

Junior Shannon Hunt stood outside her classroom door. "I would do anything in the world for my best friend," Shannon said.

Junior Glenn Amberson was talking to his friend at 3rd lunch. "My favorite thing to do with my best friend is to play gold," Glenn said.

Sophomore Tre-ana Parrish was goofing off with her friends at lunch. "I have known my best friend since 4th grade," Tre-ana said.

Senior Matthew Johnson was goofing off with his friends early in the morning. "My favorite thing to do with my best friend is to eat and play rock band," Matt said.

Senior Christopher Lynah was eating lunch and watching other student walk by. "Me and Simmon have been best friends since the 6th grade," Chris said.

Sophomore Katie Sutton was sitting outside waiting for the rest of her class. "Me and my best friend usually just go mudding," Katie said.

Senior Claye Holt was hanging out at fourth lunch with his best friend Kyle Murdaugh. "We have been friends since 8th grade," Claye said.

Freshman Brenda Martinez was working on some homework before the bell. "I have more than one best friend," Brenda said.

Senior Kristian Taunton was at 3rd lunch waiting for her lunch buddies. "I have known my best friends for seventeen years now," Kristian said.

Junior Quintin Cunningham carried his best friend Amber to class. "I think i'm a great friend," Quintin said.

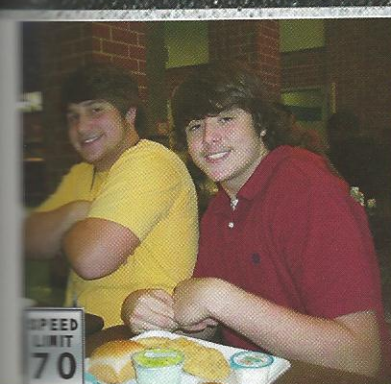

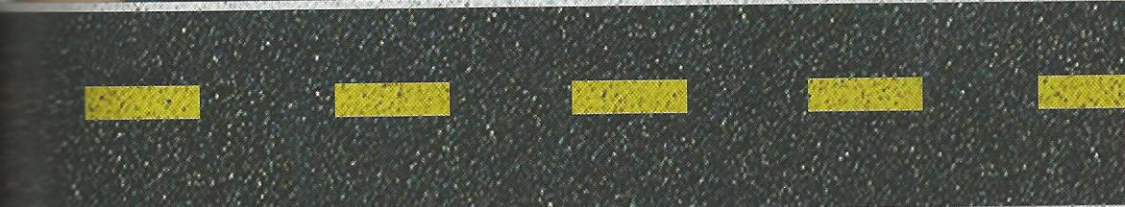

Senior Floyd Mulligan was sitting at 3rd lunch with his good friends. "I would do anything for my best friend," Floyd said.

Senior Chelsea Blake was sitting at 2nd lunch with her close friends. "My best friend would be Rachael Durbin but we don't get to hang out every weekend," Chelsea said.

senior Kristina Foust was having fun with her best friend at the failgate party. "We have been best friends since 9th grade," Caroline said.

Junior Scott O'Neal was outside at lunch with some friends. "My girlfriend is my best friend," Scott said.

Junior Heather Kimbler was messing around in 3rd period with her best friend, Amber. "Me and Amber have been best friends since the first day of high school," Heather said.

Senior Shada Garvin-Small was talking with her girls at lunch. "My best friend would be Sakeifha Johnson because we have been friends since 7th grade," Shada Smalls.

