Junior Tracy wrestled a Bluffton wrestler last Wednesday night at a home match. "The most memorable moment I have had so far was when I won my first match," Tracy Braecklein said.

During a home match freshman Sean Lemoine put forth his best effort as he wrestled his opponent. "No one really inspired me to be on the wrestling team. I just like it," Sean said.

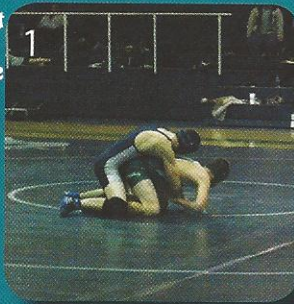

Joshua stood outside of Mrs. Liles Algebra class last week. "Andrew Floresca inspired me to join the wrestling team," sophomore Joshua Breece said.

Adam Freniere pinned his opponent quickly at the home match. "I think Fort Dorchester is the most challenging team because they are really good," sophomore Adam said.

Brandon went head to head with his opponent at the home match. "I wouldn't want to be like a pro wrestler. I just like being me," senior Brandon Frasier said.

1. Mark Freniere quickly pinned his opponent and held him down. "I have injured my ankles and my shoulders before," senior Mark said.

2. Senior Bradley Landrum stood outside of Mrs. McCollum's English four class. "My friend Chris Grimes inspired me to join the wrestling team and it keeps me out of trouble," Bradley said.
