

When the clocks ticking, what are you doing?

Wasting time is generally an easy thing to do. Whether it's sleeping, making money, playing a game, or just lounging around watching TV.

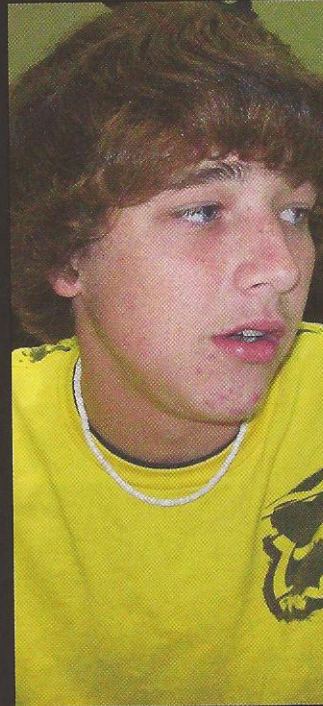

"Most teenagers enjoy free time. There's nothing wrong with doing nothing," senior Chelsea Hart said.

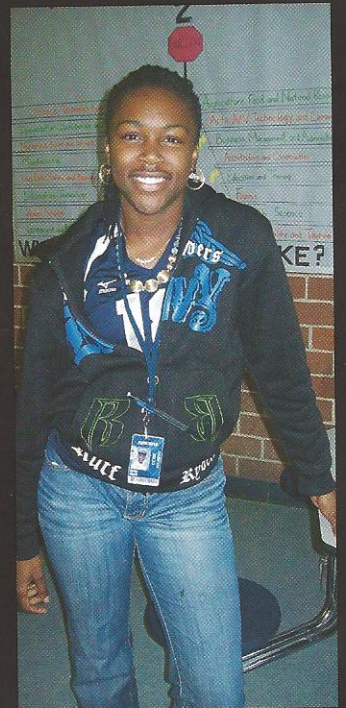

While heading to Spanish, sophomore Kayla Howell was getting some books out of her locker. Kayla believes no person has been a waste of her time. "At one point you wanted that, it's not like a regret," Kayla said.

Senior Eric Hamilton was patiently waiting for lunch to end. "My favorite activity would have to be Mixxin," Eric said.

Junior Dylan Saimes, better known as a daily money maker, thinks working is the best thing ever. "You get money. It's better than anything else," Dylan said.

Senior Della Mack was heading to first period, just missing the tardy bell. "I like to catch up on those few extra minutes of sleep before school," Della said.
