you?

You live on the edge, and you live for the adrenaline rush. You don't need luxuries, snob appeal, or superfluous gadgets. You put your top down, get your motor revving, and take all the curves that life throws at you at full speed. So what if you spin out occasionally?

Honda

S2000

"I don't like cars, trucks are much better," sophomore Chad McDowell said.

"I think it's a reliable car," sophomore Ashley Crosby said.

You're not the fastest or the most agile, but you have style and power. You believe in looking good and moving quickly without breaking the bank.

Nissan

350Z

"I think the Nissan 350Z fits me because I do like to look good," senior Raheem Thrower said.

"I like it because it's fast!" freshman Gregory "Storm" Rogers said.

You're not subtle, but you don't want to be. Fast, loud, and dramatic, you want people to notice you, and then get out of the way. In a world full of sheep, you're a raging bull.

Lamborghini

Murcielago

"I think this car fits me very well and it's hot! :)." senior Kristin Stroud said.

"This has been my favorite car since I was a little boy," junior Quintin Cunningham said.
