

Left "I decided to be in LEAPS because I'm going to become a leader someday," said Freshman Darrell Harley. Darrell planned to seek a profession in computer technology and hopes to help people in the future.

Top Right "LEAPS will help me because I want to become a primary school teacher, and this school majors in education and leadership." Sophomore Kirkland Bennett voiced. Kirkland likes LEAPS but wishes she would have more classes there.

Bottom Right "I want to work in the special education field when I graduate. Ever since I participated in the Special Olympics, I've fallen in love with their amazing personalities" explained sophomore Halie West. Halie is proud to be in LEAPS because it taught her leadership skills, gave her the necessary credentials, and prepared her for the future.
