

LEFT Senior Amanda Hughes is attentively using her laptop to work on some unfinished classwork for one of her online curriculums. "Online classes aren't fun and are only good if you have a lot of free time on your hands," Amanda explained.

TOP RIGHT Mr. McCannar assists junior Patrick Salley in Oracle Management, which is a class all about computer sciences and programming. "I chose this class because I am studying to be a game designer and I am learning all the important information that I will need."

BOTTOM RIGHT Sophomore Emily Stone is quietly sitting in Mrs. Eades' Computer Application class working in Microsoft word. "We learn how to navigate all the essential computer programs that would be needed in the working world," Emily explained.

Senior Brai Hampleton is intently doing her classwork for Virtual Enterprise. In this particular class, students are able to participate in an online business and also brainstorm products that they would want to sell in their own online business.

Junior Denise Stevens is working on some classwork for Oracle Management. "I think this class will get me where I need to be and I also wanted to have some experience with computers," Denise explains.

Senior Keosha Brock stated she enjoys Virtual Enterprise because you learn how to deal with money and an online business while still having fun. She also said, "Mrs. Dewit helps us extensively when we don't understand something and additionally breaks it down for us."