

DECA

The girls have a lot of fun riding to the competition. Surprisingly, they had enough energy to compete when they arrived. "Though annoying, their enthusiasm was admired," said DECA President Karan Patel

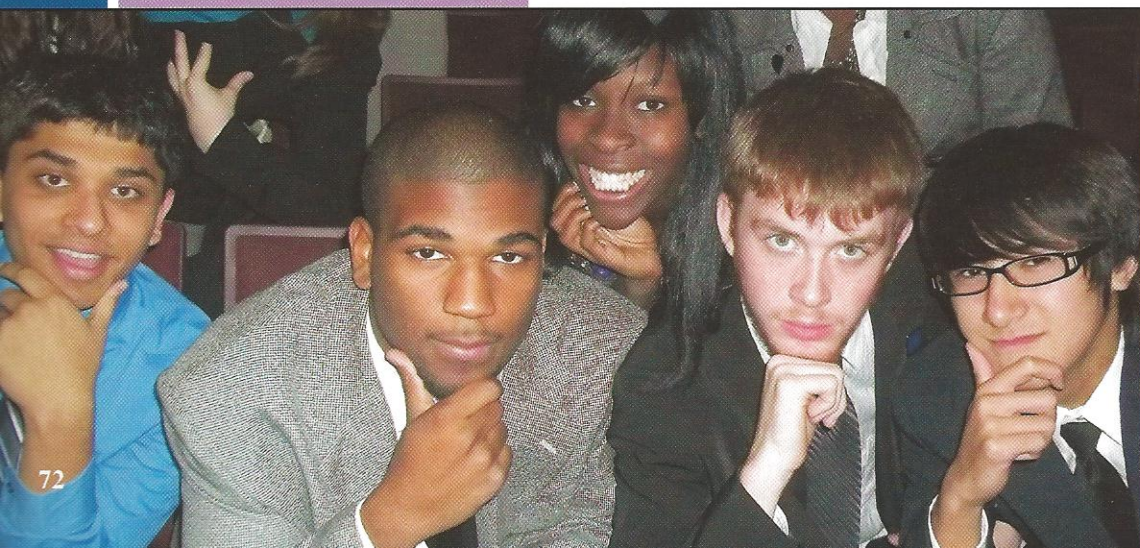

OUT of the Classroom

DECA members Karan Patel, Trey Black, Veronica Bastian, Campbell Wiltshire, and Trervor Pham pose for a picture. "I was pretty nervous on the way to the competition," said Trervor Pham, "but, when I arrived I was ready." Trervor went on to place 8th in Retail Marketing, saving him a spot for the next competition.

DECA accomplished a lot this year, building for itself a reputation at numerous competitions and raising money for charities. TCTC's chapter honored CCHS senior Robert Glover by donating money to Pennies for Patients. Perhaps one day we will see the fruits of our labor as our young members head out into life with the skills and knowledge that they have gained from being a part of DECA.

Members gathered for a picture before the regional competition at Wando High. Everyone was excited, yet anxious. Mr. Kubik, the advisor for TCTC's DECA chapter felt confident this year's group would leave a lasting impression. Surely they did when looking at the 26 out of 30 that placed to go to state.