

Voices

from

CCHS

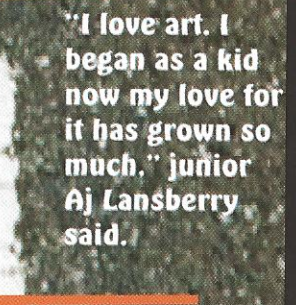

While laughing with friends, sophomore Kewanza Ferguson stated, "I'm not big on art, never had it, but I love sketch art." Kewanza said.

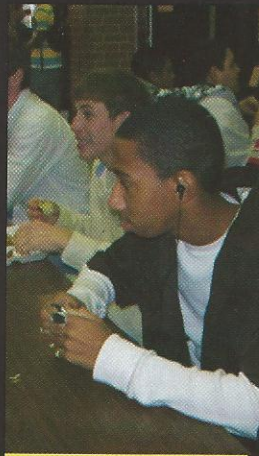

While sitting with a group of friends "Yes I do like art. I like it because I get to express myself." sophomore Kelli Manigo said.

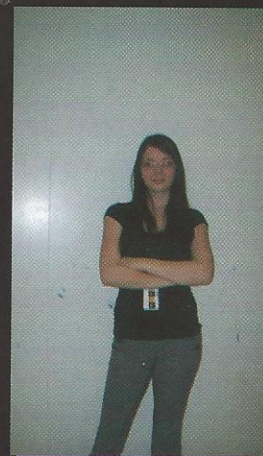

"I believe art is a way of expressing my feelings. When I create art I feel as if my surroundings inspire me. I would consider art as a part time job" sophomore Shonece Malone said.

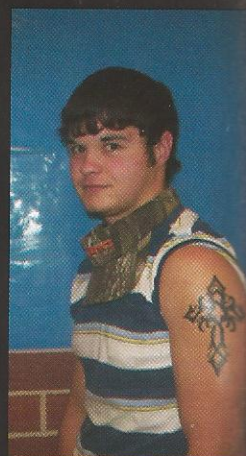

"I love art. I began as a kid now my love for it has grown so much." junior Aj Lansberry said.

"Art isn't really my favorite subject, but I try to get into it" sophomore Marcus Hodges said.

"I started to learning to make art at my last school. I didnt learn much about art here at CCHS." "I do enjoy making atr for mt personal advantage." junior Devin Brealand said.

"I had art during my freshman year with Mrs. Davis. It was ok, but I learned a lot" sophomore Eric Hammond said.

The picture below was illustrated by junior Aj Lansberry. "Drawing is a family tradition passed down to me from my grandmother after she died" Aj said.

