

Truly embodying the principles of NHS is Mikalah Ramey, who contributed pictures for use in the yearbook!

INTo the Path of Success!

Students demonstrating excellence and aptitude.

Now part of a large, welcoming family of students, Kayla Howell reflects, "Induction night for NHS was memorable for me because I became a part of something that takes strides to better the community."

Taking a much needed break from helping Dustin Smith hand out programs before the 2010-2011 induction ceremony, Danielle Sexton says, "I was excited so many people were interested in NHS because community service is important."
