

Cheerleaders say wh-a-a-t-f?

"I've been cheering since I was three years old and I plan on pursuing it for college," freshman Ashby Kane said.

"The hardest thing about cheerleading is getting all the moves down and the easiest thing in cheerleading is stuntin', at least to me," sophomore Regina Hiott said.

"The only practice the team really had was during camp in August, other than that we had to practice alone," freshman Haley Rowe said.

"The reason I joined the cheerleading squad is because I needed to get into something at school and I love yelling," freshman Shaliyah North said.

1) "Conditioning is pretty much the hardest thing to do in football, and just playing the game is probably the easiest thing to do," junior Michael Irick said.

2) "I've been playing football for six years now and I have developed a passion for it, but I still love playing basketball and running track as well," sophomore Devon Griffin said.

3) "Whenever we win a game I feel happy because I feel like we have accomplished our goal," sophomore De-Andre' Bryant said.

"I've been playing for four years and I just love playing. I just have a love for the game," junior Nicholas Jarrell said.

"The bus rides are pretty much the easiest thing about football," sophomore Robert Banks said.

"I've gotten hurt once while cheering. It was when I was back spotting the person they were throwing in the air and they fell on my head," freshman MaHallie Martin (to the right) said.

"I joined cheerleading because whenever I was watching Bring It On I realized I wanted to cheer," sophomore Sharmine Ford (to the left) said.
