

"I've always enjoyed dancing and I have watched the cheerleading competitions on TV since I was a little girl, so I guess that's what brought me to doing it," junior Courtney Ivey said.

"Yes, cheerleading is dangerous because we stunt and throw people, so it can be dangerous if you mess around," junior Lindsey Lowery said.

"I love to cheer at the pep rallies, and the energy is great," freshmen Tiphany Doyd said.

"I like performing at the basketball games because all the fans surround the team," junior Rebecca Herndon said.

"I would like to compete in competitions because I feel like it would be a fun experience against other schools," sophomore Ashley Dilka said.

1) Junior Danielle Campbell pulls a QP at the pep rally. "I honestly enjoy every part of cheerleading because I love dancing, I love cheering my team to a victory, and I love stunting cause I get thrown in the air and I'm basically the center of attention," Danielle said.
 2) "I like dancing because I'm good at it and I just love it," junior Lindsey Lowery said.
 3) Sophomore Amanda Lemacks held a sign to show school spirit during a basketball game. "Spirit wise I always try to encourage other students to attend games, pep rallies, and to support the football and basketball teams," Mandy said.
