

Voices

from

CCHS

Junior Labrandia Johnson tried to smile. "Since I started R.O.T.C. I've learned how to shoot a rifle" Labrandia said.

Junior Daniel Rivers just finished faking a major test. "R.O.T.C. will help me go into the Marine Core at a higher rank" Daniel said.

Freshman Ashley Rivers was so excited to get out of class. "My goal for R.O.T.C. is to earn as many ribbons as I can." Ashley said.

Freshman Steven Turner laughed as he walked up to the flag. "I've learned land navigation since I've joined R.O.T.C.," Harvey said.

Sophomore Kwanisha Jenkins
Just came back from the head. "I'm on unarmed drill team," Kwanisha said.

Freshman Ja'Marian Pinckney
finally found someone to tie his tie. "I love orienteering," Ja'Marian said.

Freshman Sylvester Bowman
had her ribbons on backwards but then corrected them. "I'm currently a seaman recruit but I hope to get a higher rank," Sylvester said.

Gunner Williams, Commander Armentrout, and Senior Chief Spofford. "It is a joy to have the opportunity to put to good use the knowledge and experience I received in the military." Senior Chief said.

