Junior Thorne Frazier talked with Mr. Johnson about the game last friday. "I want my future career to be in automative engineering." Thorne said.

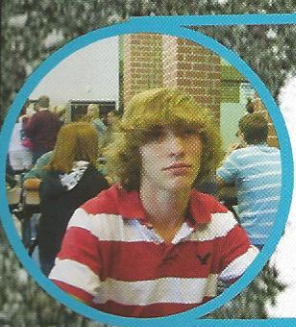

Sophomore Octavia Bodison sat at the table trying to figure out what she wanted to eat. "If I could choose another elective it would be Culinary Arts." Octavia said.

Sophomore Wanequa Huggins laughed at a hysterical joke someone just told. "If I could create an elective it would be Cell Phone class, so you could text all day." Wanequa said.

Sophomore Terry Winn got kind of upset because the machine took his money. "If I could tell everyone to take an elective it would be Forestry, because it has to deal with the enviroment." Terry said.

Senior Auston Hardwick had fun during his lunch break. "If I could create an elective, it would be recess because it's super cool!" Auston said.

Sophomore Stavia Creel checked out Homecoming decorations. "If I could tell everyone to take an elective it would be ROTC because it helps to better your self-discipline." Stavia said.

Senior Jack Crosby reflected back on how good lunch was. "I want my future career to be a Game Designer." Jack said.

Sophomore Jillian Payne checked herself out in the Trophy Case mirror. "If I could pick another elective to be in it would be yearbook because it seems like it would be fun." Jillian said.
