

War & Peace

Dand / Colorguard

The Dand of Blue had started the year off great by winning everything in their division and winning overall at their first competition of the year. Their show was called War and Peace and it's definitely something you should have seen. The band worked really hard over the summer. Even though it's hard work "I really enjoy it. It's very fun," junior Ijima Saunders said. They were up early in the morning until the mid-afternoon doing nothing but band while everyone else was having fun at the beach. Their hard work paid off when they laid it all out on the field. Their hard work made Friday night football games worth going too!

-Annsley Moore

"It gives me a chance to spend more time with my friends," junior Carey Chubb said.

"I really enjoy band. It keeps me busy," junior Ijima Saunders said.

"I like the marching and playing my instrument. What is there not to like about it?" junior Jamaica Nix said.

"I like the competitions. They are pretty exciting," junior Iman Rose said.

