

We love soccer....

Former senior student Jessica Killian was defending the ball from the Berkley team at Cougar Stadium on Tuesday in March. "SEE YA." said Jessica.

1. Senior Danielle VanHulst the goalie of the varsity girl's soccer team did a great save at the Beaufort game "I have played since i was three so soccer truly has been my life. I wouldn't had changed a thing about playing for that long I have made friends, especially Melissa Cannavo who has played with me all my life." said Danielle.

2. Alexandria "Alex" played Berkley at the cougar stadium defending the ball with the help from other teammate Kimberley Hiott. " We are family. We live to play and play to live. That's all there is." said junior Alex Coffingham.

3. As former senior student Jessica Polk did a nice foot trap to get the ball away from the Beaufort girls at the Beaufort High School soccer field. "Over the years I have been playing we have all grown together and I love all my girls. I couldn't have asked for a better coach!!" said Jessica

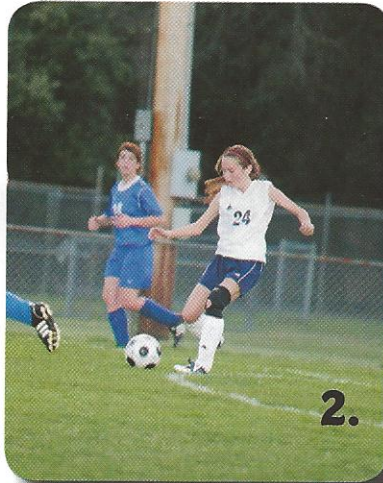

As senior Melissa Cannavo attacked the ball during a home game against Berkley with the support of Kimberly Hiott on Monday night. "Soccer is a way of life, you live and breath it!" said Melissa.

As Kimberly Hiott "Kim" was at the Berkley game she was the first to get to the ball out of two other players on the team behind her. "Stop sucking out, stop sucking in!!!!" said senior Kim.

Renee Brooks did a great outside foot pass to another teammate during the Berkley game at the cougar stadium. " I really like playing with my teammates." said senior Renee.

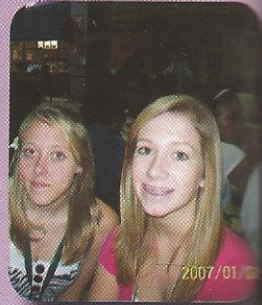

Junior Hillary Clegg was sitting at second lunch waiting on her friends. "You either go out there with your heart or you go home." said Hillary.

Kaela Hayes was standing with her favorite coach during third period. "I love playing soccer because i get to take people out." said Kaela.

Freshman Michaela Barnes was hanging with some friends during second lunch. "The harder you play the better you are." said, Michaela.

Sophomore Brandy Merritt was talking to one of her good friends at lunch. " I like to play soccer because it's a good way to take your anger out." Brandy said.
