Junior Clayton Geathers was showing his love for chicken strip day during 2nd lunch. "My favorite teacher would have to be Ms. Edwards. She's crazy, energetic, and doesn't talk too much," Clayton said.

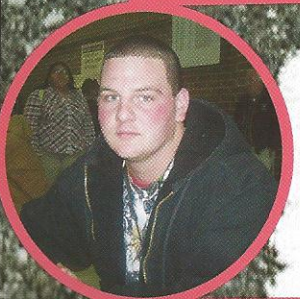

Senior Yu Min Ni was on her way to visit her favorite teacher 3rd period. "Coach Smith teaches history, and I love history. He's in charge of the academic team which I also love! He's an awesome old man," Yu Min said.

Junior Donte Calloway was enjoying 3rd lunch with a few friends. "Mr. Herndon is my favorite teacher because he allows us to eat in class, and is a fun person to be around," Donte said.

Senior Caylor Norton sat and talked with friends last week. "Coach Tew is my favorite teacher because he is awesome," Caylor said.

Senior Tereon Walters was on her way to the guidance office first period. "Mrs Griffin makes science fun, she takes her time to explain the work to us, that's why she's my favorite teacher," Tereon said.

Junior Zachary Clegg was on his way to third period. "My favorite teacher is Coach Loper, he's also my favorite football coach. He's very intelligent, and funny," Zachary said.

Jennifer McCord has had four years to decide who her favorite teacher is. "Mr. Loudenslager is the best teacher I have ever had. He makes class fun, and is very very jokey," senior Jennifer said.

Junior Taylor Garris was hanging out with her friend Brooke Gasseff at lunch. "My favorite teacher is Ms. Courtney because she teaches French which is a neat language. She's an interesting individual, and very nice," Taylor said.
