

Michaela Barnes

"Rules are meant to be broken."

Andrew Floresca

"I don't like the tardy policy because I like to associate."

Patyma Huynh

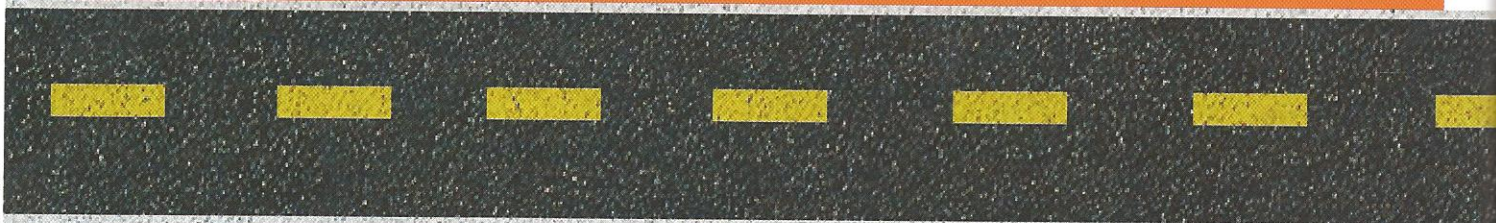

"The tardy policy is good because it keeps you from missing things in class."

Cougars Rule

Yeah, you may have hated the rules but they were necessary. The rules CCHS had are what kept the school from being chaotic. Each rule that the school had served a purpose whether you thought it did or not. The rules given in high school were preparing us for college, jobs, and just plain real life. No matter where you end up in life there are going to be rules that need to be followed.

Patrick "Hooter" Hooton

"I hate that we aren't aloud to have cell phones because they don't hurt anyone."

Ashtyn Boyd

"I don't like that you get a referral after only two tardies because sometimes you can't help it."

William Jakes

"I don't like having to tuck my shirt in because it takes away my personal style."
