

Voices

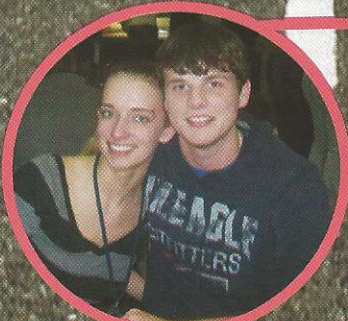

from

CCHS

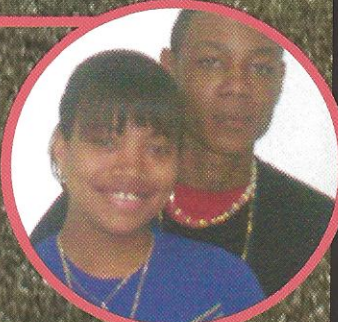

Juniors Cody Cobble and Amanda Carter laughed at a joke Cody told. "The very first time I met Cody I hated him but his sense of humor made me fall for him," Amanda Carter said.

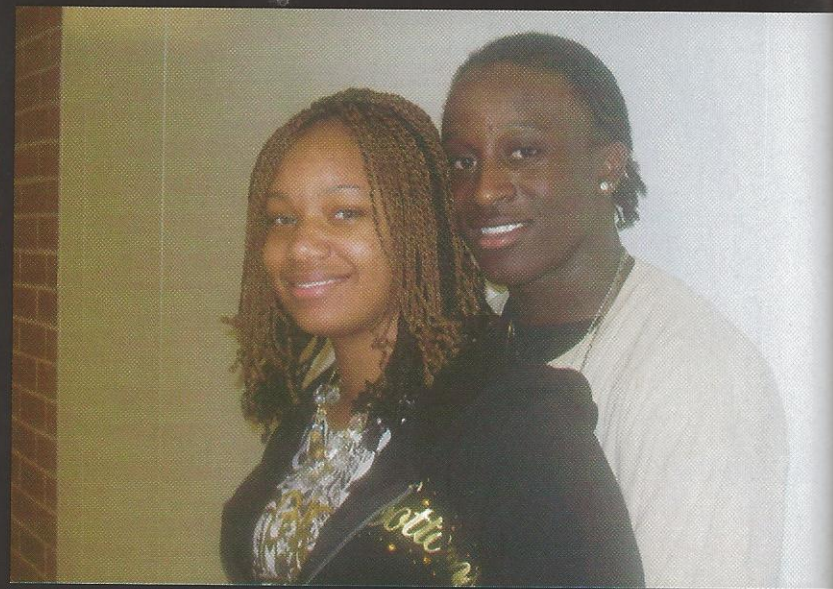

Juniors Morgan McCaskill and Calvin Bailey hugged at lunch. "We met two years ago through playing soccer," Morgan said.

Sophomore Brittni Solomon and Junior Naquan Willfams said thier goodbyes before class. "We met over myspace," Brittni said.

Mr. Cable and Ms. McCuen started dating when they were in high school. "I love his wonderful sense of humor. He can always make me laugh" Ms. McCuen said.

Sophomore Octavia Bodison and junior Eric Kirkland stood in the hall together. "The first thing that I noticed about Eric was his eyes," Octavia said.

Seniors Kahilu Kofh and Kyle Murdaugh hugged before class. "We met in Mrs. Davis' Spanish I class in tenth grade. I noticed him because he always would sing Edwin McCain during class," Kahilu said.

