

No Games When Cougars Attack

"What keeps me going is God, family, and friends," senior Leon Dowman Jr. said.

"The people I love to play with on the field is the right side of the O-Line," senior Corey Chapman said.

"What motivates me is knowing that I'm getting better by working out and applying myself on the field," sophomore Dakota "Waterboy" Mitchell said.

"During the game I stare into the eyes of my opponent. I love to prove that I am better than my opponent," junior Donte Drew said.

"My proudest moment was having over one hundred tackles in a season," junior Jamaal Parker said.

1) Getting ready for the game, senior Dyrone Jerideau thinks of how to dominate his opponents. "My proudest moment was when we beat Stratford on Hall of Fame night. Everyone was proud of us; our gift to past players was winning on that night," Dyrone said.
 2) James Sherman was rushing for big yards and winning games with his offense. "My proudest moment is running a 92 yard touchdown against West Ashley," senior James Sherman said.
 3) "Getting everyone motivated is why I have wanted to play this sport ever since I was a child," senior Steve Dright said.
