TOP RIGHT Sophomore Cadet Alex Gadsden, is going to see his officer after a long day of BLT training. Alex said, "I've been on a lot of NJROTC field trips, but my favorite one was definitely BLT training. It shows your physical, and mental abilities, it is really challenging but really fun!"

MIDDLE Senior Cadet Kelli Manigo, junior Cadet Alexandria Douglas, and sophomore Cadets Latoya Ashby, Terion Scriven and Tyseon Scriven are standing with their drill instructor from their BLT training over summer. Kelli said, "I joined NJROTC because I wanted to gain more leadership qualities, and learn more about the military."

MIDDLE RIGHT Freshman Cadet Jonathon Spell, is escort for Miss Sophomore Rachel McDowell. Jonathan said, "I joined NJROTC so that I can learn better responsibility, change my attitude, and learn the education about the military. I really enjoy being in NJROTC and plan to stay in it all four years."

Junior Cadet Ray Barton and sophomore Cadets William Smyly, and Christopher Turgeon are apart of the Honor Guard at homecoming. Christopher said, "In NJROTC I'm a CPO which is a Chief Petty officer. I worked really hard to get there, it took a lot of commitment to my unit."

Senior Cadets Shane Lyons, Harrison Smallwood, and sophomore Cadet Jared Hess are the other three guys in the Honor Guard for homecoming. Shane said, "I love to wear my uniform, because it shows how hard I work and my commitment to my team and the rest of the unit. "

Freshman Cadet Michael Bastian is in the Coast Guard boat, on a trip with the NJROTC. Michael said, "I joined NJROTC because I wanted to go into the military after high school, and also I'll be ranked an E3 if I stay in NJROTC all four years."
