

Who was walking these halls Back In The Day?

Coach Adams has worked here an outstanding 30 years, which is one of the longest terms a teacher has taught at CCHS. Coach Adams graduated from Thomas Academy in 1973. While in high school, he loved playing sports and being a part of student council. "The best part of high school was friendships and the whole experience as a student," Coach Adams said.

Coach Rusty
Adams

New to the CCHS staff in 2010, Ms. Pritchard graduated from CCHS in 2006. She participated in band, NHS, and took two AP classes in school. "I have noticed students now are harder to teach because kids are so used to texting and emailing. Cell phones were just becoming a big thing when I was in high school, so texting wasn't all that popular yet," Ms. Pritchard shared.

Ms. Jennifer
Pritchard

Mrs. Goodwin graduated from Westside High School in Anderson, SC in 1975. She has been a teacher at CCHS for 10 years. "The best part about going to high school at Westside was the school spirit, pep rallies and the parades. Students had more school spirit than they do now." When she was in high school, she participated in the band, was on the yearbook staff and played softball.

Mrs. Rebecca
Goodwin

Coach Smith is a very serious teacher who treats everyone with respect. He has worked a whole 17 years at CCHS. In high school, his interests included academics, attending band trips, and just plain out going to school. Coach Smith graduated from Summerville High in 1975. "The biggest thing that has changed since when I was in school is definitely technology," Coach Smith said.

Coach George
Smith

Mrs. Vicki
Brown

Mrs. Brown, a graduate from Sumter High in 1977, has dedicated 16 years of her life to teaching at CCHS. When she was a student, she enjoyed parties, friends, movies, bowling, and off campus lunch. Mrs. Brown participated in graphic club and bible club.

Mrs. Lorraine
Browning

Mrs. Browning, graduated from Walterboro High in 1977. She has been working in this school for 9 and a half years and is very respected. When she was in high school, she enjoyed going to sports events and pep rallies. Mrs. Browning participated in Student Council and Future Teachers Of America.

Mrs. Sharon
Courtney

Mrs. Courtney, the only French teacher at CCHS, has worked here for 19 long years. When she was in High School, she had her eyes on one prize, and that was becoming valedictorian. She was focused on school and was very goal oriented. She participated in the Band Of Blue, National Honor Society, Student Council and the Literary Club.

Mrs. Courtney's hard work paid off when she graduated in 1980 and was valedictorian.

Mrs. Cherrilyn
Keaise

Mrs. Keaise is a dedicated teacher that has worked here for 18 years. She believes students really don't have much interest in school. "This could be a direct reflection of our societal problems and lack of value," Mrs. Keaise shared. She enjoyed High School but spent most of her time outside. She graduated in 1986 from Walterboro High.

