

TOP LEFT Andrew Hammonds, sophomore, mimics his favorite character, Harry Potter. Having picked a scene from the movie, "The Deathly Hallows: Pt. I", Andrew has mastered Harry's well known pose.

TOP RIGHT Junior Joseph Mandra replays a dual seen from the second Harry Potter film, "The Chamber of Secrets". Having liked Slytherin, Joseph commented, "Slytherin is the best and has the best name."

TO THE RIGHT While sporting off the Gryffindor colored scarf, Sophomore Destiny Rose, junior practices her spell casting abilities. Having seen the first movie, Destiny has found Ronald Weasley to be her favorite character.

Sophomore Kayla Delooze casts a spell, putting everyone to sleep. When asked to come up with an idea for a spell, Kayla decided on a "sleeping" spell. It would make people doze off into a deep slumber for a long period of time.

Sophomore Tomia Jones wears the colors of Gryffindor where her favorite character Harry Potter stays. Tomia explained how the second movie, The Chamber of Secrets, was her favorite move, because of all the action it contained.

Sophomore Emily Stone, having seen all the movies and read all the books, takes the time to think about her favorites. Having the chance too, Emily explained that she would relate her house of HARTS to the house of Ravenclaw.