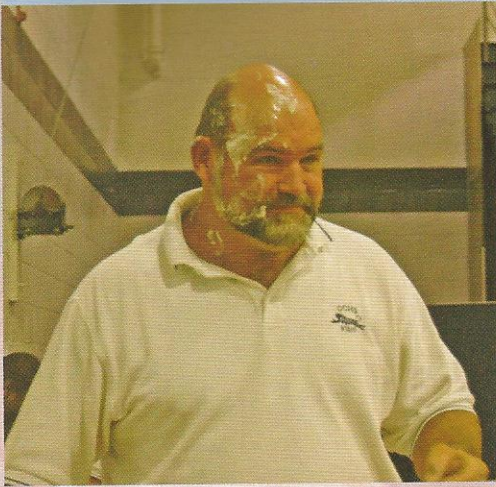

"America is good."

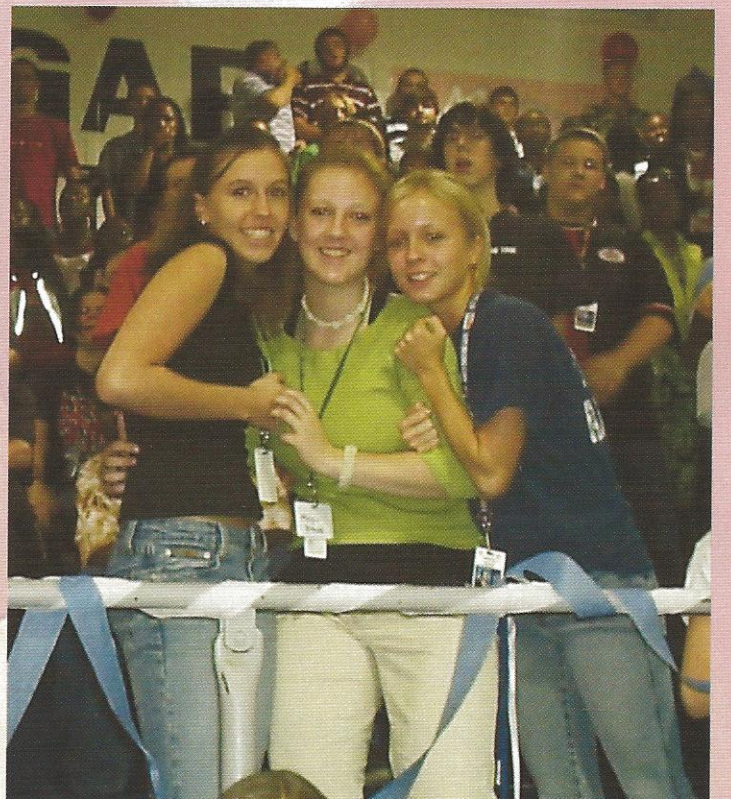

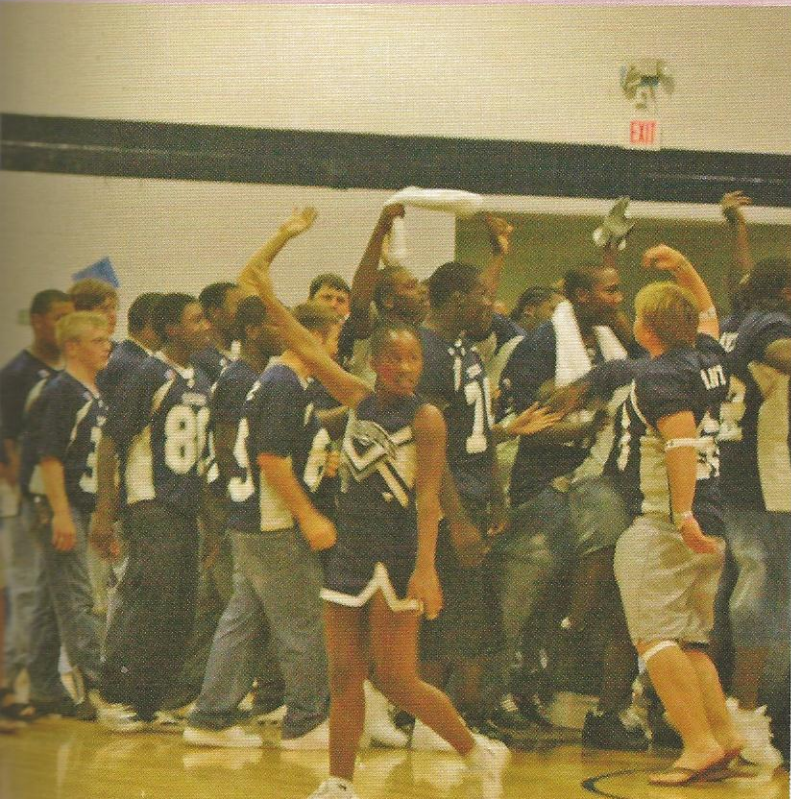

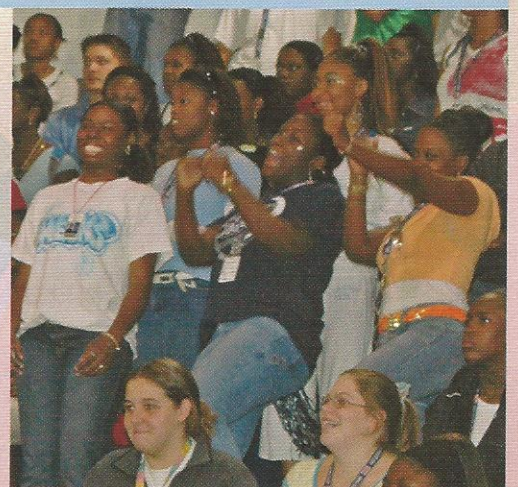

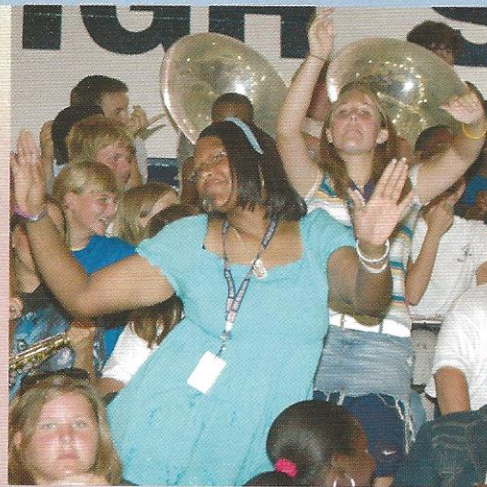

Teacher Mrs. Bordiano

"I like America very much. It is different from my country but, I've learned a lot. The weather here is wonderful."

Most School Spirited

"It is good to have school spirit it shows how much you care about your school," John Saunders said. "I have to have school spirit in order to keep me going. I love to see everyone supporting our school," Siedah Garrett said.

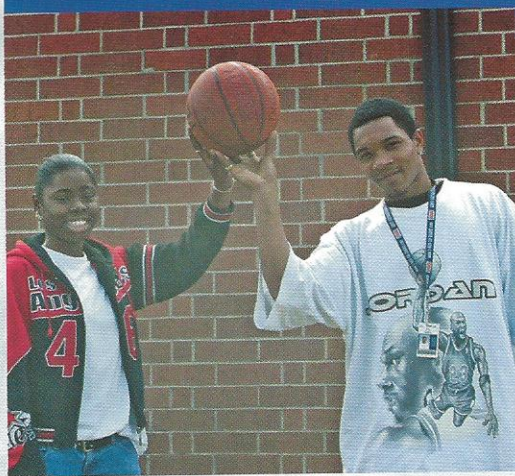

Senior Superlatives

"I was very excited to find out that I won. It's a great achievement being number one out of all of the other athletes," Eric Salley said. Natasha Gilliard loves playing basketball.

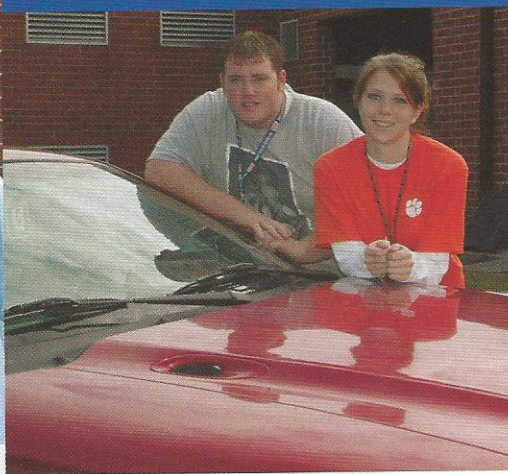

"At least now people know to stay out of my way," Victoria Harrison said. "Since ninth grade I've been through nine cars so I guess I kind of deserve this," David King said.

"I have a unique way about the way I dress," Charles Moultrie said. "I'm so excited to have won best dressed because I dress to impress, other people and myself seem to think the way I dress is cute," Dahlia Desantiago said.

"That's my style "my swager", I can't help it," Jeffrey Garrett said. "I think I was picked for best humor because I have the jokes and I'll crack you up," Shadonna Brown said.

Most Unforgettable

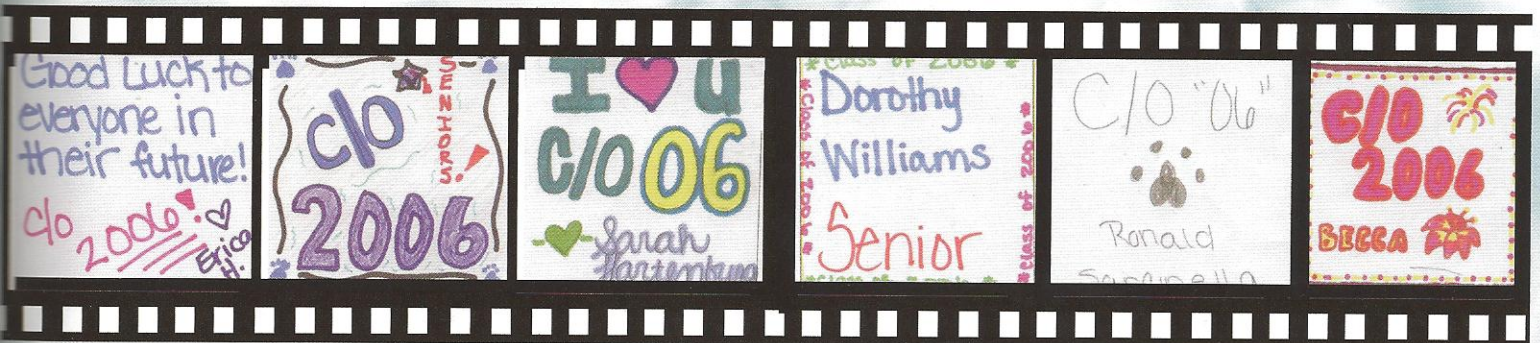

Jasper Farmer and Latoya Brothers

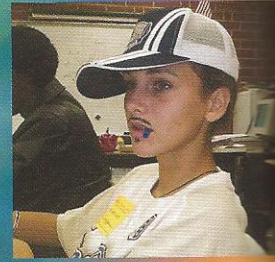

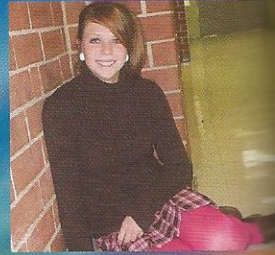

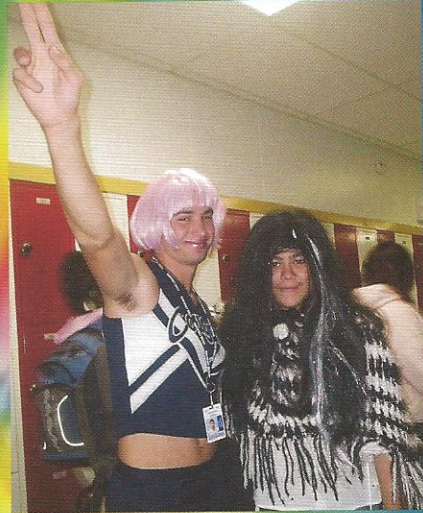

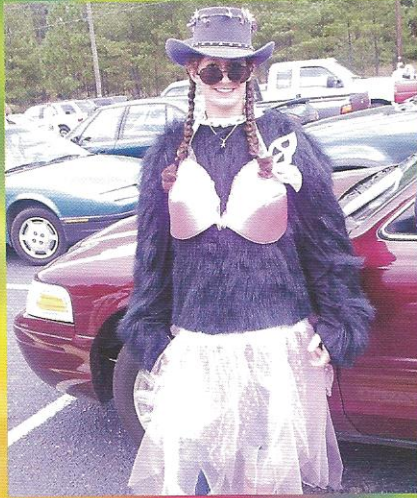

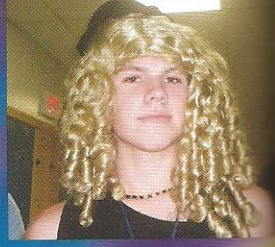

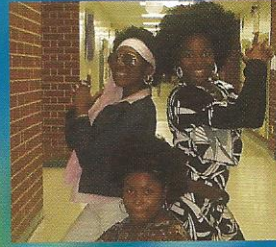

"I try to be myself everyday, not necessarily to impress anyone. I think people feel they can easily befriend me and love my personality," Latoya Brothers said.

Best Personality

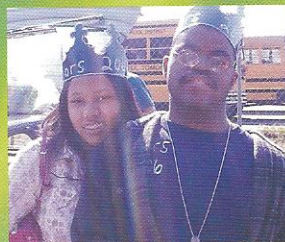

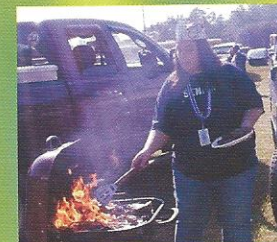

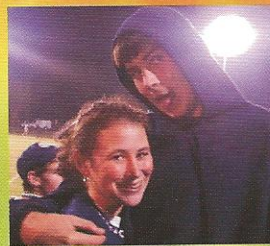

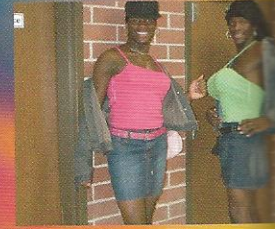

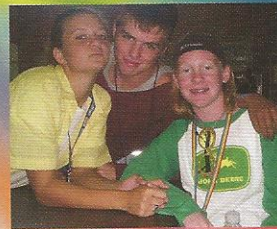

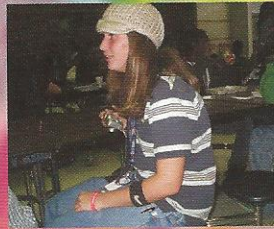

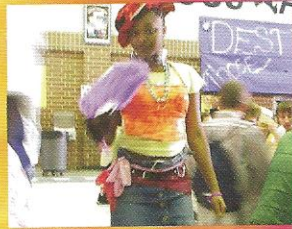

David Varner and Shontell Mincey

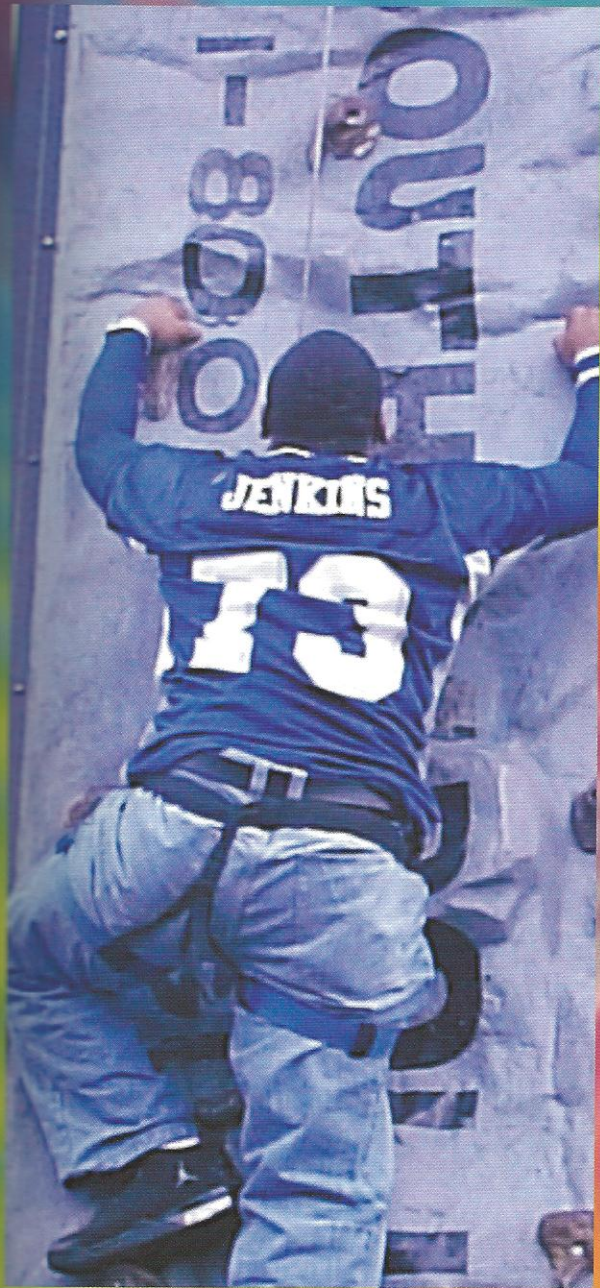

"I'm happy that everyone voted me for best personality. At least I'll be remembered for something. Thanks everyone for voting for me," Shontelle Mincey said.

Spirit Week

Coming to school, looking around and seeing all the boys wearing dresses, girls looking outrageously tacky and your teachers returning back to their retro roots can only mean one thing, Spirit Week. The one week where the whole school has a free ticket to deck out in their most outgoing and unordinary attire. All the halls are full of blue and silver, and quotes steamed down the halls in ever direction. Students' faces were finally full of what everyone had anticipated in the very beginning, spirit. Friends came together and did all they could to show they had the most spirit and confidence in their school.

Prom

Fashion Show

Junior and school spirit enthusiast Prenita Hudson didn't have any apprehension about participating in the Prom Fashion Show. "I didn't think much of participating. It was something for the school so I didn't mind. And I love participating in anything for school. I love to have school spirit."

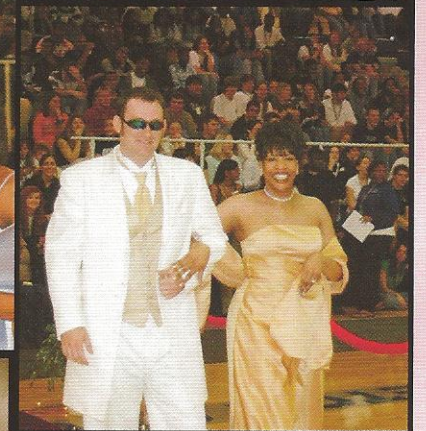

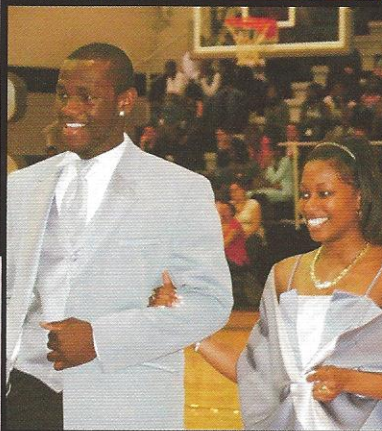

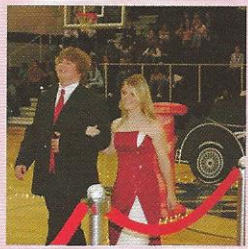

"Most of my friends were signing up so I decided to sign up. I think it was a great idea that I did. I had lots of fun," Junior Liza Lucas said.

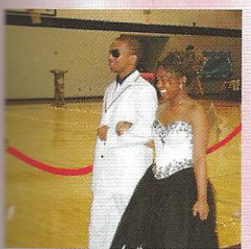

"To be or not to be," Novie Ulmer said as he showed off his tux for the crowd.

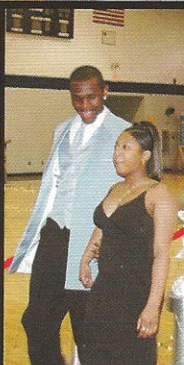

"I like to model so I decided to sign up," Tabitha Spann said.

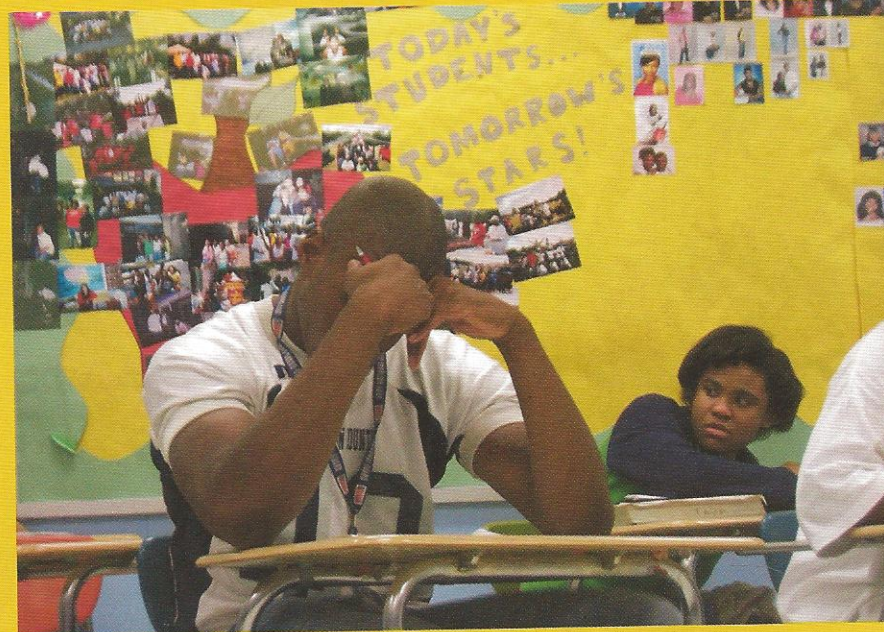

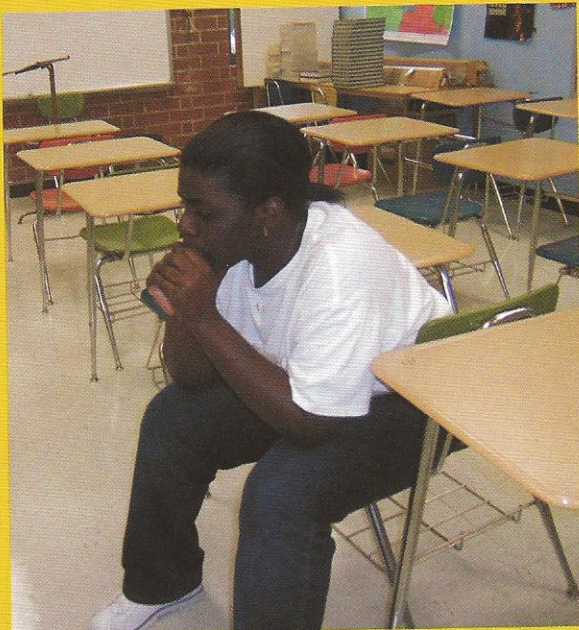

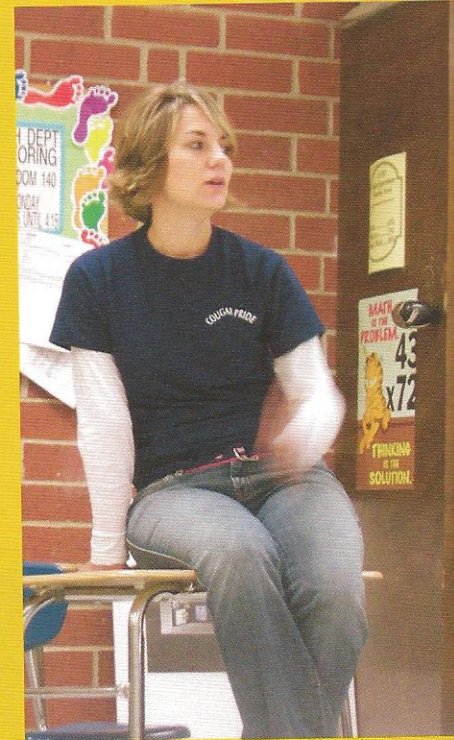

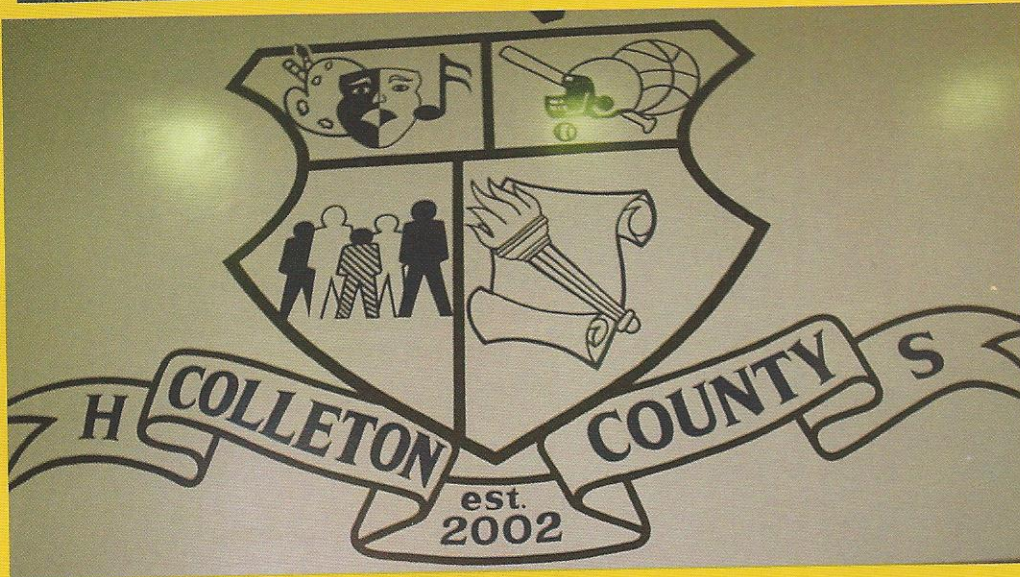

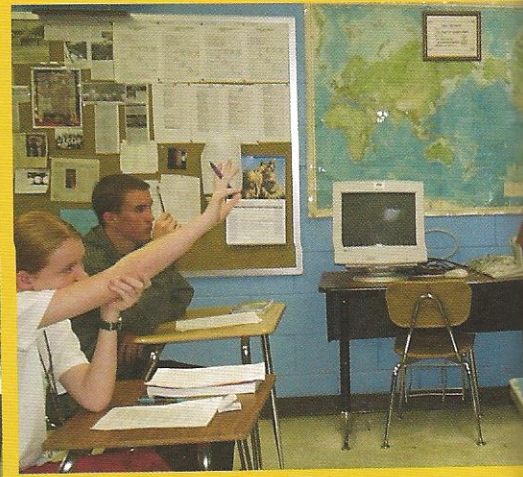

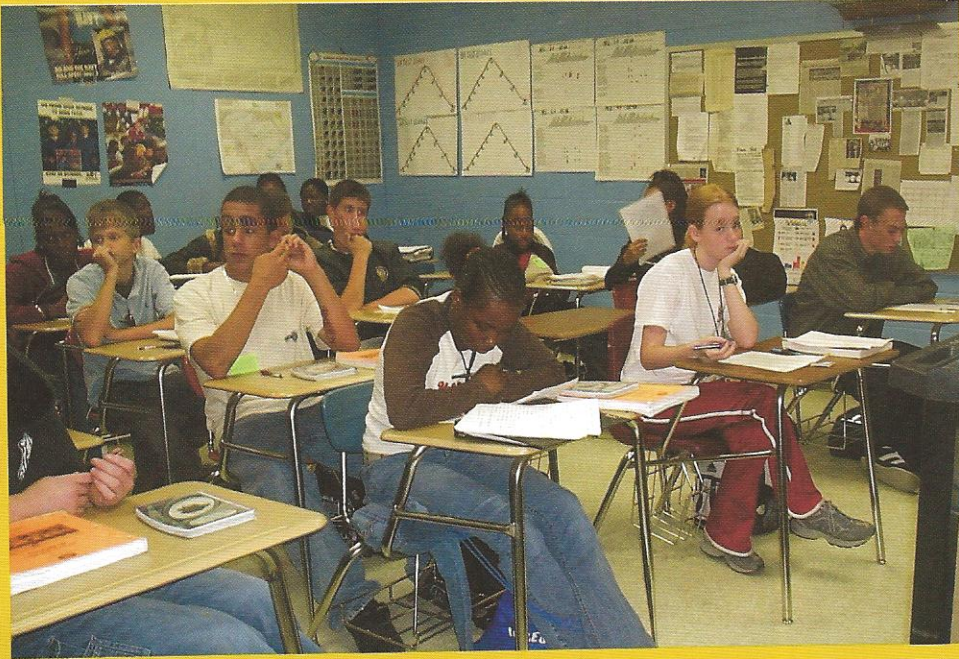

The active and athletic Senior Marissa Bright was surprisingly apprehensive about the fashion show. "I am shy so I'm a little worried about going out there. I hope I don't fall," she said. Marissa showed that she was humble and giving as she styled the hair of numerous models before the fashion shows began.

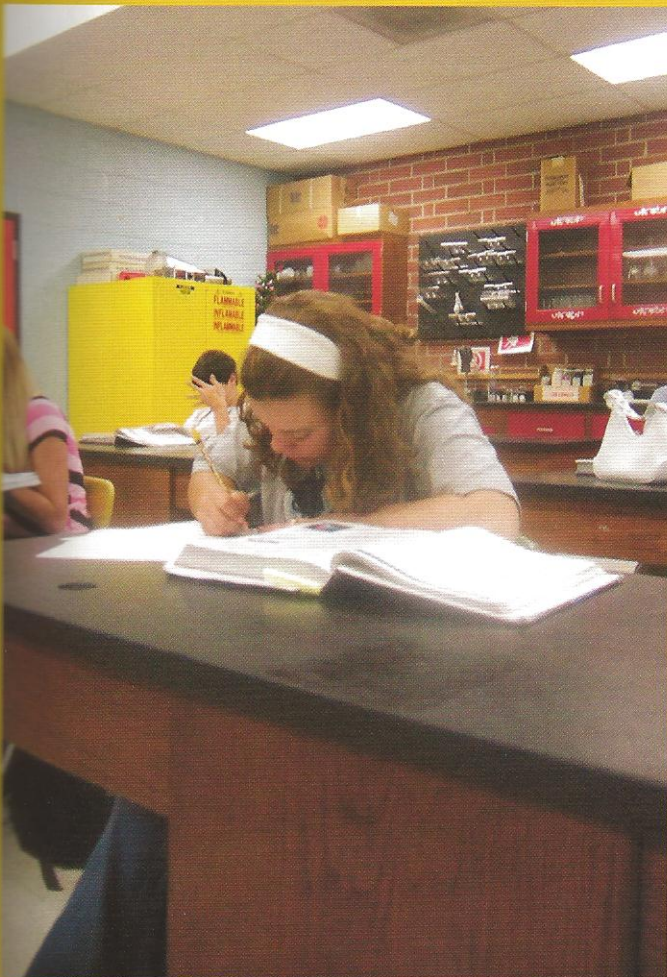

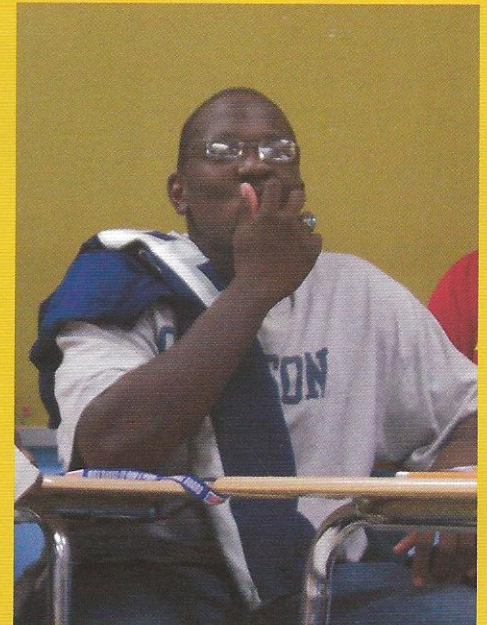

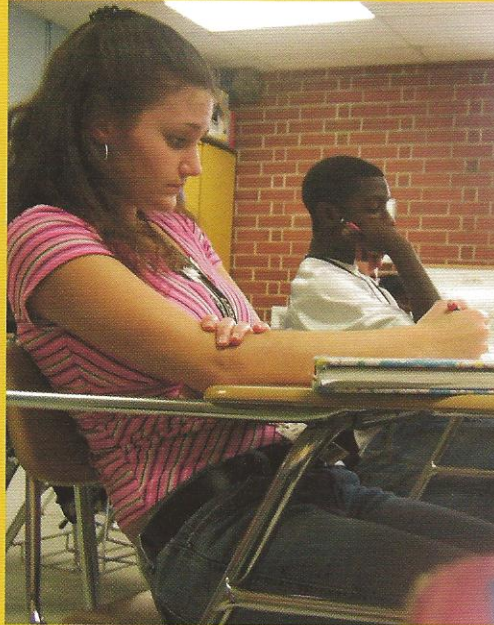

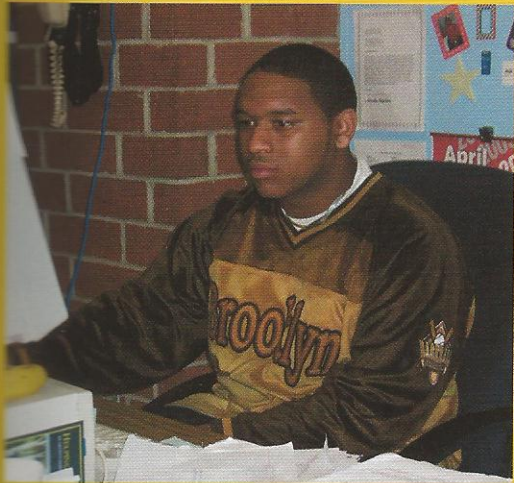

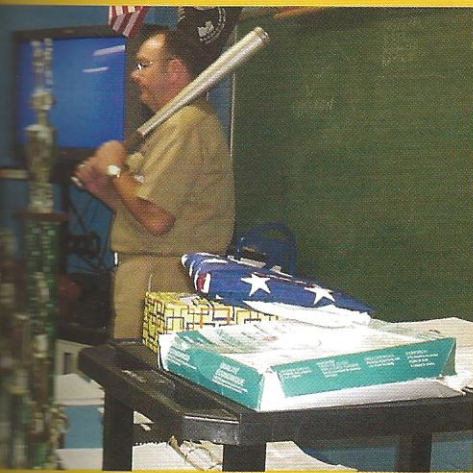

Laquana Chisolm had no problem with modeling at the show. "I signed up last semester when they first announced it on the intercom. I was the first person to sign up," The senior laughed.

"Making a difference in CCHS, student council members make sure the voices of students are heard. The goal of student council is to express the opinions and ideas of students in the school. "We're helping our school today, to make a better tomorrow," junior Chanita Harvey said.

By participating in student council, you can gain many experiences. "By being in student council, I've learned to never be afraid of what my goals are," senior Shontelle Mincey said. Members of student council participate in events such as state conventions, homecoming events, and district rallies.

Not only do the student council members help and participate in events that pertain to CCHS, but they also help with good causes with regards to people with needs in our society. The members help to raise money for "Relay for Life" by having fund raisers such as "hat day".

Lending a Helping Hand - Student Council

1. Band of Blue

The Band of Blue won numerous awards this year under its new director, Tom Finigan.

2. Workin' Hard

Senior Courtney Ferguson keeps time. "If you practice things the right way, practice makes perfect," Senior Courtney Ferguson said.

3. Doing What You Love

Senior Latosha Teasdell plays her clarinet. "I've been in band throughout high school, and I really enjoy it," Latosha said.

4. Three Generations

The band performs during halftime for family and friends. The three songs played were "Grandparents," "Parents," and "Children."

5. Concentration

Junior Brittany Smith focuses hard on the drum major. "Our entire show is awesome; I can't choose one favorite song," Brittany said.

6. The Beat Goes On

Getting ready to start the cadence, Sophomore Justin Whitley waits. "I like the fact that we focus more on playing than marching," Justin said.

7. Five Six Seven Eight!

Practicing hard, Freshman Amanda Floresca prepares to throw the flag. "Memorizing the counts and routines is the hardest part!" Amanda said.

8. Homecoming

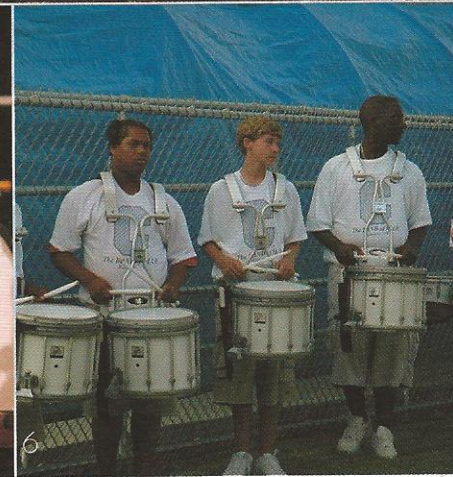

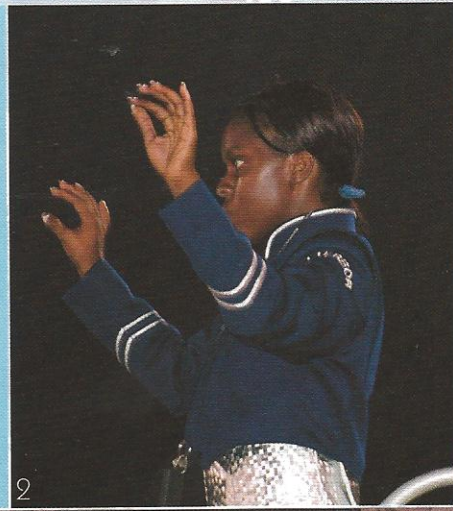

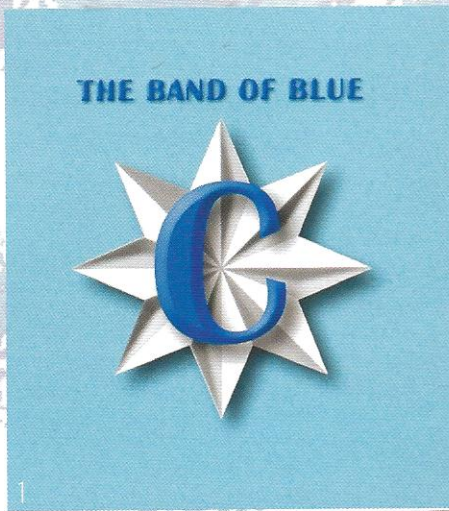

Playing their hearts out, Big Blue members perform at halftime during Homecoming. They received a standing ovation from the crowd.

9. Pride

Counting the beats, Senior Brittany Stephens spins the Color Guard Rifle. "The color guard has won at every competition," Brittany said.

10. Which Instrument?

Ten band members were surveyed on what instrument they would play if they didn't play their own.

Uniforms, instruments, flags, marching, playing... It really mattered when the band combined them. Junior Jaquawna Terry, Drum Majorette, disagreed with the concept that practice makes perfect. "Practice does not make perfect. Perfect practice makes perfect. Our saying is, 'Practice wrong, do it long. Practice right, do it light!'" This certainly held true this year. The Band of Blue won first place in Bands Across the Savannah; first place in Class 4A for High Color Guard, Drum Major, Music, Drumline, and Hornline; and first place at the Lowcountry Invitational Marching Festival.

"Marching season is so intense for band kids; we practice hard from the end of July to the end of October with the hopes of having a show that impresses judges enough to think we're the best, and before we know it... marching season's over," said Junior Brittany Smith. However, all the long hours seemed to pay off. "It's worth it when we win, and even if we don't," Senior Drum Majorette Courtney Ferguson said.

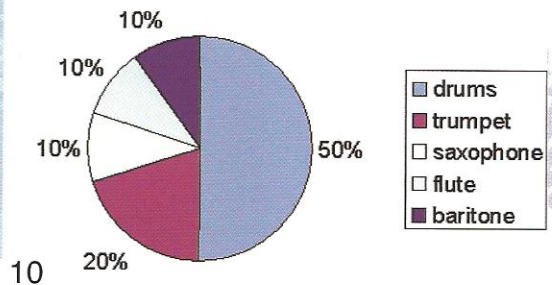

Freshman Color Guard member Amanda Floresca said, "The biggest difference between this year and last year is my respect for the band. Last year, my eighth grade year, I could only watch the band but this year I'm in the band and it's made a whole lot of difference for me."

There was also a change made to Big Blue this year. Mr. Young retired, and Mr. Finigan stepped up as Band Director. "It is really different but he is doing a really great job," Senior Brittany Stephens said.

-Meredith Foss

If you could play any instrument other than your own, what would it be?

Time Marches On

1. Leah Ellison had the role of Eliza Doolittle, the lead, in the play "My Fair Lady".

2. Justin Ritter played Alfred Doolittle. "I enjoyed the role, because it fit my personality" said sophomore Justin Ritter.

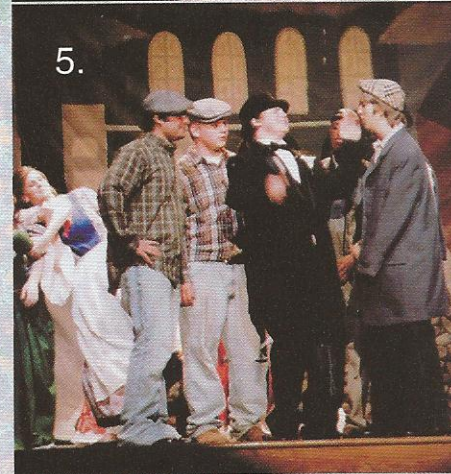

3. The role of Mrs. Pearce was portrayed by Ellis Upchurch. When asked if she liked her part Ellis said that she really wanted the lead, but was still happy with what she got.

4. Alan Varnadoe was Freddy Eynsford-Hill in "My Fair Lady." He auditioned for the play simply because he loves to sing.

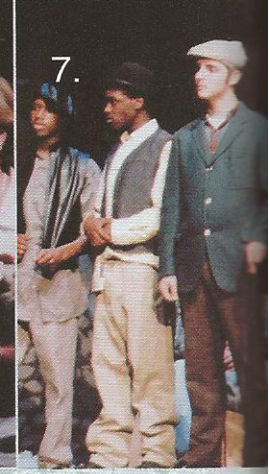

5. Will Robbins enjoyed being in the spring musical "My Fair Lady."

6. Mrs. Drawdy recieved flowers from the cast after one of the "My Fair Lady" performances. "Mrs. Drawdy is awesome" said Junior Justin Vaughn.

7. Justin Vaughn said that he had the role he wanted. After the performances he said "It went good. It went like it should."

1. The CCHS Drama Department put on three plays this year instead of the usual one. Sophomore Danielle Schmitt was in Gargoyles.

2. The Drama group used a smoke effect to add to the performance of "Gargoyles."

3. In the performance of "15 Minute Hamlet" Doug Ranly played Hamlet. "I enjoyed being in it, but it was a challenge" said Junior Doug Ranly.

4. Anita Gethers was in the play "Anybody for Tea." She said that the love of acting got her into Drama.

5. Matt had the role of Kramer in "Anybody for Tea." He said that it was an interesting role.

6. Joseph "ET" Mobley played the chief of police in "Anybody for Tea," but thinks that his favorite role was Reverend Rathbone in

7. In the performance of "Anybody for Tea," sophomore Bridgett Eady played Miss Birdie. She said that the role fit her.

Drama's 3 Production Season

"Where on earth will we find a dead body?"

"'Tis here!
'Tis there!
'Tis Gone!"

"We don't need no extra-curriculars. We got football on Friday nights. Football builds character."

1. The three instructors all guide and influence the cadets." My favorite instructor is Gunner Williams," senior Phillip Cole said.

2. "I joined the drill teams because I just wanted to be active," sophomore C/CPO Mark Brillhant said.

3. "My favorite thing about the uniform is the gold bar because it stands for authority," junior C/ENS Lamar Hodges said.

4. "On my first uniform day I was nervous because I wanted to have everything right," sophomore C/CPO Gary Hale said.

5. "I had a positive first impression of the NJROTC program," sophomore Elizabeth Phillips (far left) said.

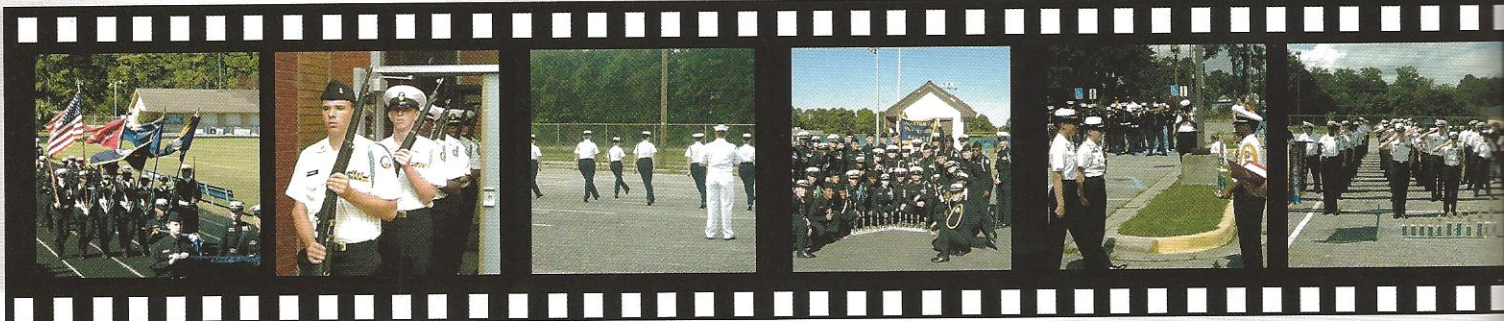

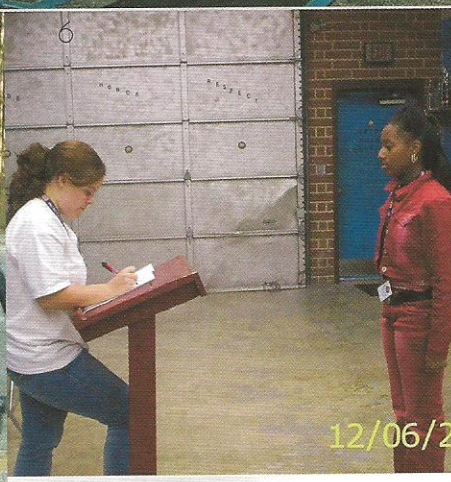

6. "My first impression of ROTC wasn't the best, but I knew it would get better and the summer program convinced me of that," freshman Ashyra Dobison said.

7. "I don't mind helping out wherever I can. Even though I am a cadet Ensign I don't mind doing the work of subordinates if I have to," junior Jenifer Hamilton said.

8. '05-'06 C/Co senior Amber Woodcock accepts awards at the North Charleston drill meet with poise. "I joined NJROTC because my brother said I couldn't make it a year," she said when asked why she joined.

9. "We are doing really well. In 4 drill meets we've earned 43 trophies and recieved and outstanding on our Anual Military inspection," The SNSI LCDR Armentrou said, when asked to comment on the progress and performance of the

10. "I like wearing the unifrom," commented sophomore C/CPO Justin Webber " It was comfortable and easy to put together," Justin said.

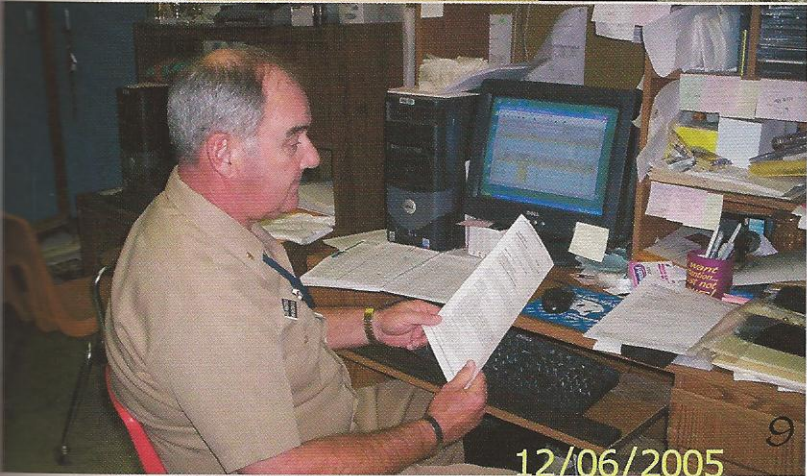

From its establishment in 1993, by Lieutenant Commander Charles E. Armentrout (US Navy Retired), the NJROTC program produced the best students that Colleton County had to offer. The students who emerged from the program were good leaders and even better people. Dedicated cadets showed extreme promise, pride, loyalty, honor, respect and leadership.

Although the cadets' reasons for joining varied, the outstanding students that entered the program all had a common motive; to better themselves. Sophomore Latesha Black said, "I joined NJROTC to build up my self confidence and to release the more energetic side of me."

The instructors dished out wisdom and tough love which kept the cadets coming back every year. When senior Phillip Cole was asked why he entered and stayed in ROTC he said, "I joined ROTC so I could enter the military at an advanced pay grade, but I ended up staying the four years because it felt like home."

Marching To Fame

1. NHS members gather to decorate the float for the Homecoming Parade.

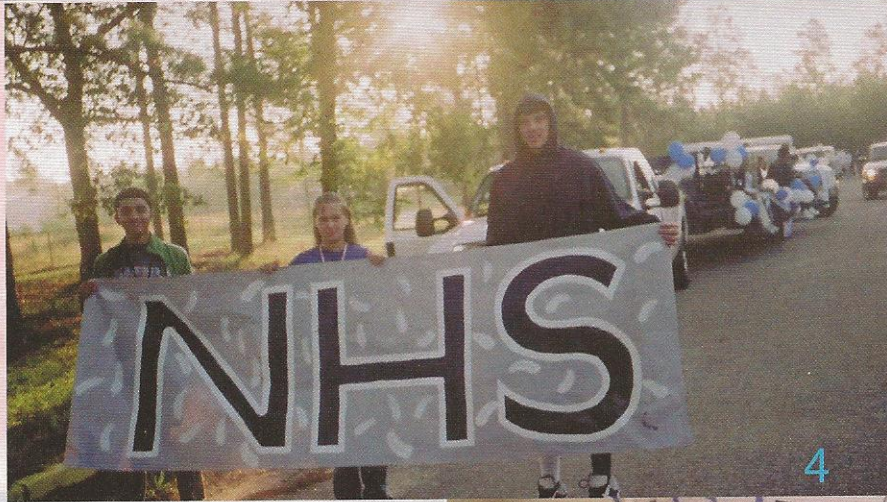

2. Sidney Jarido and Yu Qing Ni are sorting cans for the NHS food drive.

3. Kimberly Bullock and Chelsey Barr pose for a picture while showing school spirit during Spirit Week.

4. Sagar Patel, Ashley Pangalangan, and Chad Bloodworth proudly hold up the NHS banner before the Homecoming Parade.

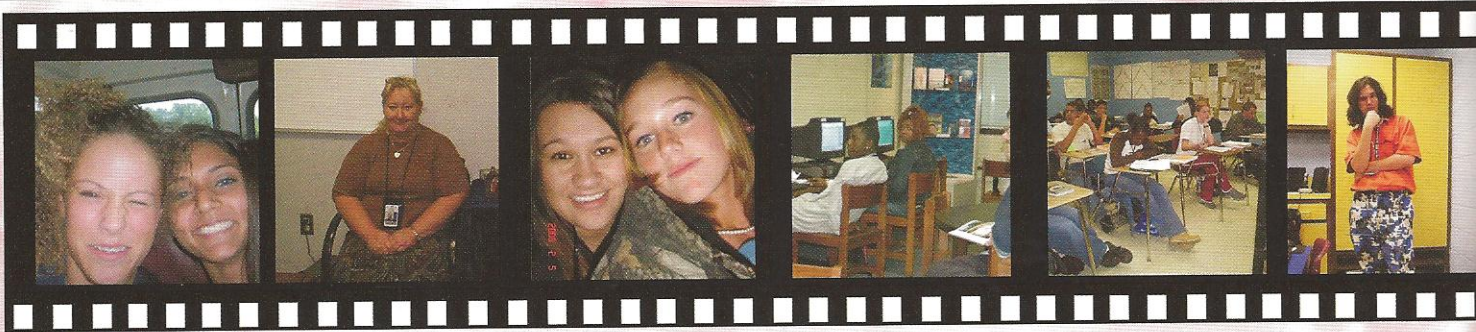

5. NHS members are hard at work getting the float ready for the Homecoming Parade.

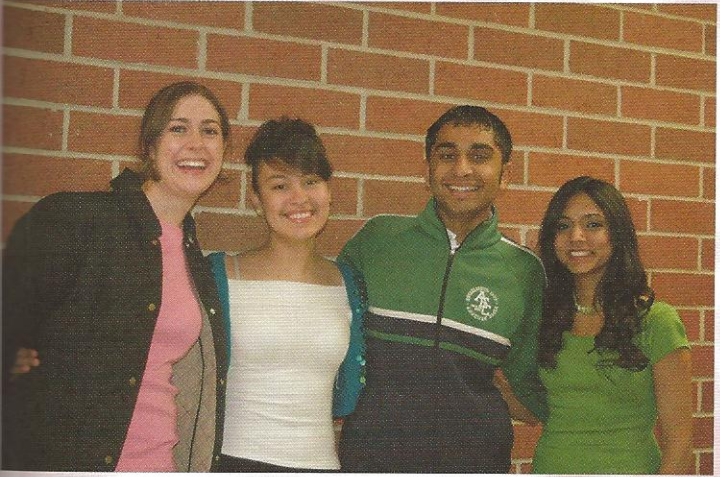

6. A group of NHS members stop in the hallway to take a group picture during Spirit Week.

7. Whitney Smoak plays a game at the Halloween Carnival.

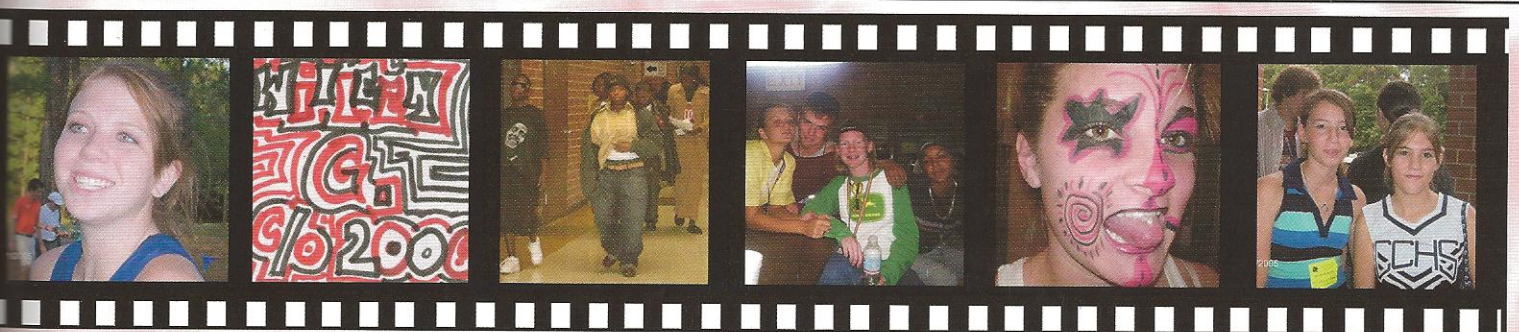

The National Honor Society consists of students who are recognized for their outstanding work and learning abilities. To be in NHS you must be members of the junior or senior class. NHS students are required to do forty hours of community service. To be in NHS you must have a cumulative GPA of at least 3.7 or its equivalent. The National Honor Society does many different activities such as a blood drive and the Powder Puff Football Game.

Talent Show

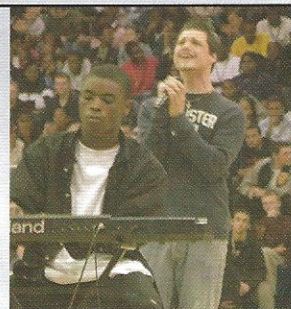

Double Trouble

Prenita Hudson and Shontae have been dancing for seven years at Mana's school of dance. They thought of the talent show as a competition to motivate them to work hard. Their dancing is used as a way to step up and show that they have talent.

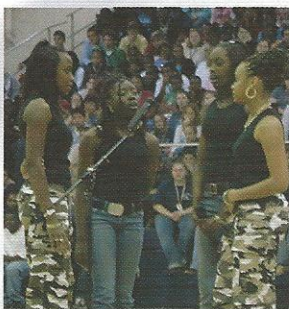

Amazing!

Singing "Amazing Grace" at this year's talent show, James Varnado received a standing ovation. James discovered his talent at the of 5. He says he has enhanced his singing ability by joining chorus and performing in the talent show.

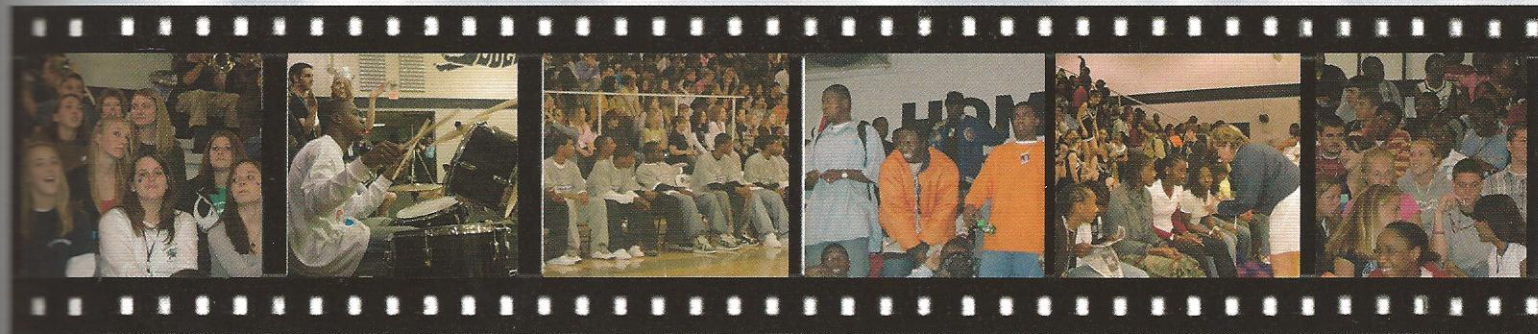

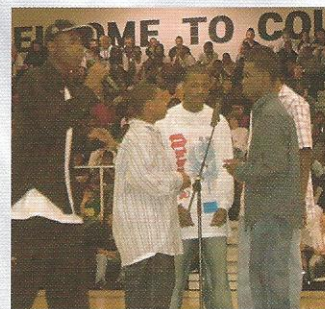

Four as one

Freshmen Shakeriea Nelson, Aaronyce Marcus, Shana Terri and Asia Dicks showed the spectators fo the CCHS talent show what freshman could really do. They girls felt comfortable and in their own zone as the pelted out the lyrics of And I by R & B singer Ciara. They moved and sang as one body and with immense harmony. When asked how long they had been singing their replies were all similar. "We've all been singing since the second grad and we've always been together."

Official

Gerren Shider, Malik Squire, Rashad Towns, Charles Anderson, and Kelly Varnadoe felt really confident about there performance. "It was very exciting and its always good to have different experiences in performing," said Malik Squire. They all felt like at that very moment they should have been scouted by top record producers. They all plan on trying to persue a career in music.

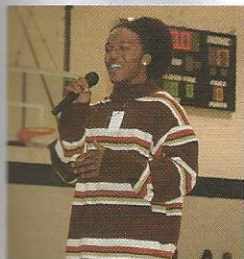

Big Man on Campus

Kelsey Jenkins

"I just want to thank all my fellow students for voting me the Big Man on Campus" senior, Kelsey Jenkins said. Kelsey will enjoy a $250 scholarship for college.

Israel Hodges

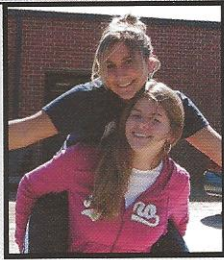

Ramon Taylor

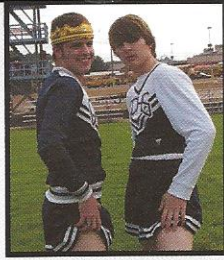

"If you didn't vote for me you didn't make the wrong decision but you didn't make the right one either". "I'm not really mad that I didn't win being that Kelsey and I are good friends and fellow Kappa brothers," Senior Ramon Taylor said.

Powder Puff

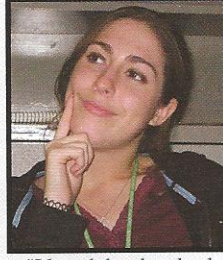

"We had fun at the powder puff game even though the juniors lost," Juniors Rachel Culpepper and Alex Marotto said.

"My favorite part was dressing up like a girl, because it's definitely something I don't usually do," Senior Tyler Ware said.

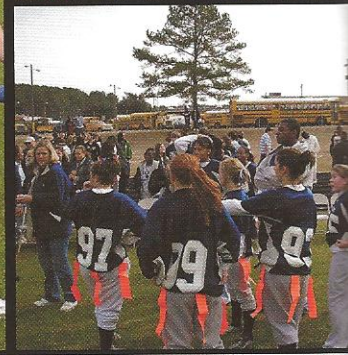

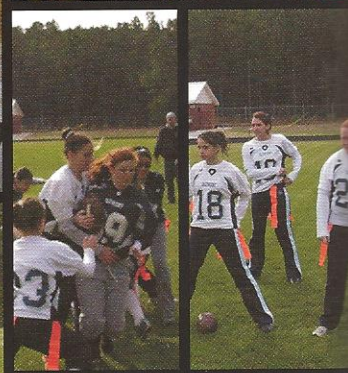

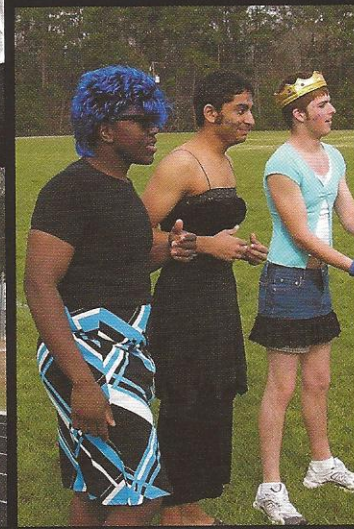

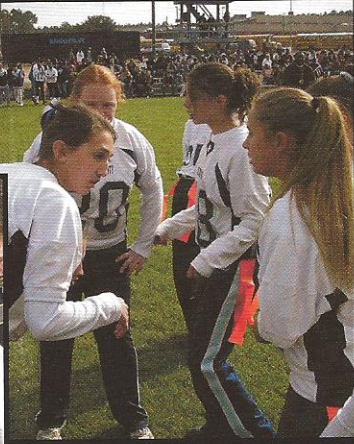

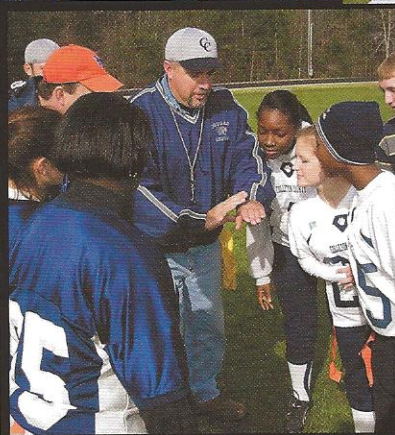

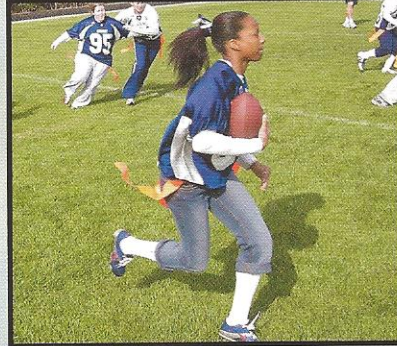

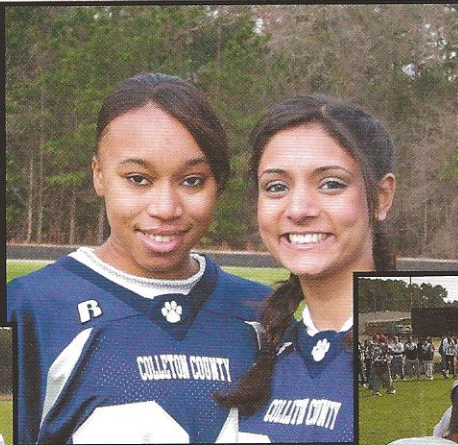

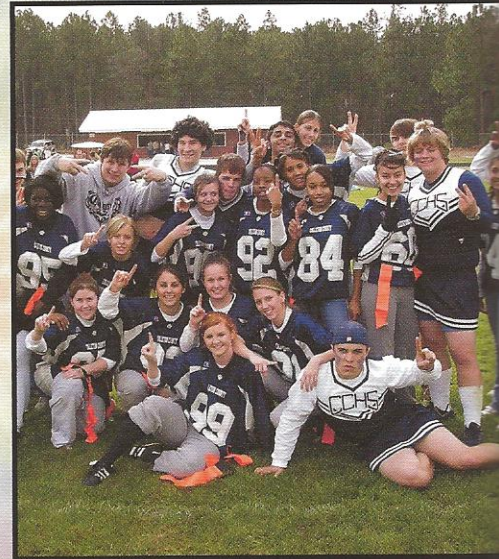

"If I could pick anyone to be on my team, it would be David Ortiz the Red Sox player, because I don't watch football," Junior Savannah Lane said.

"I loved the cheerleaders, the Cast and Reel and Brokeback Mountain dance were the best," Senior Rebecca Jacobs said.

The powder puff football game is always a fun place to be. Who wouldn't want to come around to watch the junior girls compete against the seniors? Both girls teams went out there looking to have fun, and maybe gain a little bit of bragging rights for their class. Though the senior girls took it by a long shot, the juniors gave it all they had.

Every year the Academic Team competes in the Knowledge Master. It is a chance for some of the students in our school to prove that Colleton County has a lot to offer. For the 2005 Knowledge Master, the Academic Team placed 2nd in the state and 263rd out of 794 participating schools. Coach Smith is the Academic Team leader and Knowledge Master Administrator. The members of the Academic Team include: Isreal Hodges, Kenneth Adams, Rachel Hanson, Margaret Cogswell, Courtney Ulmer, Regina Pencile, Allyson McCall, Yu Qing Ni, Sagar Patel, and Matthew Boles.

"We practice twice a week and test our knowledge in art, history, math, science, music, and basic trivia," Senior Allyson McCall said.

A few Kappa League members pose during the Homecoming Parade.

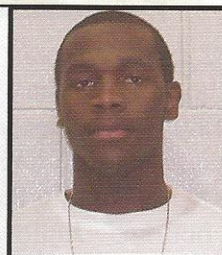

The purpose of the Kappa Leadership League is to improve the self image of today's youth and thus raise their aspiration level through club oriented responsibilities of tomorrow while yet enjoying youth today. These boys pledge to perform to the best of their ability also to uphold the objectives of good leadership development. This club caters to young men grades 9th-12th and is mentors to kids in grades k-8th. They have taken Annual Educational Trips and Supplemental Trips throughout the year. They also help in the community by doing community service. The Kappa Leadership League takes advantage of starting the practical leadership process. - Alexandria Marotto

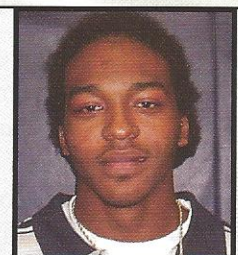

"The Kappa League has been a great program for me to raise my game, and lift my confidence level. It's been a great part of my life and I hope guys around the school someday have the same chance." -Senior & President, Kelsey Jenkins

Leadership and Development is what the Kappa League is based upon. It has been a learning experience for me, it has also helped me become a better man. Anyone who has a chance to join should its a great experience. -Senior, Charles Moultrie

Vacations

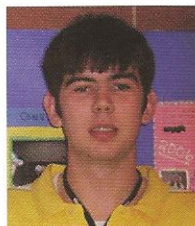

My favorite vacation memory

"I usually just hang out with my cousins in the Bahamas, but I've been to the caves and beaches there," Junior Margaret Cogswell said.

"I went to Illinois because I volunteer at a camp for children who are amputees (accidental or congenital). While I was there, I worked with many different children, and I feel like I really grew as a person," Junior Amanda Younggreen said.

"My family went to the Shenandoah Valley in Virginia and I surfed in an indoor Waterpark," Junior Chad Bloodworth said.

"My dad was in the military and so we traveled alot. Once we went to Cuba and I saw iguanas," Freshmen Amber Hilbrun said.

While visiting Canada with her family, she went kayaking to explore the various islands. "We about fell off a cliff into the freezing water when we were exploring, and laughed after it happened," Sophomore Heidi Schmidt said

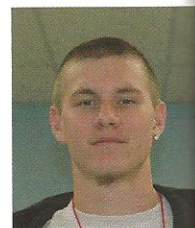

"I've been to 32 different states, some several times. I saw the Grand Canyon by flying over it and going down in it to the river below. We drove down into the Canyon to the bottom," Junior Kelli Dille said.

Moments

Embarrassing Moments

"My most embarrassing moment is when I was in middle school and we had an assembly in the gym and the bleachers were so full I grabbed a seat up on the stage with a couple of my friends. I was leaning back in the chair and all of the sudden, my chair broke and I hit the floor," Senior Josh Braswell said.

"I was at work and was looking at a guy while walking and I ran into shelf," Senior Dorothy Williams said.

"Right after Hurricane Charey hit when I still lived in Florida and my older sister and I were shaving our legs in the pool outside and the President flew over in his helicopter," Senior Heather Watters said.

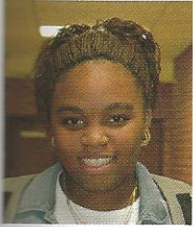

"I climbed over the fence to get a softball....and my shorts got caught on something and ripped off," Junior Ashley Pangalangan said.

"When your stomach growls in the middle of a really quiet room and with guys when you sneeze and a booger pops out!" Sophomore Jennifer McCall said.

"When a Bee went in my flute while I was marching and it came out of the mouthpiece and stung my lips. I freaked out and everyone was looking at me funny." Freshmen Victoria Burk said.

The dumbest thing I have ever done..

"Trying to arch my own eyebrows," Freshmen Dwana Bright said.

I went all the way to North Charleston High School to take the ACT. I was prepared with my calculator and pencils and I had gotten plenty of sleep. Once I arrived, I realized I'd forgotten my registration form," Senior Justin Ackerman said.

"There are so many, but I don't call them dumb, I call them memories I can laugh about," Freshmen Marina Bell said.

"I do alot of dumb things but one is dressing up and leting my mom take pictures of me," Freshmen Brooke Crosby said.

"I ran into a pole waving to some guy," Junior Savannah Lane said.

The weirdest thing I have ever eaten...

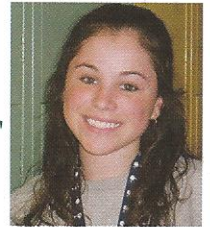

" Doritos and peanut butter!" Junior Allyson McCall.

"I eat ranch dressing and peanut butter with absolutely everything," Freshmen Sabrin Leland said.

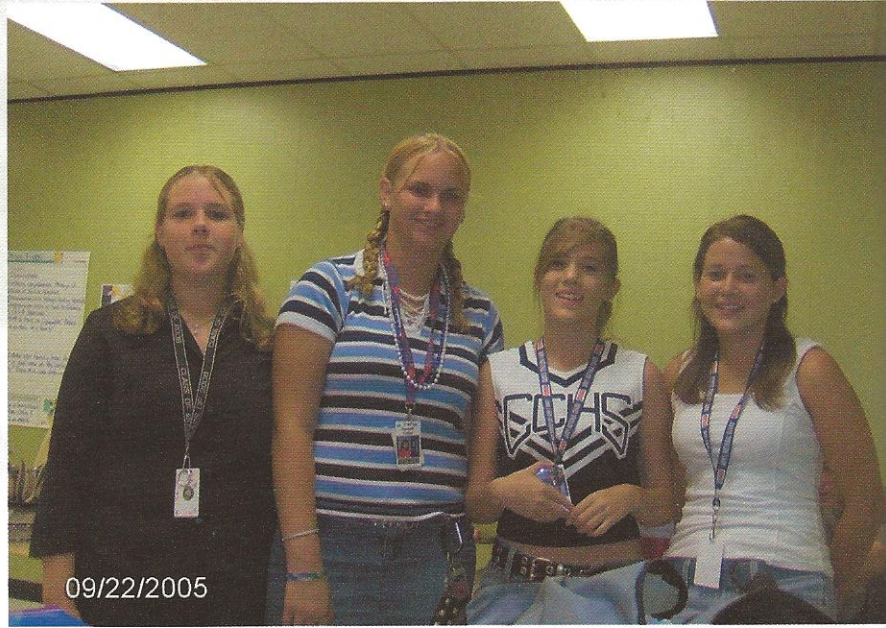

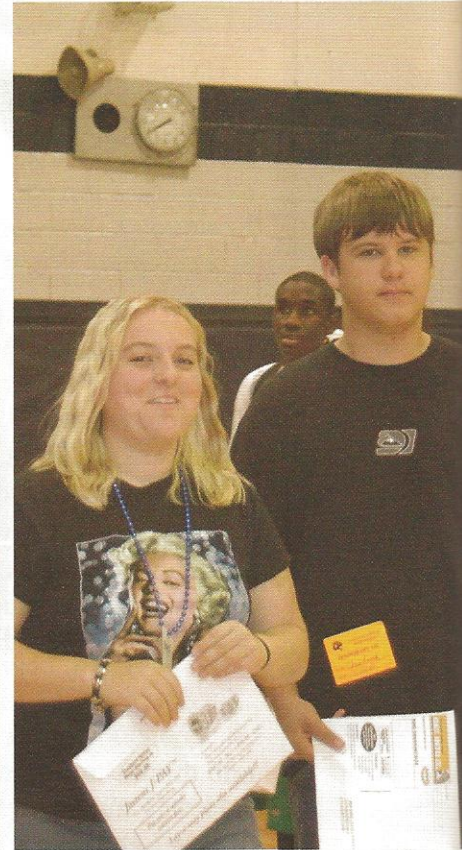

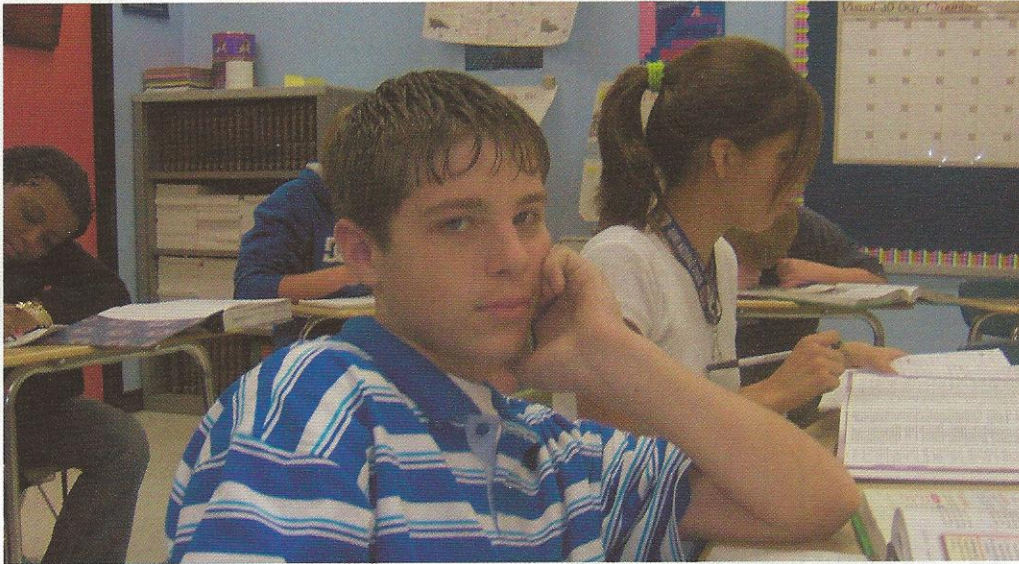

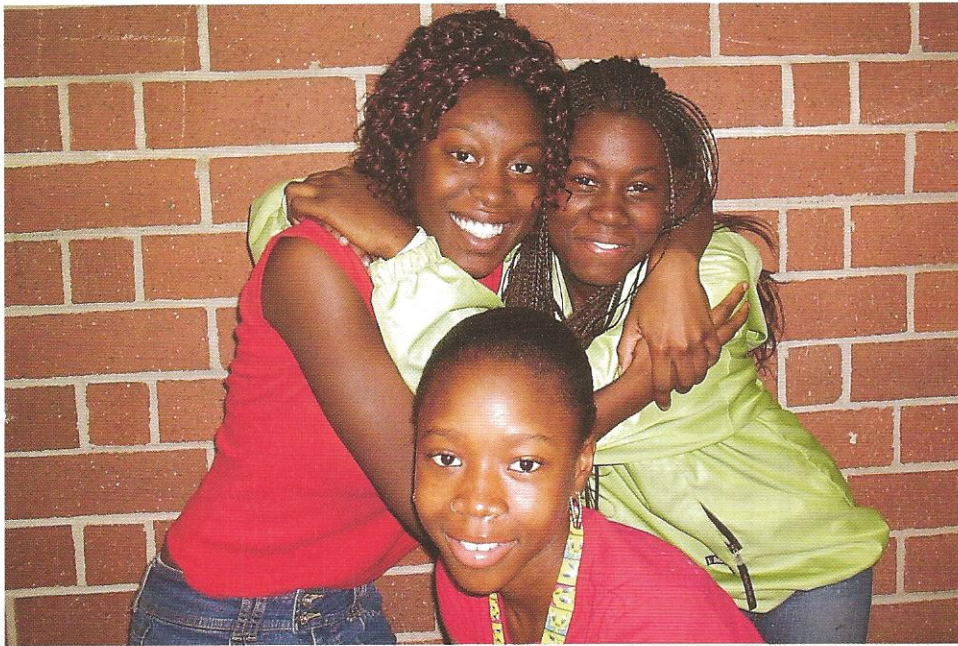

"The schools' hotdogs, umm...Sushi," Senior Heather Love said.

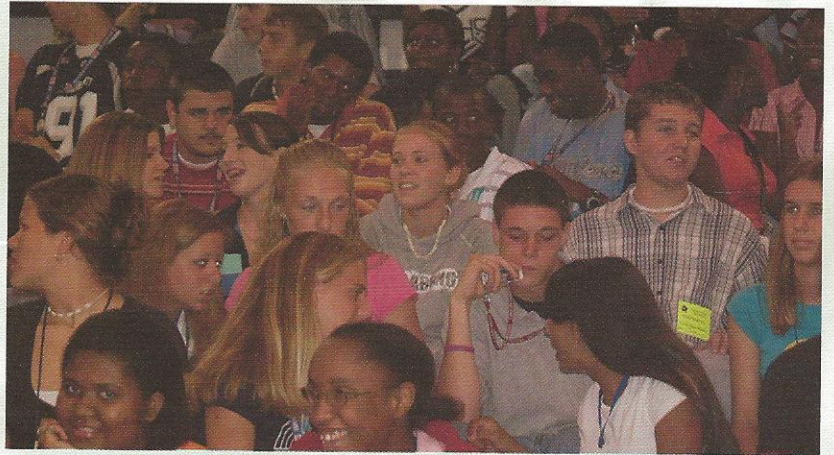

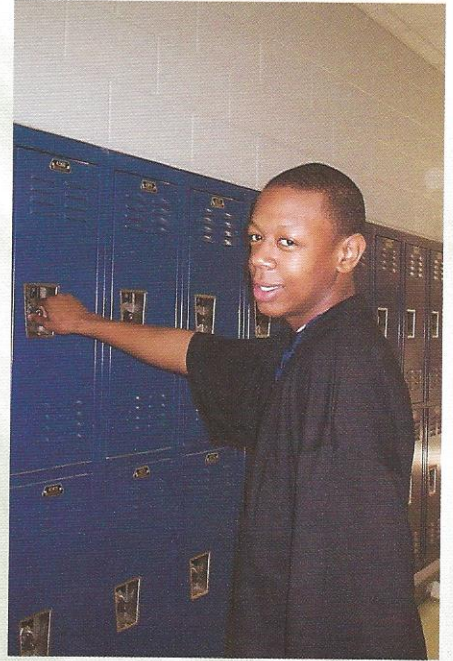

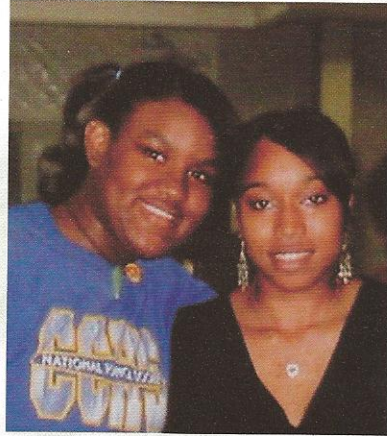

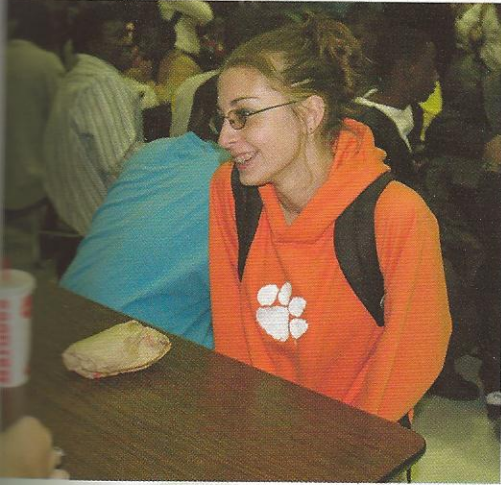

"Sushi and it was nasty!" Sophomore Heather Beach said.

"Pickled Pig feet mixed with tuna, pickles and eggs!" Freshmen Raymond Riles said.

What Is Your Biggest High School Let Down?

The Most Common Response

1. The Lunch
2. The people's attitudes
3. Weren't dissapointed

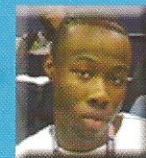

Jaqawn Hamilton's biggest high school let down occured last year with "A 3-8 football

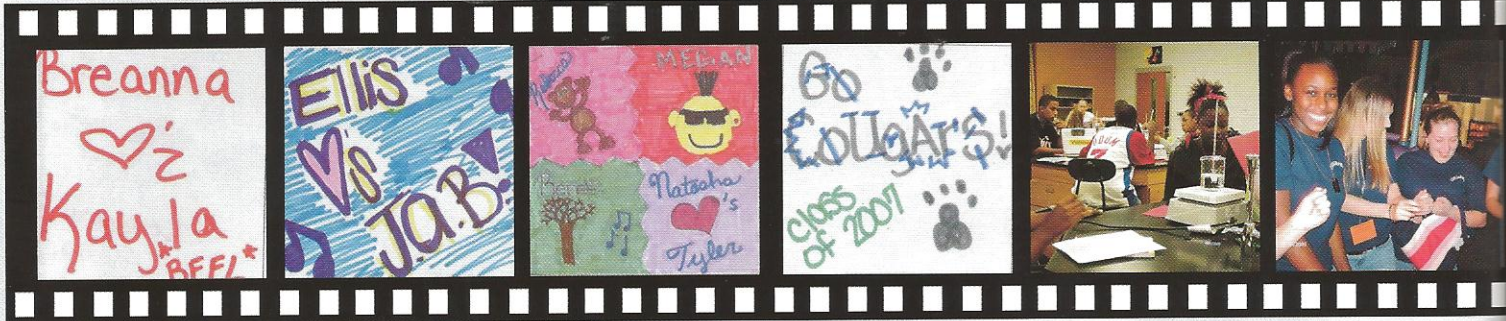

"It smells in this school," said Ashley Lyons.

"We dont get the best education that we could be getting," said Tabitha Spahn.

"Better food," was Tyrez Tobais' blunt response.

"I wasn't disappointed because I knew that even if everything didn't go like i planned, I'd still have my friends there to help me." said Mesha Ellison accompanied by her best buddy Kristen Kinneary.

How Often Do Students Wear Their Seatbelts?

"I wear it sometimes because I'm not going to wear it when it's sunny, just like when it's raining or something." Cassie Vick said.

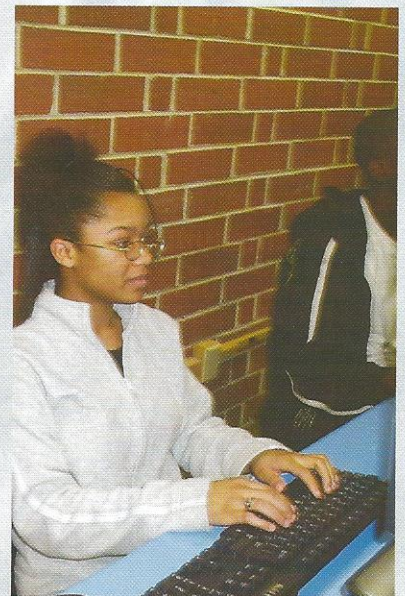

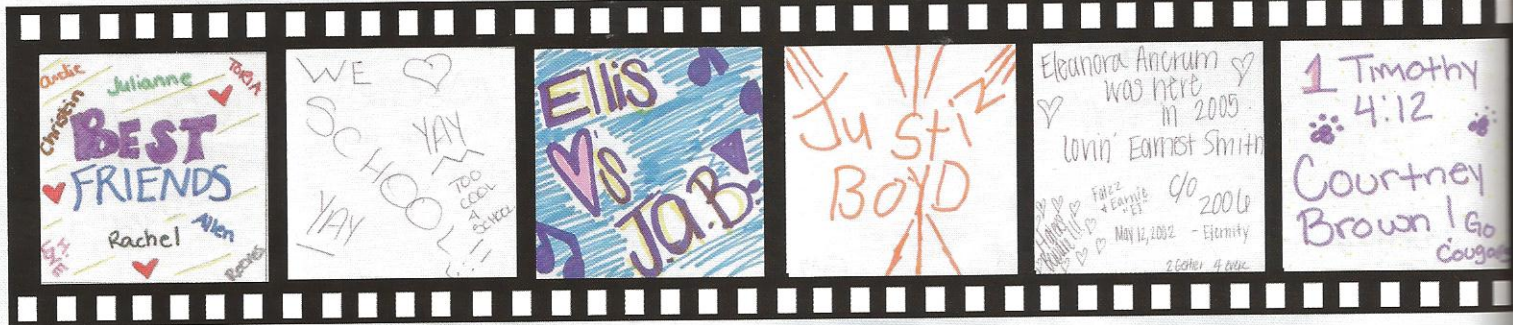

"I wear my seatbelt because I see myself as a role model for people. So then I can make people wear theirs." said Jeremy Crosby.

"I don't wear my seatbelt because I think that it's dumb and it bothers me to wear it and it only prevents death half of the time" said Marshall Catterton.

"I don't wear my seatbelt because they hurt my neck and if I wreck my head might get cut off." said Donna Hudson.

Principals

Cliff Warren

I am a graduate of Walterboro High School. I was the principal of Forest Circle Middle School for 4 years prior to coming to CCHS in 2003. I love hunting, fishing and cooking! I am married to a former WHS graduate, Hope Poole. We have one child, Amber, who is 4 years old.

Lee Runyon

Lee Runyon does quite a bit for Colleton County High School. He is responsible for what the teachers teach and how they teach it. He also helps improve students overall attendance, hires teachers and staff, and helps the athletic department.

Vennie Mitchell

Vennie Mitchell is an assistant principal at CCHS. She is in charge of the Freshmen Academy. She was an English teacher for 19 years. Mrs. Mitchell is married to Ben Mitchell. They have a six year old daughter, Breana.

Williams Hayden

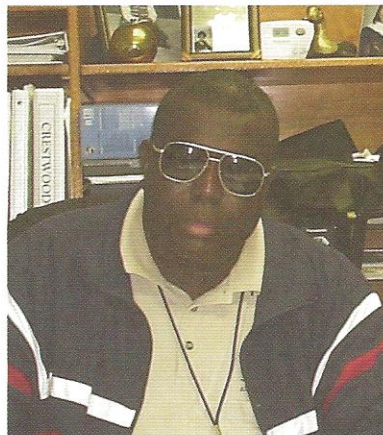

William Hayden is a first-year assistant principal after having been a social studies teacher at WHS and CCHS for sixteen years. A 1983 graduate of Walterboro High School, Mr. Hayden received his B.A. in history from the College Of Charleston and his M.A. in educational administration from Charleston Southern University. He is married to Ileana Rotaru of Romania, and they have an infant son named William Jacob Hayden. Mr. Hayden is an avid college football fan, especially when it comes to the Clemson Tigers.

Charles Locklair

Charles Locklair has been an assistant principal at W.H.S. and C.C.H.S. since 1994. He is a graduate of the University of South Carolina with a B.A. in Business and Economics. He also holds a M.A.T. and a M.Ed. from the Citadel. He originally began his career in Dorchester II Schools. Mr. Locklair is the second floor administrator as well as being the attendance and testing coordinator. He is the father of two sons Jacob and Trent.

His interests include: weight lifting, motorcycling, skiing, and culinary arts. He is also the best looking administrator on the second floor due to his Power-Balling regimen.

Frank Barnhill

I am a graduate of Ruffin High School. I have been a member of the administrative teams of Colleton County High School for twenty five years. When I am not at school, I enjoy fishing and attending music and athletic events.

Specialist

Linda Sammons
(Guidance)

I have been a teacher and counselor in Colleton County for 33 years and have worked at Ruffin, Walterboro and Colleton County High Schools. I love to read, travel, and play bridge and tennis.

Brenda Jenkins
(Guidance)

I am the counselor for the class of 2006. They are my absolute favorite class. I have twin 10 year old boys, Brenden and Branden. I am fun loving, free spirited and family oriented.

My Favorites:

activity - swimming
CD's - Kenny Chesney/Anthony Hamilton
City: Miami
Teams: Panthers and Lakers
Movie: Remember the Titans
Book: Disappearing Acts by Terri McMillan

Bridget Runyon
(Guidance)

Bridget Runyon is the counselor for the class of 2007. She is the proud parent of two children, Maggie and Zachary. She also enjoys going to Edisto Beach.

Kathy Shider
(Guidance)

I am the 9th grade guidance counselor and I have been for the last 4 years. Before that I worked for the SC Dept. of Vocational Rehabilitation for 13 years. I am married to Wayne Shider and we have 2 children, Ashley and Vincent. I enjoy shopping and singing.

Lisa Stephens
(Guidance)

I am the Class of 2008 Guidance Counselor. This is my first year at Colleton County High School and it has been a wonderful counselor and a wonderful experience. I have two boys - Racheen and Heyward. I enjoy reading, singing, cooking and spending time with my family. I also enjoy visiting Myrtle Beach.

Olivia Padgett
(Media Specialist)

I cannot remember a time I did not enjoy books; the elementary/middle school I attended did not have a library so I headed for the career that guaranteed me access! I have been a media specialist for 29 years in Colleton County. My family includes two sons, two dogs and two cats! Hobbies: reading, gardening, reading, spending time at the beach, reading and traveling.

Amy Delong
(School Nurse)

I am married with two children, Garth and Natalie. I have been a registered nurse for 20 years. I am on the Safe Kids-Lowcountry board and a CPR instructor. I love to read in my spare time (whenever that is).

"And He Scores"

Catch the vibe!

With their hearts and minds set on winning, the varsity football team did an excellent job this season. Sacrificing time with family and friends they worked hard to make their season a success. "Sacrificing time with my family and friends is the hardest thing about football," senior Ramoan Tyler said.

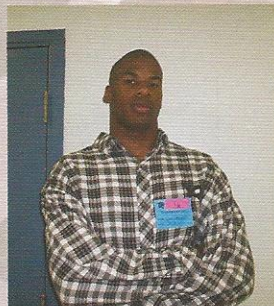

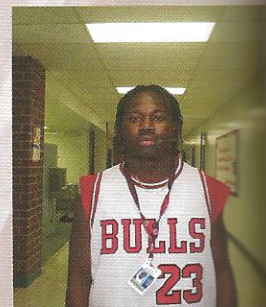

A five game winning streak gave the team a sense of pride, they stepped up to the plate striving even more to win. "I think the teams performance this year was great, everyone put forth the effort. That's all it takes to have a winning season," junior Kevin Brown said.

Going into the game usually as the underdog proved to be an added plus for the Cougars. "I think the team did good because we won Conference, and region and made it to the playoffs," junior Jaquan Hamilton said.

The football team this year set a very positive vibe for the players to come back to. They proved that striving for the best can really pay off when you have your goals in mind and the courage to reach them.

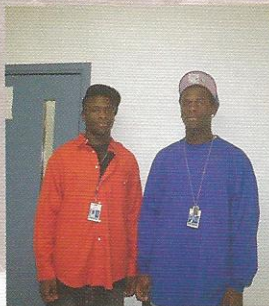

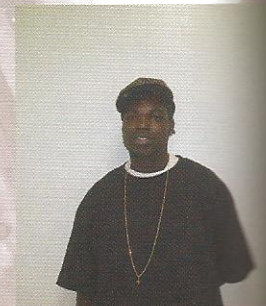

-Sherelle Memminger

"I think the team did pretty good this year but, I think it will be even better next year being that Zack, Nick Adams, and I have matured," junior Jerome Magwood said.

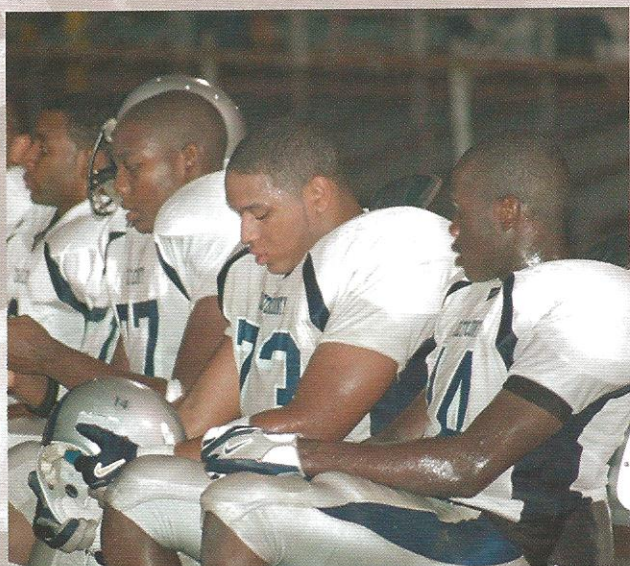

"We had a very good year. We put in a lot of work in the weight room and on the practice field and it paid off in the region. Hopefully next year the team will pick up where we left off," senior Joe Council said.

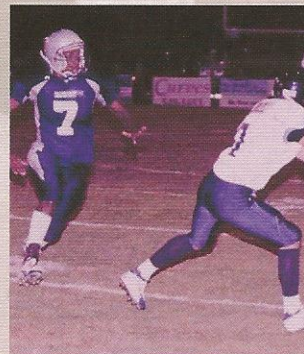

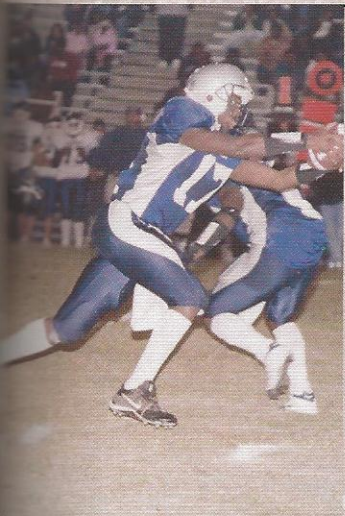

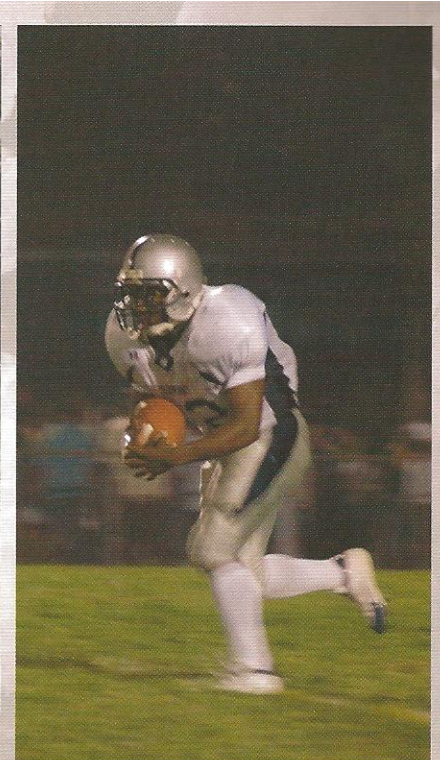

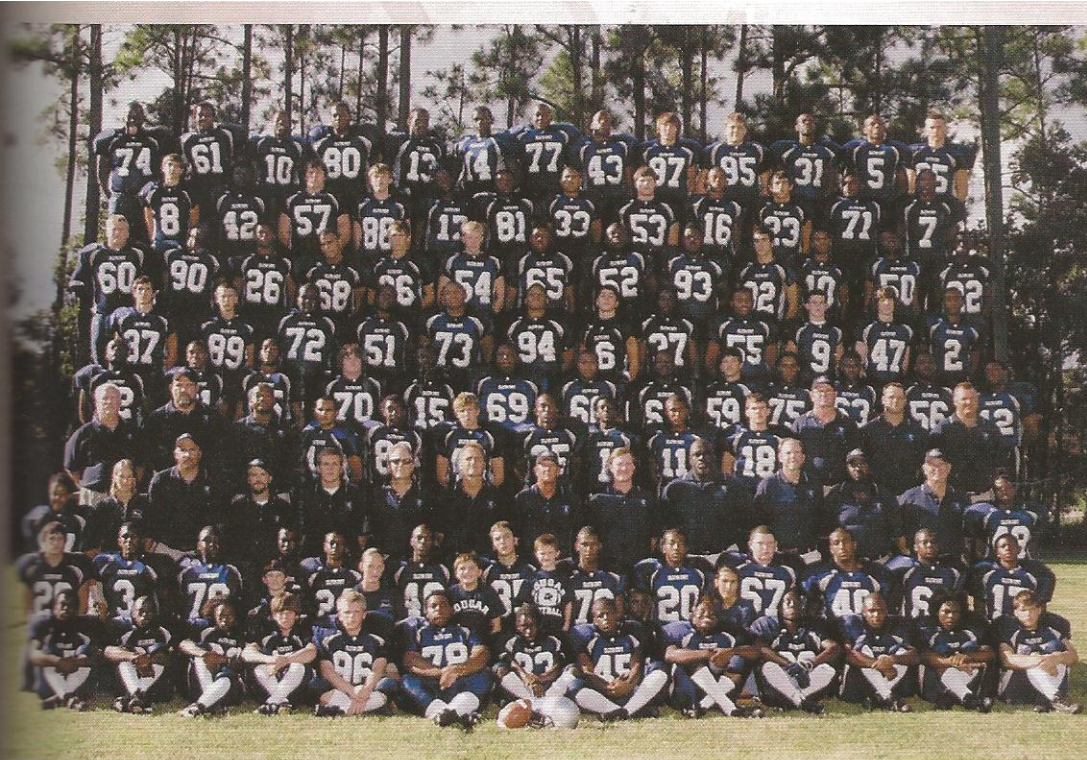

"The team was awesome. We really gave it our all this year," senior Sam Brown said.

"Play harder than the rest and you will win," seniors Donald and Ronald Robinson said.

Gotta Take a breath. After playing hard Johnny Smalls, Kelsey Jenkins, and Ronald Robinson take the time to catch their breath.

Quarter back in action! Zack Singleton receives the ball hoping to make a touchdown.

Keep your heads up. Coach Ritter encourages the team to keep up their good work when they think things are getting a little rough.

"I've got your back." Kevin Brown runs to the rescue as Cornelius Martin is about to be tackled by the visiting team.

Dump It Up!

Three Cheers!

Cheerleaders are the heart of the crowd. They also inspire the players to play better. Motivating the crowd is part of their job. Some of the cheerleaders got chosen by the Universal Cheer Association All Star Cheerleaders. These cheerleaders include Brittany Boyd, Tabitha Spahn, Prenita Hudson, Maggee Byrd, Liza Lucas, and Aaronyce Marcus. Without the cheerleaders, we wouldn't have as much spirit for our teams.

"Get tough defense, is my favorite cheer because the moves are sharp and difficult, which makes us look good," Junior Liza Lucas said.

"I enjoy cheerleading because all the relationships you develop. We are all like sisters," Junior Tabby Spawn said.

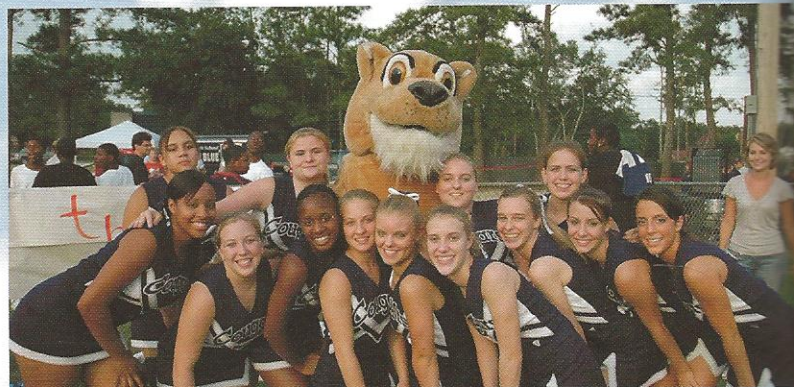

Maggie Bryd attempted to fix Ellis Upchurch's hair before the game.

"Cheerleading is really awesome. I love the girls I am cheering with. They are like family," Junior Tasiha Andrews said.

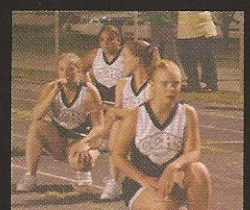

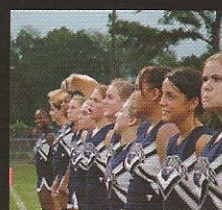

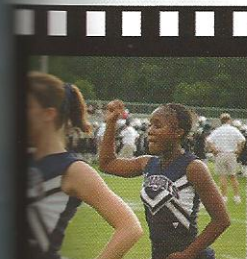

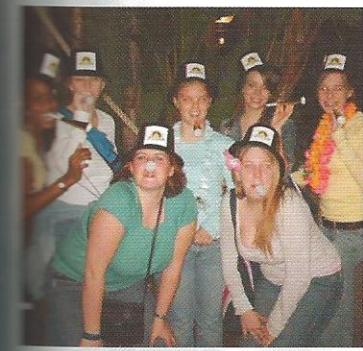

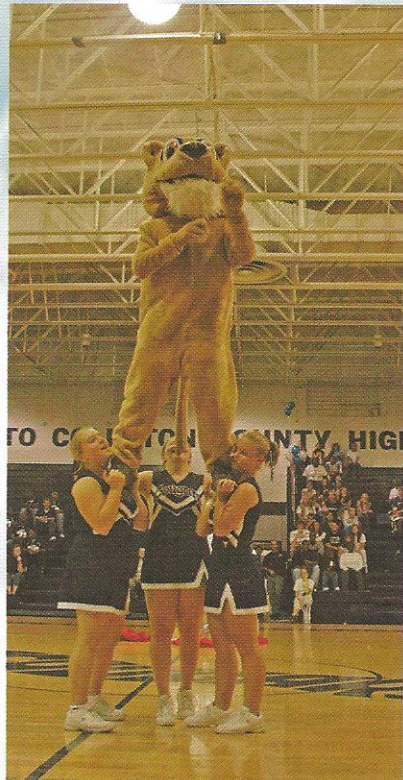

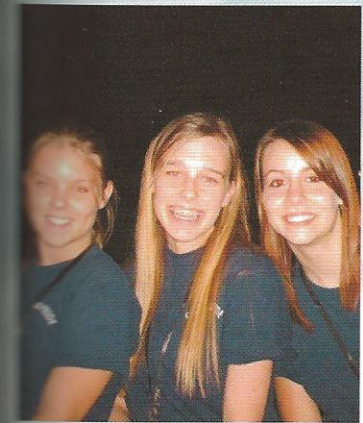

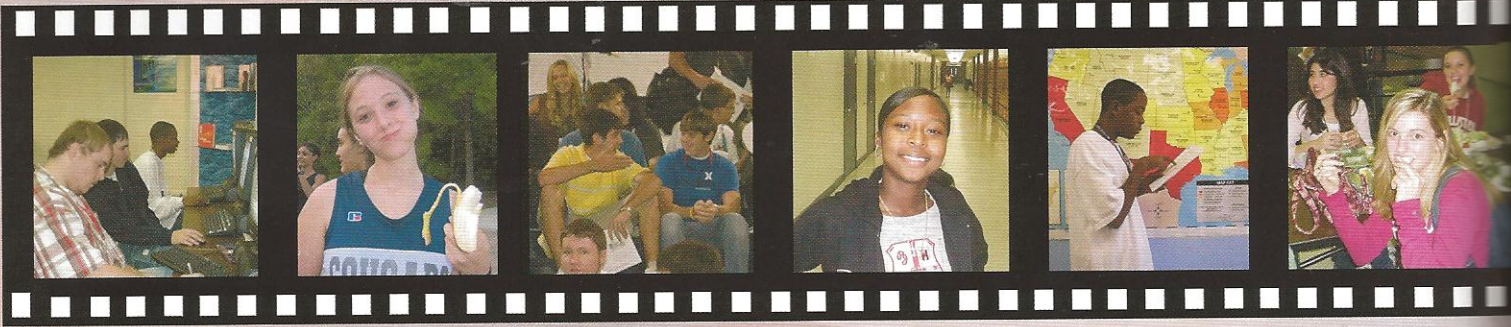

The varsity cheerleaders pause to take a picture before a home game.

Here are our CCHS cheerleaders in the middle of one of their many dance routines. Some of the cheerleaders got chosen to participate in the Universal Cheerleading Competition. "It is disappointing that we don't get to go to competitions because of high school league regulations, but competitions are great. Other UCA events are great also, such as Capital One Bowl performances and other special trips." Junior Brittany Boyd said.

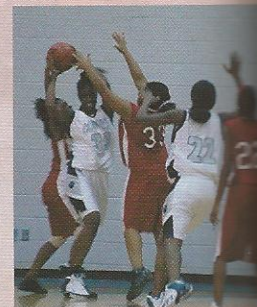

Through the Hoop

Year after year our girls basketball team pulls out on top. They have great attitudes and their determination is amazing. Every day these ladies stay after school to practice and condition so they can compete with the best on the court. "Anyone who's trying out next year should never give up, just try your best, and believe in yourself. Basketball is not always about skills, its about motivation, and having confidence in yourself," junior Chasity Brookes said.

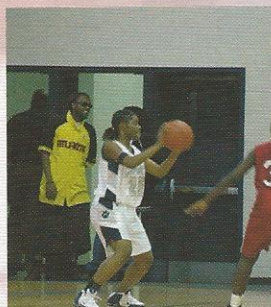

Great attitudes, and having the will to give everything you have when times get hard, is exactly what has pulled our ladies through. They didn't win every game, but they went on the court knowing when they step past the white lines, it's time to buckle down, and show what they've been working towards.

-Rachel Culpepper

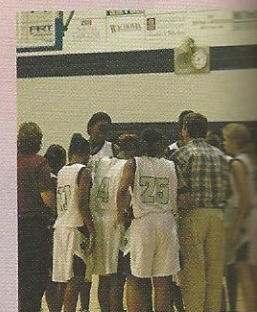

Trying to get open for a pass, Senior Lakia Grant anticipates a pass from her teammate, Branshea Brown. "My favorite game was when we played Startford even though we lost by 4 points," Sophmore Branshea said.

Hoping the opposing team will not get the ball, Senior Natasha Gilliard looks for an open pass. "I'm very hard on myself and when I get down it's not easy for me to pull myself out of it," Natasha said.

Pausing for a time out, the Cougar girls and their coaches talk over some plays before returning to the court.

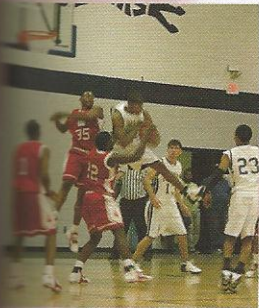

Hoping for the best, Junior, Amani Hills takes a free throw shot.

Dignity and Pride

Stealing the ball while in the air, the Cougars gain control of the ball, ready to take it to the hoop.

"I have enjoyed playing for the Colleton County Cougars for the past 4 years. Even though we lost a lot of games, we are finally coming out and gaining the respect we deserve," Senior Charles Moultrie said.

A Cougar player challenges the opponent one on one during a close game.

"Hoping for the best, Senior Eric Salley shoots a free throw during an intense game. In a tough situation I keep myself poised and I fight through it," Eric said.

When our guys step into the gym you can see the change in attitude. They get along great outside the court, and they joke like most guys do, but when the time comes to play, they know how to be serious. There isn't a joke about playing basketball, you have fun, but your determined to win, and the satisfaction of a victory under your belt is one of the best feelings an athlete can manage. "To prepare mentally and physically before a game we stretch, get loose and think about what we can do to help the team," Junior Ryan Startcher said.

Competition isn't about an individual person being a star, it's making your team stand out, and becoming recognized as great. Our guys go on the court knowing what they need to do, and how to do it, and they give everything they have to get what they came for.

-Rachel Culpepper

High Hopes

Digging Right In

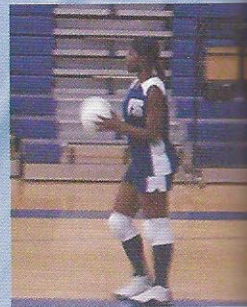

With the preparation of a new year, the girls volleyball team practiced Monday through Thursday for a hour and forty five minutes each day. Not only did the practices call for hard work and dedication, it also required the support and encouragement of the team. "To inspire our teammates, everyone stays positive and trys to keep everyone up, even if they didn't have a good play," junior Lauren McLees said.

Waiting to attack, the girl's volleyball team stands at attention as the opposing team makes their first move. The girls played the game to their advantage. "Everyone worked really hard, the score just didn't show it," junior Lauren McLees said.

Showing sportsmanship, senior Katandra Wilson and junior Tabitha Spahn sets a play as the defending team serves. Both the players showed enthusiasm throughout the game. "Usually I try to give spirit and pep everyone during the game," junior Tabitha Spahn said.

Serving the ball, Natasha Gilliard gives it her all. As a team player, Natasha displays a lot of dedication and talent. "The teamwork got better as the year progressed," senior Natasha Gilliard said.

Planning their attack, the girls huddle up to make a plan. "If we had more team support, believe it would benefit us," junior Tabitha Spahn said.

Going For The Score

Worth Hitting Through

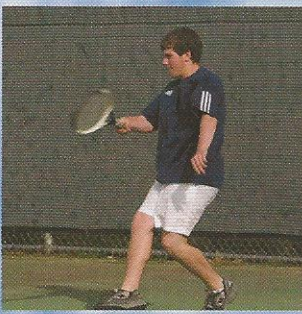

Rallying up, Jeff Hill kept his eyes on the ball. Despite the sun, he still managed to strike the ball. "I am a lot better now than at the beginning of the year. It's a cool sport if you know what you're doing," sophomore Jeff Hill said.

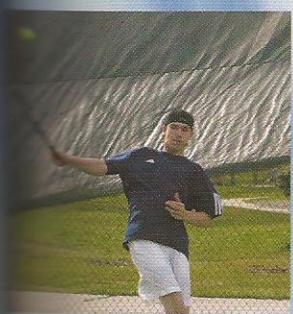

With a new year, Mr. William Singleton prepared for battle. The boys practiced everyday for about two and a half hours. The practices became known to everybody. "I prepared my team by practicing the basics and normal tennis drills," Mr. Singleton said.

Hard Work Pays Off

Dedication Drives Many

Dedication, determination, and hard work are all parts of forming a successful team. The lady softball team's great record came with hard work, and loyalty. The girls spent many afternoons out on the clay pouring their hearts out, with victory in mind. Rain, wind, heat, and freezing weather rarely stopped the girls from taking another step toward their goal. "Practicing hard made us a better team. It was hard, but it was worth it," Junior Brittany Padgett said. The team came together as more of a family having four fathers, a mother, and sixteen daughters. Their great attitudes extended the ladies season beyond April and into the play-offs. The team was full of underclassmen, these underdogs let their fans know championships aren't too far in the future. "We were a very young team last year, but that didn't stop us from being good," Senior Latria Grant said.

Marissa Bright, a senior this year, waits for the next pitch to be thrown. The team could always count on her to do her job. "Coming back this year after my knee injury, I found that I still had a lot to learn," Marissa said.

Senior Tara Shafer plays shortstop for the lady's softball team. She always gave all she had on the field, and produced in some pretty hard situations. "I loved getting people at second base that were trying to steal. It made me feel good to make a great play," Tara said.

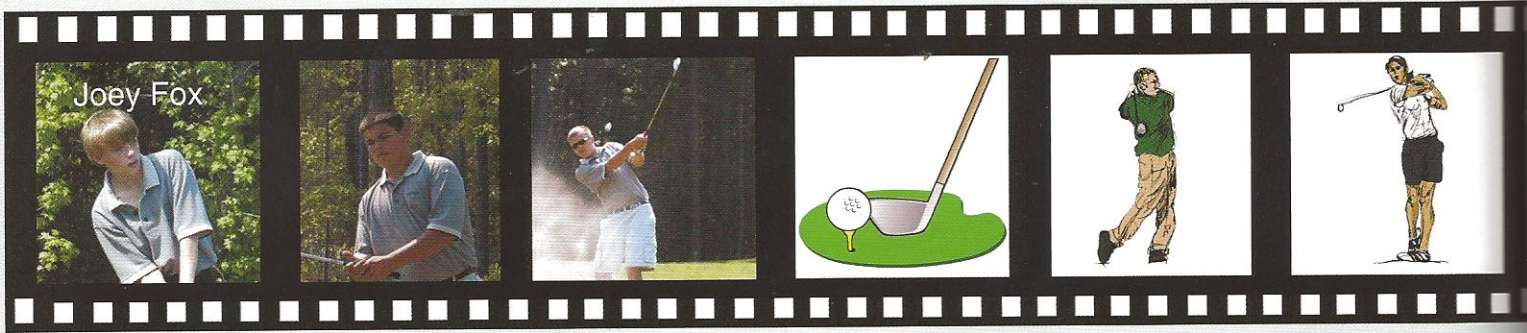

Junior Brittney Padgett takes a second to get ready after making a great play in right field. "I really liked playing in the outfield. You can see everything from out there," Brittney said.

Sophomore Meghan Carter starts her wind up, and strides out for another pitch. "I love how intense it is being on the mound, always having the beginning of each play in your hand," Meghan said.

Cashing it in

A whole in one

The golf team put in a lot of hard work and dedication by practicing for many hours afterschool. Golfers had to work hard to represent their school and gain recognition both within and out of it. Coach Wheeler had many goals for the golf team to accomplish and he recognized that there was a great improvement from the previous year.
- Lauren McLees

"Coach Wheeler wanted us to improve while the season was going on so we could see the success from the hard work that we put in," Sophomore Anthony Soprano said.

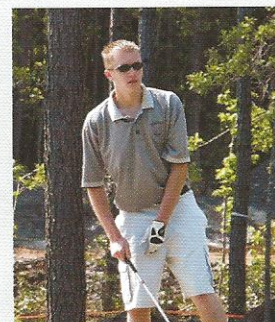

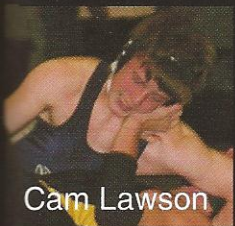

"I really liked going to the matches, especially when we went out to eat afterwards and that was always fun," Sophomore Kyle Allbright said.

Pinned Down

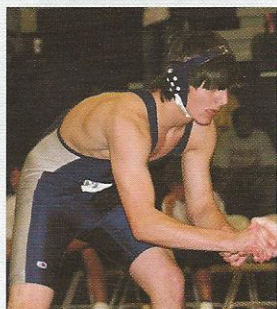

"Before a match I feel really anxious and nervous, I think about all the possibilities of what could happen," Junior Nick Bishop said.

"I think wrestling my senior year has been the best because I was more of a leader and I felt like I had a lot of experience so I could win more," Senior Justin Gravano said.

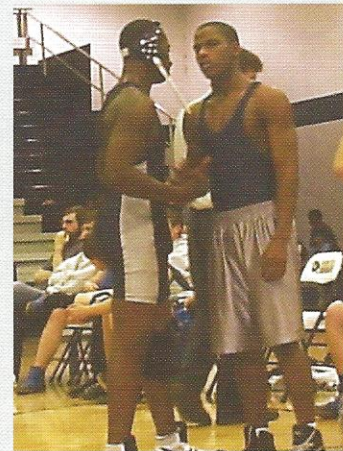

"I get ready for a match by listening to music. It keeps me calm and focused," Freshman Casey Rowe said.

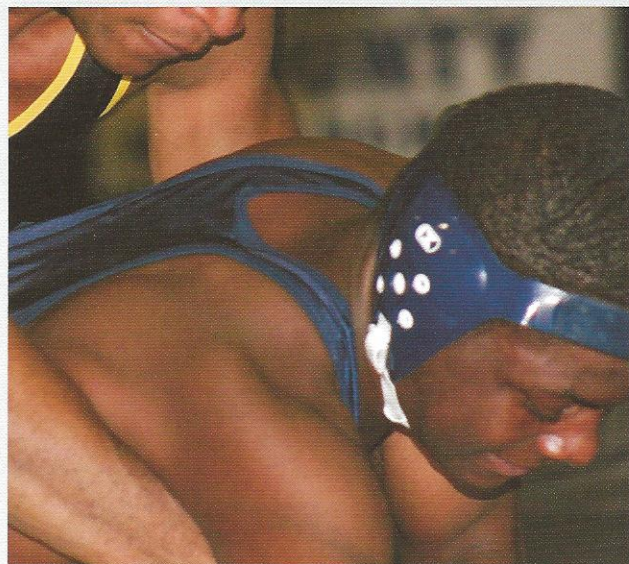

Wrestling is an intense sport that is not often recognized. The third year for the team, the wrestlers struggled to gain acknowledgement and prove they have talent. The cougar wrestling team practiced hard and worked even harder during matches.

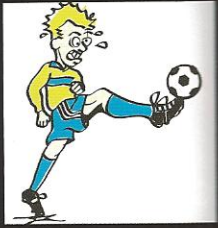

-Lauren McLees

Junior Pierre McMillian commends Senior Nick Moore for working hard during his match.

"To prepare for a match we practice 5 days a week at school until about 5:30 and I run about 2 miles 3 days a week," Junior Chris Shider said.

Alive and Kickin'

Racing for the Goal

Keeping a level head and their minds focused on the game, the boys varsity soccer team strived to win every game. Their plans for the season were to just get out there, play their best game, and win. They wanted to have an overall good season, some just wanted to have a better season than last year. Every boy contributed something, and had the ability to be something great. The soccer team had practice every day during the week. If they wanted to be good that meant they had to practice. Soccer had its good parts too. "The hardest part about soccer is staying fit because I love to eat," junior Jacob O'Quinn said. The coach played a big role in the team's success. Coach Ron McCannon took charge and led his boys to victory.

Setting up for the attack Junior Miltiadis Stamatopoulos attempts to steal the ball from his opponent. "We had a tough season and we had to work hard to catch up, hopefully we'll have a better season next year," Junior Miltiadis said.

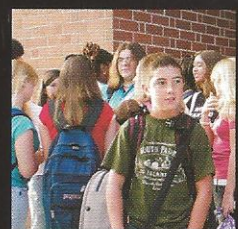

Returning the ball senior John Saunders blocks a goal from the opposing team. "We had a tough season but we never gave up," John said.

Looking for an open teammate, senior Morgan Mabry attempts to pass the ball. "We learned a lot of hard lessons that we hope to improve upon" Morgan said.

Moving to pass the ball, senior Alec Francis kicks the ball to another teammate. "I think we have a good chance to make playoffs this year. We have a lot of new, good talent coming in this season and I'm really excited about it," Senior Alec said.

Going for the Goal

Girls Have Skills Too

As March 1st approached, Coach Brian Reid prepared the team for this year's victories. Their first game against Stratford did not go as planned or like the team hoped. The team did not let that keep them down. "I think that our team did really good this year. Regardless what we thought, there was room for improvement; we will improve", sophomore Martika Robinson said. Everybody found their own special reason for playing. Soccer helped to keep them focused and out of trouble. As the season ended, people already looked forward to next year. "Soccer was great this year, we worked hard. I'm really going to miss it next year," Senior, Morgan Drawdy said.

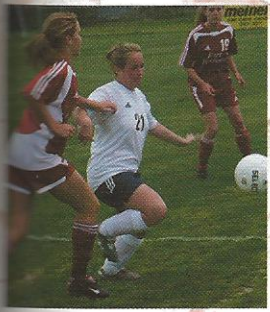

-Rachel Culpepper

Getting control of the ball, senior Kimberly Bullock dribbles down the field. "Our season last year went pretty good. We worked as a team, but this year should be much better with the people we are getting. I'm excited and hope it's a great year considering it's my senior year," Kimberly said.

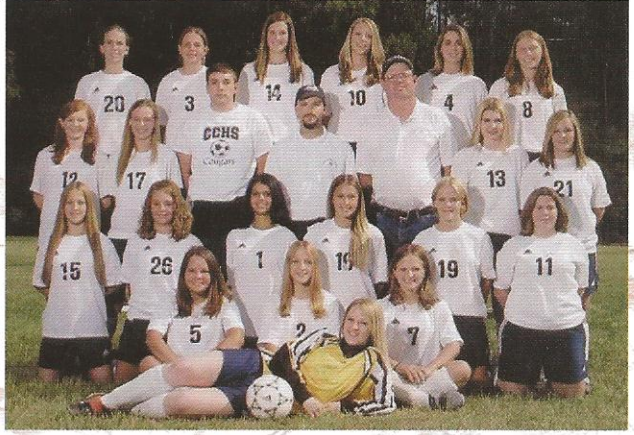

Sprinting for the ball, junior Ashley Pangalangan races the opposing team for the ball. "I'm glad that I chose to play soccer. I have had so much fun last year and can't wait until the new season," Ashley said.

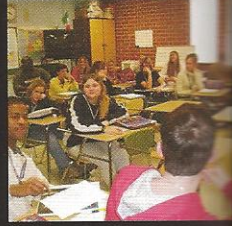

Fighting for the ball, junior Chelsey Barr challenges the opposing team for the ball. "I started soccer my ninth grade year and fell in love with it! It's so much fun and a great way to relieve stress," Chelsey said.

With the ball in mid-air, senior Cameron Price raced to the ball. "We're a great team and we always stick together," Cameron said.

Over the top

Giving it all you've got to get where you want to be

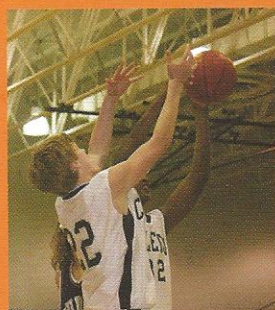

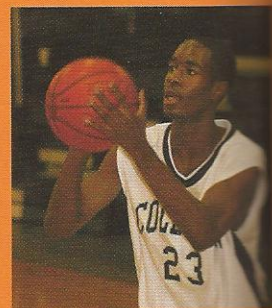

Junior Varsity is a preparation for the next level, Varsity. Our young men showed to be very promising. Over the course of their season they had many long, hard, and tiring practices. After everything was said and done, it was worth it. They made sure they let everyone see what they had to look forward to in the future.

"My favorite thing about how we play together is our amount of teamwork, we really get along good, like a family" freshman Kevin Bazzle said.

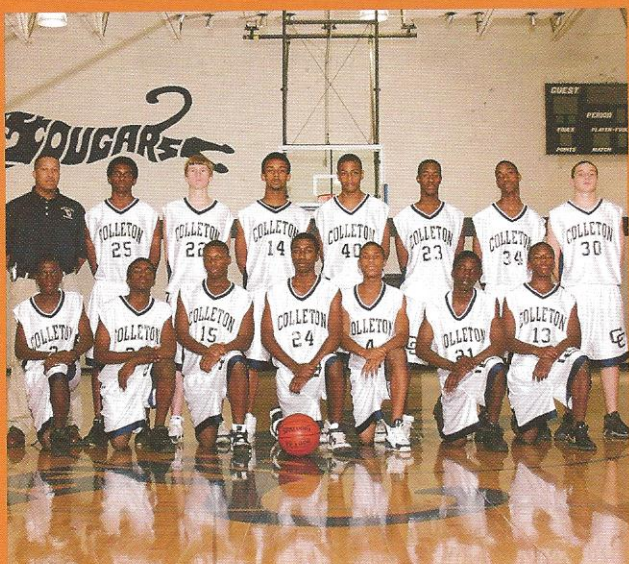

In fact they did show a great amount of teamwork to gain point after point on the score board. They worked hard, and it came through successfully. They are the prime example of where you can get after working endlessly for something you want.

-Mehgan Carter

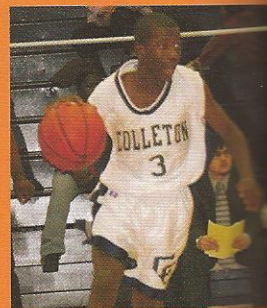

Sophomore Dejon Murray gets set to take a shot for the team. "When someone comes out for basketball, you have to make sure you play hard everytime, hustle a lot, and play as a team, don't be scared to do anything," Dejon said.

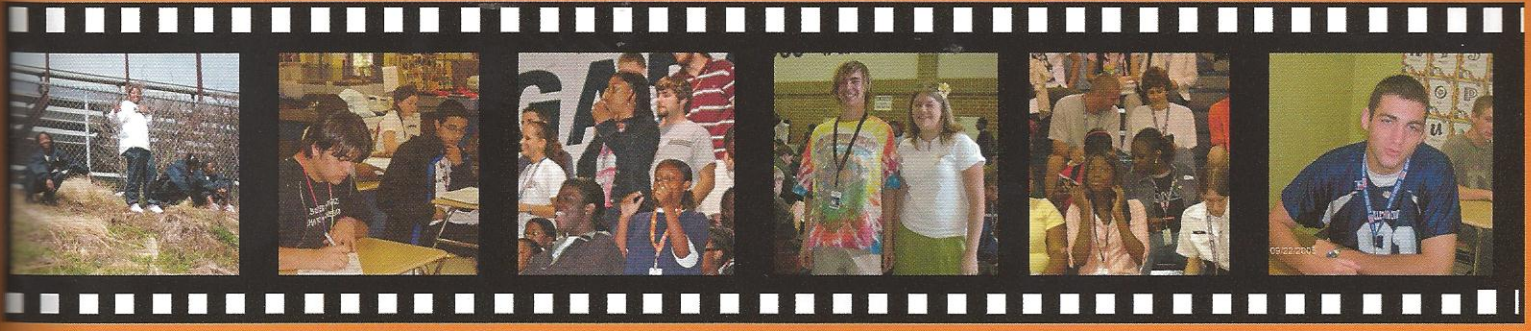

Sophomore Andrew McAlhaney jumps to help protect the ball with his team mates. "As a team, we win together and lose together," Andrew said.

Sophomore Darren Campbell runs the ball down the court, looking for an open shot. "My favorite game would have to be when we played West Ashley because everyone came together to pull off the win," Darren said.

Hard work, Practice, Showtime

Long practice pays off when the time came to bring the game.

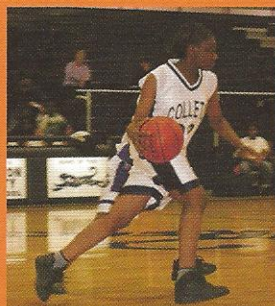

Junior Candace Bussell works the court, doing everything she can to keep the ball. "When we get into a tough situation we just play harder, and hustle to do what we can to come out on top" Junior Candace Bussell said.

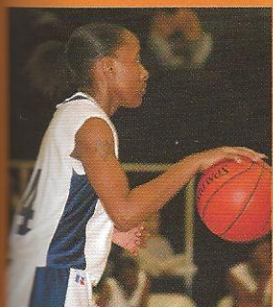

Who said girls can't bring the game? If it's you, be ready to take the heat. These young athletes take every afternoon after school trying to fulfill their dreams of accomplishing what they've wanted since they were little girls. Being on the junior varsity team, is taking that huge leap off the black top onto something that can lead you into your future. If it's a professional baller you're looking to be, this is where it starts. Even if you're wanting to be a doctor, you learn things in this game you rarely find on the streets. While spending hours of work to play a simple game, you gain respect for those on your team and the ones on the opposite side. "The best thing about our team is the fact that we're all friends and have respect for each other, so we play as a team, win or lose", sophomore Christian Williams said. Lessons learned, games won, and games lost. The young ladies allowed what they knew to carry them through another wonderful season.

-Mehgan Carter

Sophomore Christian Williams hustles to get her team ahead. "It's important to always be ahead, and do your best," Christian said.

Freshman Jocelyn Washington gives everything she has to keep the momentum going for her team. "It's always important to practice hard, play hard, and do your best," Jocelyn said.

Lighting up the Course

Quick as a Wink

Running takes a lot of dedication, and that's what the runners of the cross country team had. The heat, a factor that made running hard, had to be overcome. Practicing made each runner better everyday. "It's definitely not a sport for quitters. It's hard, and it hurts, but if you try hard and give it your all, you can get through it. I did," Annie Gregory said. The runners got stronger and learned to never give up. "The most exciting part of cross country is the starting line of a race." Ammon Weeks said. In the end, all the runners improved and were looking forward to the upcoming season.

-Anna Peurifoy

Excited and nervous about the race, the cross country team stood at the starting line. While they waited, they exchange encouraging words to help each other run.

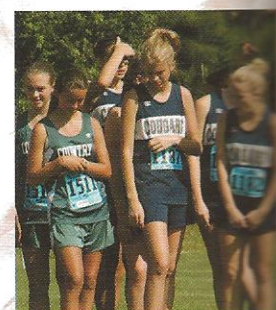

Tired but still going, junior Annie Gregory runs with speed through the fans cheering her on. "Running keeps you in shape and takes out your anger and tension for the day," Annie said.

Running hard, senior Jeffrey Janes tries to make it to the finish line. "Passing the person in front of you is all you think about while running in a race," Jeffrey said.

The girls talked to the other teams runners before taking off in the race. "Talking to the teammates always calmed us down because when you step on the line your nerves are all built up," Meghan Carter (not pictured) said.

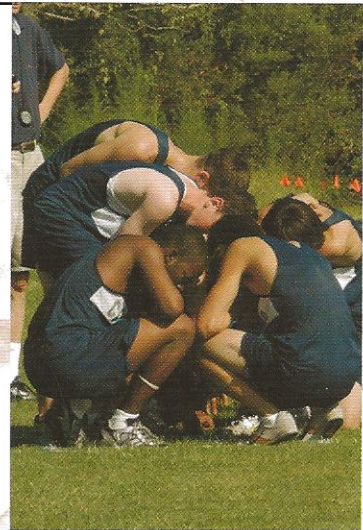

Trying to stay in the lead, senior Andrew Johnson runs as fast as he can. "The races are long and tiring but its worth it at the end," Andrew said.

Hanging out while waiting for a cross country race, freshmen Ammon Weeks talks to fellow cross country members. Bonding with teammates makes everyone more relaxed before running a race. It also helped everyone get in a better mood with a positive attitude. Thinking positively helped out with running alot. "My favorite race to run is the Coach's Classic," Ammon said.

Putting forth the last of her effort, junior Meghan Carter crosses the finish line, "You're always tired in the end, but knowing you're that close always gives you that extra adrenaline rush," Meghan said.

Preparing for the upcoming race, the boys cross country team huddles up. "The boys' team placed higher this year than the last 6 years in the Region Champion race," Coach Smith said.

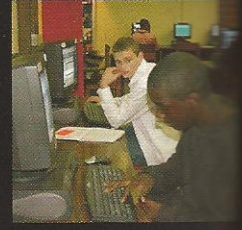

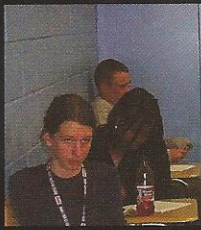

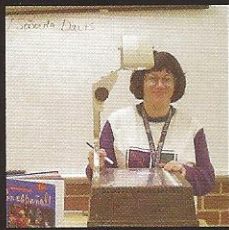

The crowd watches as senior Victoria Harrison makes her way to the finish line. "This was my first year running for the team. I really enjoyed it but it was a lot of hard work," Victoria said.

Moving into Action

JV Football has a breakout year!!!

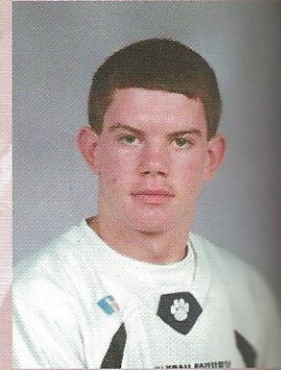

In the shadow of big brother varsity football, the JV football team still managed to shine like a newly cut diamond. The freshman and sophomore players proved that they could run with the big boys in the long and grueling summer practices. Despite the losses and set backs of the season, '05 will always be a year that they will remember.

Changes in the coaching staff along with new blood on the football team turned out to be a match made in football heaven. The optimistic attitudes along with amazing skill and talent are a sure sign of the great things to come from the extraordinary freshman and sophomore players.

Beaufort	12	28
Hilton Head	24	14

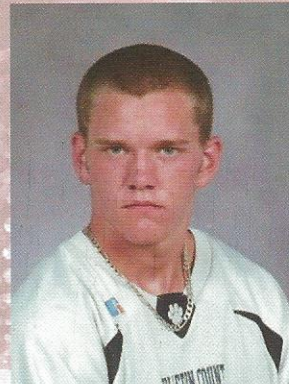

"My best game was at Berkley when I threw a 150 yard pass for a touchdown," Freshman and quarterback Justin Guinn said.

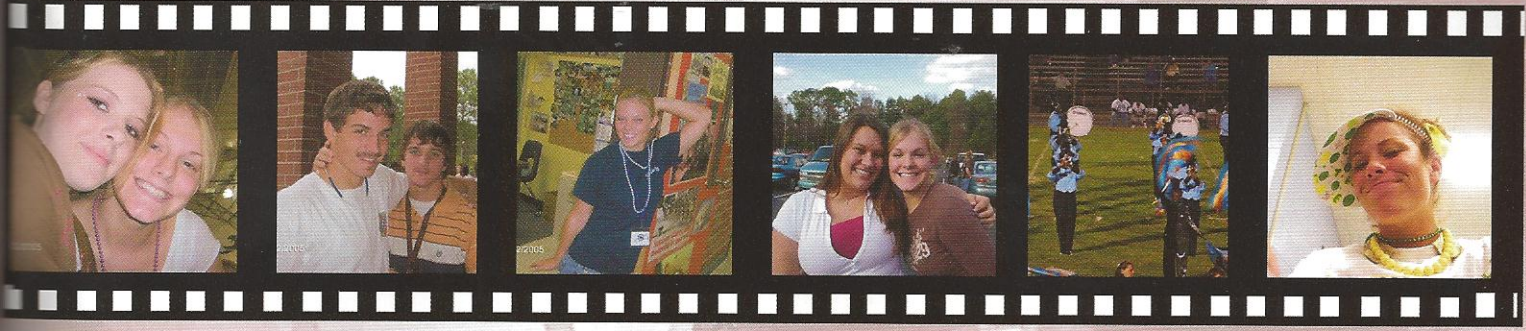

Donte Drew recounted his best game with tremendous detail. "The game I will never forget is the Battery Creek game when I got 3 sacks. It was 4th quarter, 1 minute 20 seconds to go. I caught the fumble to give it back to get the game winning score."

Players like James Sherman, #20, rotated between Varsity and Junior Varsity but still shined on both teams. The player proved his worth when he broke 60 yards at the Hilton Head game. "That is one play I will never forget," the sophomore said.

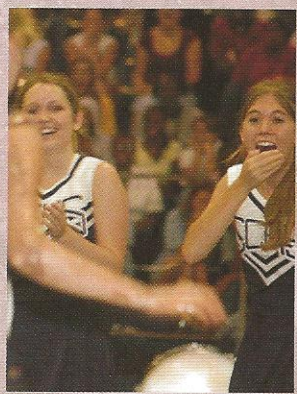

Exceptional players like tight end Andrew Harvey- Jones came into the sport with a great attitude. "I tried out for the team because my family played football. I also like the idea of legalized fighting," the freshman said.

Stars on the Rise

JV Cheerleaders Rise to the Varsity's Challenge

When asked why she joined the team Jessica Byrd replied "I've been doing cheerleading since I was little and it is so much fun. You get to do a lot of stuff, like stunts," the freshman said.

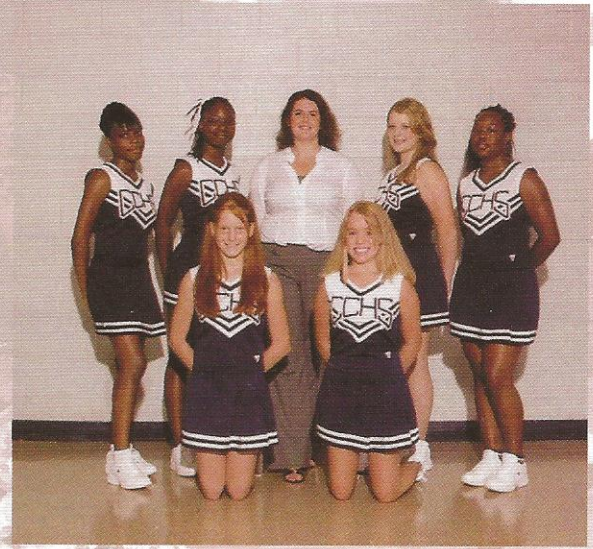

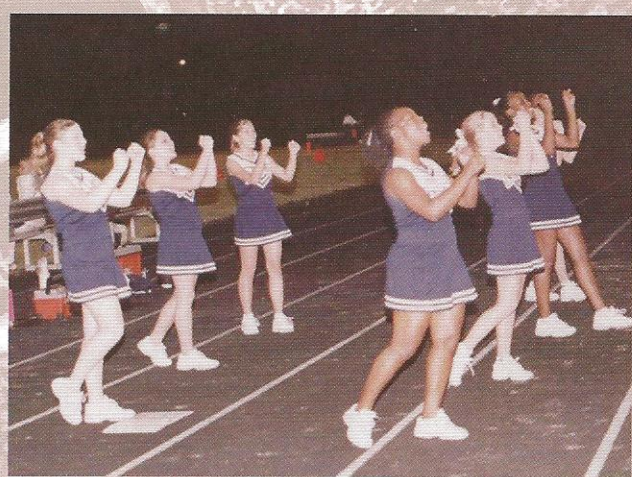

"I feel really comfortable around Jessica Byrd. She's like my best friend," Sophomore Anna Peurifoy (last in back row) said when asked who did she feel the most at ease with on the team.

JV cheerleading might not seem important but we all couldn't be more wrong. "How hard could cheerleading be," many people ask. In the words of sophomore Anna Purifoy, "Cheerleading is hard and time consuming but it is still fun."

Even though the cheerleading team had a rough year, they proved to have great strength and resilience.

The JV cheerleaders were faithful, positive and even essential as they supported the school at the athletic events throughout the year. Their cheers and support played a significant part in the victory and spirit of the school.

TWELVE SCHOOL YEARS GONE IN A FLASH

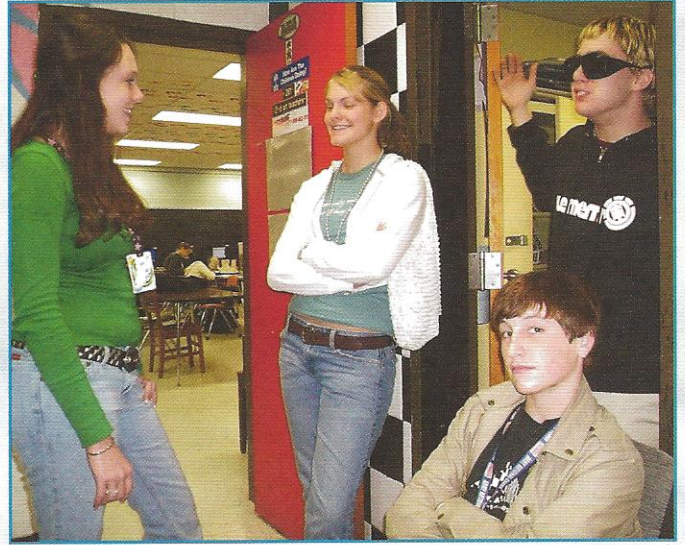

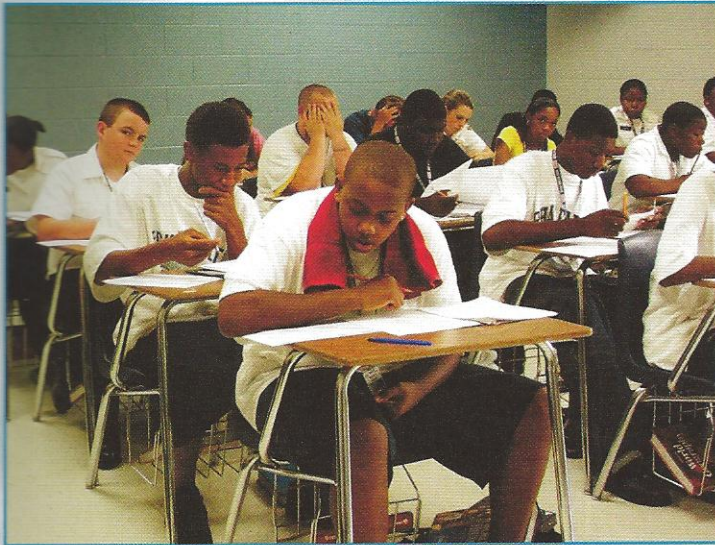

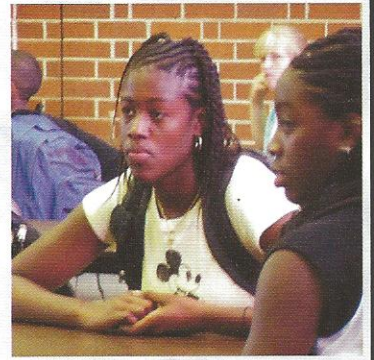

~ Amber Noel Redman ~

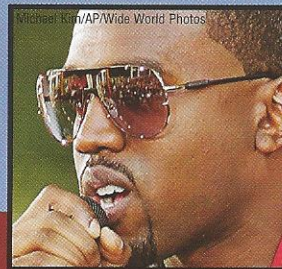

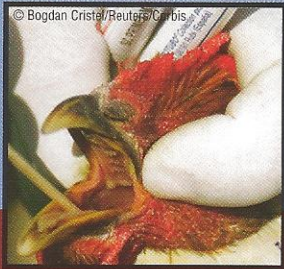

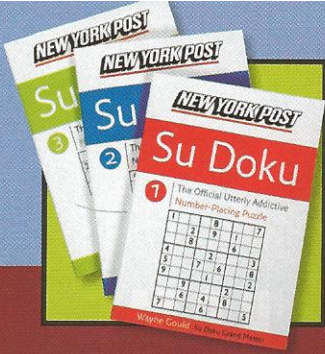

You are our very dream come true! We are so very proud of you! You've grown into a beautiful, strong and independent woman, with high goals and a strong will. The future is in your hands. May God bless you and walk with you always.

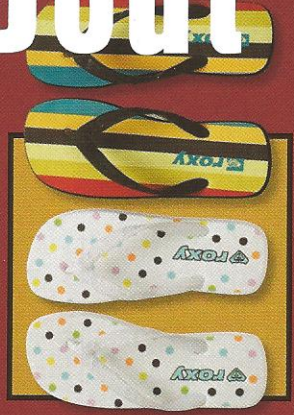

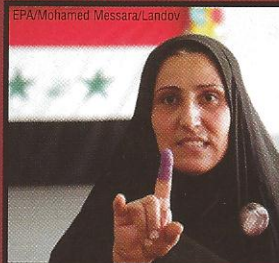

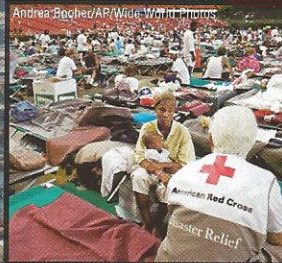

Take a Bow

As the year comes to an end, we are ready to say good-bye, but we will never forget the memories that we made. All of the laughter, the tears, and the hard work will be remembered for the rest of our lives. For some, this is a final chapter and for others it is just the beginning. A special thanks to the entire yearbook staff who worked so hard to make this book possible.

Hurricanes ravage the Gulf Coast region in the fall of 2005, posing an unprecedented test of the United States federal emergency response efforts. Hundreds of lives are lost and thousands are left homeless in the wake of Category 4 Hurricane Katrina, followed by Rita and Wilma. The tragedy spurs contributions of money, talents, homes, food and more in an attempt to raise spirits and rebuild the area.

August

- 25 Hurricane Katrina strikes Florida.
- 28 Mandatory evacuation of both New Orleans and Mississippi is ordered as Katrina becomes a Category 5 storm in the Gulf of Mexico.
- 29 Downgraded to a Category 4 storm, Katrina hits land. 1.3 million homes and businesses lose electricity in Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama. 30 levees are breached, flooding New Orleans and leaving 100,000 people stranded. After slow government response, civil unrest and looting begins.
- 31 President Bush surveys the damage.

September

- 1 30,000 National Guard troops are deployed. Gas prices spike to as high as $5 per gallon.
- 2 President Bush visits Louisiana and signs a $10.5 billion relief bill. Nearly 154,000 evacuees arrive in Texas.
- 4 The New Orleans Superdome is evacuated.
- 6 President Bush and Congress pledge to investigate the flawed disaster response.
- 9 Government-issued debit cards are distributed to evacuees. The program fails and is ended days later.
- 12 Michael Brown, head of the Federal Emergency Management Agency, resigns. Flooding is down to 50 percent in New Orleans.
- 14 New Orleans Mayor Ray Nagin announces a phased repopulation plan.
- 15 New Orleans begins to reopen. Katrina is named the most destructive hurricane in U.S. history.
- 20 Louisiana Governor Kathleen Blanco declares a state of emergency as Hurricane Rita strengthens off the coast.
- 22 Rita hits the Louisiana coast and heads for Texas.
- 23 Thousands evacuate eastern Texas and the 9th Ward of New Orleans floods once again after levees are overrun.

October

- 24 Hurricane Wilma hits southwest Florida.
