

1) Pushing through the crowd of people, Stanley runs the ball down the middle. "I like practically everything about football, but the reason I joined the team was so I could get stronger and faster," freshman Stanley Morrison said.

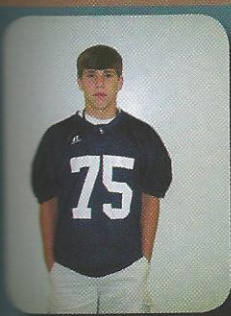

2) William looked out on the field, found his man, and threw him the ball. "The part about football that I like the most is having fun and making friends also. You can kinda call football my hobby," freshman William Reeves said.

3) Getting ready to line up, BJ looks over at the Center and watches him execute the move. "I like playing football and when I get older I want to play for college and then play for the pro's," freshman Benjamin "BJ" Hambleton said.

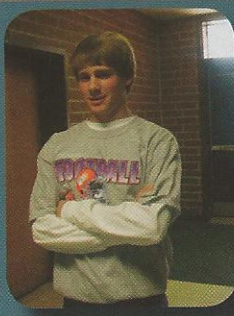

Cheer for the Touchdown!

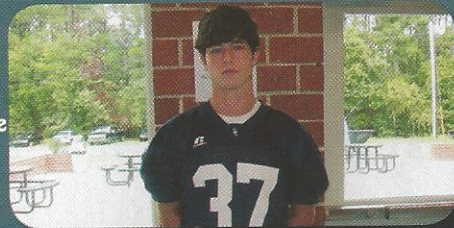

"The hardest thing to do in football is to go through with the heat during practices," junior Jahleel Dubois, #79, said.

"I like to wear my jersey to show it off," sophomore Lennoye "Ryan" Clegg said.

"I play football because I needed something to do after school and because I can hang out with friends," sophomore Jarrett Ritter said.

"I really want to play college football, but I also enjoy wrestling too," sophomore Curtis Hart said.
