

- 1) Junior Kenneth Mitchell was struggling to get away from his Goose Creek's opponent. "When I'm wrestling I don't get mad at the other opponent I get mad at the ref most of the time," Kenneth said.
- 2) Senior Cameron Lawson is using his muscles to keep the other wrestler on the floor. "I enjoy staying in shape it helps me out with wrestling," Cameron said.
- 3) Freshman Albert Longberry is trying to figure out what move he was going to throw out on the Goose Creek wrestler. "I like the colors and how it makes my muscles look good for the ladies," Albert said.
- 4) Junior Mark Regelin is shaking hands with the Goose Creek wrestlers after a good match. "I have good support group, both my family and friends come to see me," Mark said.
- 5) Sophomore Drandon Fraizer is trying to get out of one of the moves that Goose Creek has him in. "I enjoy wrestling very much!" Drandon said.

Wrestling!

This year's wrestling team has been working hard on everything. They put in long hours of practice to get the skills needed to win the upcoming wrestling matches. The coaches challenged them to do their best and to make it a great season. The wrestlers have been working out to get their muscles to take on the other competitors.

-Annley Moore

