

What do you go to the Media Center for?

SHHHH; Be Quiet!

At our school media center there are many things to do. One thing you can do is check your e-mail or Intouch on the computers. Another thing is check out a book and read it. We have a lounge area where you can just sit around and read magazines, books, or just whisper to your friends. Many teachers in our school take their classes down to the library to work on projects or do work on the tables they have set up. The pizza and poetry club also meets in the library. Whenever your free, or you have alot of work to do you should stop by and check it out.

Sophomore Mikayla Barnes grabbed a book out of her locker one morning before second period. "I don't read, i hate reading," Mikayla said.

Junior Ashley Simmons thought it'd look cute to sit in a window seal. "If i ever read a book, i would sit in a window seal to read it because this is comfortable," Ashley said.

Sophomore Shaquetta Washington worked on a project for her third period teacher. "I only go to the Media Center to do projects or play games," Shaquetta said.

Senior Kimberly Grant lounged in the media center one day after a hard school day. "I come to the library to get the latest gossip from the magazines," Kim said.
