Andrew Judy and Diane Cook pal around before they chow down! Sporting her Senior crown, Diane said, "We cooked on our grill and ate, then we played games and listened to music."

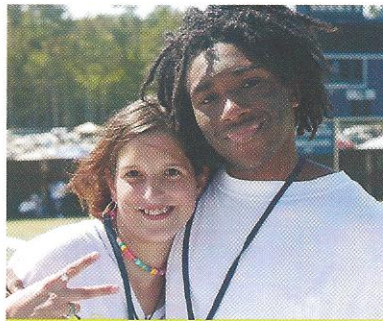

Lakenya Williams and Khaliyah Yates grill some hot dogs for their friends. "I loved Senior Tailgate. I was proud of my cooking!" said Khaliyah. She loved being able to hang out with her fellow seniors since it was their last year together.

Senior Tailgate

Music, laughter, and the smell of great food flooded the stadium's parking lot. The true seniors lived it up at the annual Tailgate. "Tailgate was the best part of Spirit Week because we were out there with good music and good friends. It was just a good time." said senior Jarrett Ritter. The twelfth graders parked their cars and trucks and got to grilling! Not only was the parking lot crawling with upperclassmen, but the stadium was, too! Dancing, soccer, football, and rock climbing made this year's Senior Tailgate a blast for everyone who participated.

Senior Jason Cortez accepts a challenge and decides to climb the famous rock wall. "I almost fell a couple of times, but I got up there!" Jason loved how he got to miss class to hang out with friends. The rock wall was 'crawling' with upperclassmen!

Bridgett James and Trenton Hamilton spend some time up in the stands to spectate the students' exciting games of football and soccer.

Seniors Weston Stratton, Davaun Taylor, Nolan Thomas, Shane Lyons, and Cameron Butler grill out together and show their school spirit. "I loved Senior Tailgate because I got to chill with all my friends!"

Seniors Amanda Hughes and Melissa Weber dance it up on the football field. Amanda said, "Tailgate was my favorite part of Spirit Week. It was the first time I got to hang out with my friends and actually have fun. I'm so happy to be a senior."
