

Mr. William Hayden

Mr. Hayden was a part of the first class that graduated from Walterboro High in 1983 and has worked here a total of 22 years! Mr. Hayden was a part of the military club and enjoyed being in NHS. "I wish the NHS would now volunteer in the community like they did back then," Mr. Hayden said.

Mrs. Lydia Culler

Mrs. Culler graduated in 2003 from CCHS, and immediately went to college to pursue teaching. After college, she began her career at CCHS. In high school, Mrs. Culler enjoyed socializing, playing varsity soccer, and being in the musicals for chorus.

Coach Polk graduated from Starville Mississippi in 1977. Back in the day, he enjoyed going out with friends, pep rallies, and sports. Coach Polk has been at this school for 26 successful years.

Mr. Russell Polk

Mrs. Kim Liles

Mrs. Liles graduated from Wando High School in 1979 and has worked at CCHS for 18 years. "The best part about high school is not having and responsibility other then going to school," Mrs. Liles said. "I was in NHS, the German Club and Yearbook Class". Mrs. Liles shared.

She enjoyed shopping, going to the movies, and every vacation she was able to take was at the beach.

Ms. Barbara Gehlmann

Ms. Gehlmann graduated from Walterboro High in 1993. Ms. Gehlmann participated in the BETA club and FCA. She loved the pep rallies and socializing with her friends. Ms. Gehlmann believes that there is a lack of discipline since she has been in high school. She also believed that parents were more involved with the staff.

Mrs. Judith Vincent

Mrs. Vincent graduated high school in 1969. She was a very mature young lady that had to deal with school and hard times in society. Even with the societal difficulties, Mrs. Vincent overlooked everything and had a really great high school experience. She was a part of the projection club, which she adored, and her most memorable experience was prom.

Mr. Joey Ritter

Coach Ritter has worked at CCHS for about 14 years. He graduated from John C. Calhoun High School in 1984. Coach Ritter thinks classes are now much harder. He enjoyed all sports and said that the best part about high school was graduation.

Ms. Stephanie Drawdy

Ms. Drawdy graduated in 1979 from Williamsburg Academy in Kingstree, SC. She was a Sports Editor for the school newspaper and was the first girl to letter in football. She was in NHS and chorus. Ms. Drawdy has been working at CCHS for 26 years. "When I was in school, we respected our teachers and all adults," Ms. Drawdy shared.

