

Voices

from

CCHS

Gabrielle stood and played her flute while she practiced before a competition. "The best part about band is going on trips." junior Gabrielle Price said.

LaDonte stood patiently and practiced before a football game at the Cougar Stadium. "It can be very fun but tiresome at times." junior LaDonte Sutter said.

Senior Kasanta White directed the band of Blue as they played at the Band Classic. "The best part of this season was getting best Drum Major over Summerville Drum Majors." Kasanta said.

Chelsea stood miserably in the heat at practice after school. "I wish practices were shorter." junior Chelsea Dodgla said.

Katherine performed at the first home football game at the new Cougar Stadium. "It's really embarrassing to mess up." freshman Katherine Judy said.

Christopher stood anxiously and talked to his friend while waiting for the game to start Friday. "I think the best part of band is getting to meet new people." freshman Christopher Cavanaugh said.

Senior Aaron Crosby practiced in the heat after school on last Wednesday. "I don't think practice is to bad." Aaron said.

Senior Katy Harrison stood and talked to her friend Tony Pfeffer before the football game. "The worst part about performing at football games is when people don't pay attention to what we are doing." Katy said.

