

The Life Of A Cadet

Are you joining the military after high school?

The day of a R.O.T.C student starts off with The Pledge of Allegiance followed by a moment of silence. Wednesdays usually consist of uniform inspections. Ranks and ribbons are earned. Drills are repetitive. Hard work, responsibility and dedication are just a few qualifies needed to participate in CCHS N.J.R.O.T.C.

By: Quintin Cunningham

Junior Kaitlyn Finley smiled and showed her new green braces. "Next year I hope to become XO," Kaitlyn said.

Freshman Rainie Gordon stood at attention and saluted. "R.O.T.C. is a great way to learn self discipline and respect," Rainie said.

Junior Perry Smith just finished taking an important test. "I love to shoot the rifle in the air rifle competition," Perry said.

Junior Jacquelyn Harrison took six previous pictures before getting the right one "I've become a strong leader since I've joined R.O.T.C.," Jacquelyn said.