Student Council

"Spirit, yeah, we got the Spirit"... Every member of Colleton County High School's Student Council embodied this chant in all they accomplished or aspired to do. CCHS Student Council was a student-based program developed to help promote school spirit and leadership among students. This year only, CCHS Student Council has assisted with or coordinated a blood drive, partnered with local non-profits on a 9-11 "Day of Caring" Food Drive, organized homecoming events, and attended the "District Rally" where members attended workshops to better their council.

BOTTOM LEFT: Members of our Student Council made Christmas cards for the soldiers who were overseas. Many members stayed after school to make these cards so that the soldiers could have a little bit of Christmas, too!

Senior Camden Wiggins student body president decided to maintain his position since his freshman year because "there was no question to whether or not I would run. Student Council means that I could be a leader and help the school in many different aspects."
