History

Some people thought history was so boring. Others loved it and said it was their best subject. Either way it was a good thing to learn. How else would we know how we became the country we are today? Also, we learned about how crazy some of our ancestors were and some of the odd things they have done. "I will never forget learning that the way they made indigo blue was by peeing in it," junior Aubrey Hill said.

History also helped us appreciate how some things are today such as race issues or independence and our rights. We came a long way and would never know it if we didn't learn it in history.

"If I could be anyone in history I would be Rosa Parks," sophomore Karanta White said.

"I like history because I can actually pass it," junior Nick Flickman said.

"I like the wars in history because there is a lot of action," sophomore Matthew Johnson said.
