

TOP LEFT Senior Breyanna Smalls explained, "I joined band because I wanted to learn all the musical instruments so I can expand on my music."

TOP RIGHT Senior Antwuan Gantt, freshman Blake Cook, and sophomore Terell Samuels, three lead tuba players of the Band of Blue, began their performance with an outstanding sound. Antwuan stated, "Wando is my favorite competition because they are a great band and I liked the competition."

BOTTOM LEFT The colorguard girls walked off the field carrying their rifles while wearing their new uniforms after a performance at Cougar stadium. Junior Katherine Judy says, "friends and socialism" was her favorite thing about band.

BOTTOM RIGHT As the band members entered onto the field the drumline set the beat for the performance.

Freshman Joshua Pontoon A member of band for four years said "music" was his favorite thing about being in band. Joshua explained band had impacted his life because "It helped me appreciate music more and get to know more people."

Junior Amber Pinckney The drum major of the Band of Blue directed the band when to play their part. Amber stated, "being in band has made me more confident and made me a better leader."

Senior Amanda Hughes Amanda said, "band has made me more confident in my ability to perform and allowed me to mature more. Her favorite thing about band was, "the rushy feel right before and after a performance."

