

TOP LEFT Senior Jerome McWilliams, sets up a green screen for the News Broadcasting Room. Jerome explains "I enjoy the freedom that comes with being in the Video class."

TOP RIGHT Using her favorite vibrant color pink, freshman Amber Shuman, incorporates puzzle pieces into her art work. As well as painting, Amber likes to draw and color during her time in class.

BOTTOM LEFT Sophomore Jordan McDonald works on a video in Ms. Waddell's Video class titled "Worst Nightmare." Having become a student in Mrs. Waddell's video class, Jordan has been able to create a variety of videos.

BOTTOM RIGHT After applying paint to his tray to finish his project, freshman Stayvon Varnor, unknowingly places his hand into the paint. "I like to do hands on art activities," Stayvon explains. Leaving a shocked expression on his face.

Freshman Malaysia Malone was inspired by her favorite artist Van Gogh, she explained as she worked on a piece of art work. Malaysia said "Van Gogh has pretty specific details with meanings in every painting"

Freshman Jacob Cox fills his tray with his wanted colors. While in Art 1, Jacob has worked on many projects that allow him to show his creativity. "I joined art because I always have wanted to be a good artist," Jacob Cox explained.

Freshman Derek Jamison mixes the paint needed to work on a project. Using the orange colored paint, Derek is able to lighten and darken it up for his value scale of color.

