

TOP LEFT Sophomore William Smyly said, "Speaking a foreign language makes it easier to talk to foreign people because the Latin American population is growing." He likes his Spanish class because his teacher, Mr. Barretto, is very nice.

TOP RIGHT "Flashcards and a quiet place to study are some study tactics I use when studying new words," said Senior Kelli Manigo. Mrs. Davis also helps her classmates by labeling objects in her classroom.

BOTTOM LEFT Sophomore Katie Buckler said, "I study the night before a test and make a good grade the next day." She thinks learning a foreign language is very interesting.

BELOW Senior Cameron Butler said, "My foreign language ability in French 2 is a three because we're not halfway through the semester and some words are confusing." As hard as the words may be, it only takes him a couple of days to learn a word by using flashcards.

Sophomore Chelsey Dewitt said, "I wanted to learn a foreign language, so I could know what foreign people are saying." Her learning ability in Spanish is a five, but by the end of the semester she hopes for it to be a ten.

Sophomore Charisma Williams said, "Yes, I would recommend this class to someone because you're going to need it for college." Most four year colleges now require you to have taken at least three courses in a foreign language.

Sophomore Carrie Gatch said, "Yes, I would recommend Spanish class to people because it would be good to have in case you need it in the world." She likes her Spanish teacher, Mr. Barretto.
