

Voices

from

CCHS

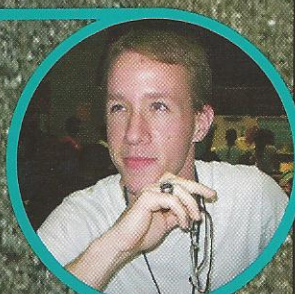

Tyler Creel, a soon to be graduate, agrees teenagers don't waste as much time as other age groups. "We're busy getting ready for life," senior Tyler said.

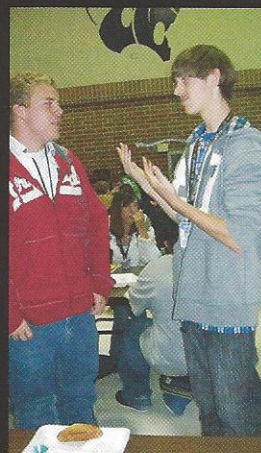

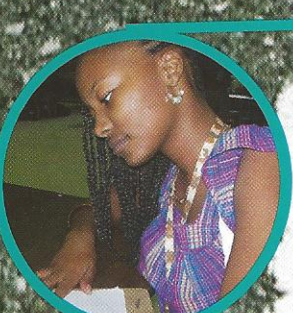

"During my free time I'm usually on the computer or phone," senior Kristian Taunton said.

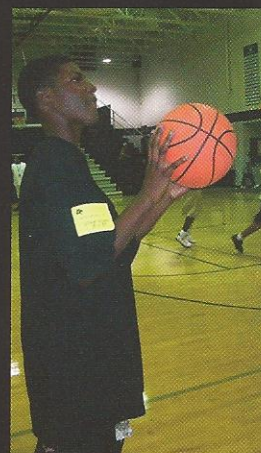

"If I had nothing to do I would be sitting at the beach," senior Kirk Boland said.

"Before school starts, I watch BET and MTV every morning to pass the time," sophomore Kimberly Johnson said.

During lunch, seniors Brandon Maxcey and Tim O'Connor talked out a misunderstanding. When asked if teenagers waste more time than any other age group, "Yes, we do stupid things," Brandon said.

Isaiah shot some 3 pointers during gym. "Basketball is the best sport ever. It's what I play to pass the time," freshman Isaiah Williams said.

After cracking some jokes on a friend, senior Ryan McGhie explains that he loves his job. "I work for Prestige Worldwide!" Ryan said.

Seniors Kyle Murdaugh and Claye Holt describe their various sports they both enjoy together during their free time. Kyle and Claye fish competitively. "We play baseball, football, you know...motorcross, golf, and BMX," Kyle said.

